

Kefauver, Harriman Conduct Campaign in Voteless Washington

BY LYLE C. WILSON
Washington — (U.P.) — This is the day voteless Washingtonians are invited to shake hands with Estes and Nancy at one time or another in almost any part of town, and perhaps, get a handshake from W. Averell Harriman, to boot.

McKinley Climbers To Carry Atomic Nuclear Plates

Anchorage, Alaska — (U.P.) — The first of four parties planning to climb 20,269 foot Mt. McKinley and neighboring peaks in the mighty Alaska range made ready Tuesday to begin an "atomic mission" on North America's highest mountain.

The four-man group was led by Army Capt. William Hackett, Portland, Ore., the only American who has climbed the highest peaks in North and South America and Africa. Other mountaineers from Fairbanks, Alaska, Harvard University and Mexico will head into the rugged interior later.

Hackett said his group carried several nuclear plates coated with special emulsions to record the effect of cosmic rays striking the earth.

Will be Valuable
The cosmic impressions on the plates will be of "immense value" to America's nuclear scientists, he said. He said the plates will be left on the mountain top for several days and then returned to the New York university physics department, which prepared them.

In addition to Hackett, the group was composed of Robert Goodwin, 25, Salt Lake City, Utah; Ernest Bowman, 28, Leadville, Colo.; and Robert Anderson, 23, Milwaukee, Ore.

missus as a team, Harriman on his own, have brought to Washington a presidential campaign with the fervor of the old time religion.

Six Delegates Prize
Six Democratic National Convention delegates are the prize. Barring only Florida, there has not been a hotter Democratic primary contest this year. Harriman's literature goes as far as it dares in calling him President Truman's favorite. Some administration men are out in the open for him. Kefauver and his wife Nancy plug the folksy, charm school campaign with the big smile. It has paid off for them so far.

Goggle-eyed pedestrians saw Kefauver and his wife ride down Washington's "F" street Monday, a sound truck in the lead. The pixie driver of a Dixie Belle gin truck fell in behind the two-car procession and refused to pass. Kefauver sat on the back seat of a convertible tossing campaign outions to sidewalkers.

Cars Picked Up
The second time around, some hours later, Kefauver still was smiling but he had shed his coat on the hottest day so far this year. The parade had picked up four Kefauver-for-President cars to complete his procession in the rear and to ward off other volunteer truckers.

Newspaper ads announced the Kefauvers' schedule for Tuesday. "Vote! Meet Nancy and Estes." They will appear at upward of 30 polling places to give voters a chance to "shake hands with the next president." That's what the ads said.

Favors Chinese Aid
Both candidates have been swinging through town on speaking tours. Harriman making a play for the minority vote in Negro churches and the like. He told Chinese in Chinatown's Cathy restaurant that he favored more aid for Nationalist China.

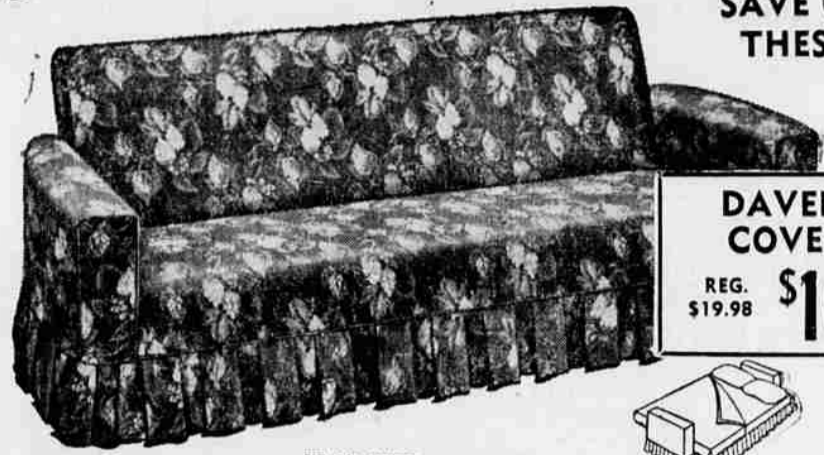

Kefauver's aggressive campaign practically on the White House steps has frazzled some of the Democratic old guard. They are saying: "If Harry doesn't move soon, that young fellow from Tennessee will swipe the nomination." They plan an appeal to the president.
