Many a Medford father, if given his choice of what he would like to do on Father's day, would go fishing. One of these is Earl Knight, shown here with his three sons and a nephew, who often accompany Mr. Knight on his fishing trips. They load up the family station wagon and boat with fishing gear, food and camping equipment, and head for a favorite fishing spot. Mr. Knight likes river fishing best, and is shown here telling the boys about the merits and proper use of a
