Juniors Win Awards At Rose Festival

Members of Bliss Heine's Juniors returned to Medford yesterday after participating in Portland's annual Rose festival. The group won a first prize ribbon for travelling the longest distance; a third place white ribbon for marching units, and a special trophy to be sent them later. They reported that while the day of the floral parade was sunshiny, the junior parade was held in the rain.

A party in the juniors honor was given Saturday night at the West Linn inn, where the group stayed.

Fifty - three members and ten chaperones made the trip.
