What's New at BELL'S

You can spend just a little—yet feel rich as King Midas—owning or giving a lovely gold-on-bisque flower bowl. Planters, vases, and giant ashtrays, too, in this new hand-crafted ware. The bisque base, in creamy beige or sophisticated black, shows through the gold overlay to produce an interesting textured effect. Priced from $2.45 to $9.95.

Wrought iron accessories are a smart note in home decoration. Open work baskets or trays have so many uses that your imagination is the only limit. Candelabra in many styles are effective on mantel or table. And a frame with container for canned heat keeps casserole dishes hot for buffet or patio serving.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net and lace and her finger-tip length veil was lace-edged. She carried a white orchid with valley lilies.

Miss Irene Williams was maid-of-honor for her sister. Her gown was of green net and she carried sweet peas and lily of the valley. Miss Janet Johnson and Nancy Newton were bridesmaids. Miss Johnson wore a frock of pink net and Miss Newton's frock was of yellow net. Both carried sweet peas and valley lilies.

Elvis Crites, Ashland, was best man for his brother and Pat Garrett, Daniel Ferrier and George Williams seated the guests.

About 200 guests attended the reception which was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Blythe Hirst and Miss Betty Johnson poured and Miss Dorothy Duncan served the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Nancy Lambo and Miss Betty Mowbray.

Day Camp Continues Despite Weather; Plan Second Week

In spite of cool and intermittently rainy weather the first week of the Girl Scout day camp closed Thursday with an average attendance of 135 girls.

Thursday morning the Junior Camp council, composed of two representatives from each unit, held a meeting to discuss the week's activities of the camp and made suggestions for the second week. One of the suggestions was that folk dancing and finger painting be included for the third and fourth grade units.

Each day of the first week a different unit conducted the opening and closing ceremonies. Among the highlights of the week were a swim at the Leverette pool for the fifth grade with Lou Cranston acting as life guard, a trip to the Jacksonville museum by the seventh grade unit, and an overnight camp-out by the sixth grade unit.

At camp closing Thursday Mrs. Ray Baker was introduced. She will be camp director this week. Her camp nickname is to be "Sunshine," while Mrs. Stout's nickname was "Breeze." She was director for the past week, and the girls say that since they had a "breeze" last week, they will surely have "sunshine" for the second week.

Mothers are asked to note that if they cannot possibly be at camp by 3:15 p.m. to pick up the girls, the girls will meet them at the Girl Scout House. If the weather is bad and rainy early in the morning, so that camp cannot be held that day, it will be announced over the radio stations around 9 a.m. If during the day it starts to rain and continues, mothers should call for children. The protection of the trees is quite effective, for light intermittent showers, the staff points out.

College Student To Visit Sister

Miss Shirley Seekatz will leave today for Berkeley, Calif., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. John Maciolek and Mr. Maciolek. Miss Seekatz arrived Friday evening from Oregon State college, Corvallis, where she recently completed her freshman year. Her brother-in-law is an assistant professor at the University of California where he is earning his master's degree in the field of fish and game. Mrs. Maciolek and Miss Seekatz are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Seekatz, 1004 West Fourth street.

Mrs. Winkiebeck gave two whistling selections accompanied by Miss Beverly Lyman at the piano. Miss Lyman also gave a humorous reading.

To Give Ballad Opera For Edinburgh Festival

New York—A rarely heard 18th century ballad opera, with a setting in the Scottish Highlands, will be a feature this year of the Edinburgh international festival of music and drama.

Joseph Mitchell's work, "The Highland Fair," first published in 1731, nearly a century before Sir Walter Scott established the Scottish Highlands as a background for tales of romantic adventure, will be performed during the first two weeks of the festival, beginning Aug. 17.

The action of the little-known ballad opera revolves around the rivalry of two clans and the attempts at reconciliation.

At the time the work was first performed, Scottish airs were becoming popular in the south of England. Mitchell used 50 such melodies in their 18th century form. Many of them are comparatively unknown today, although they are of exceptional beauty.

During the dry season, tomatoes are abundant in Tagaytay, the Philippines, while water is scarce. People use ripe tomatoes to wash their hands before eating or retiring.

A business meeting was held after a dessert luncheon was served. Announcement was made of a covered dish dinner to be held at the Pythian building June 19 at 6:30 p.m. by the Royal Neighbor camp. The dinner is for members, their families and invited guests.

The meat and dessert dishes have been provided, the committees announced, and those attending should take a hot vegetable or salad.

The oracle, Mrs. William Russell, who has been ill, is reported improved and is at the home of her mother.

The next regular meeting of the club will be a luncheon with Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Grace Wakefield and Mrs. Hilder Ecklund in charge. Special program is planned.
