Carl Hueners To Hurl For Medford Against Dunsmuir Wednesday

Carl Hueners will be starting chucker for the Medford Cheney Studs Wednesday when the Studs skirmish with the Dunsmuir, Calif., semi-pro nine at the fairgrounds baseball park here. Game time will be 8 p. m.

Hueners, whose experience has included brief duty with the professional Medford Rogues has been tossing for the Central Point Millers in the Rogue Valley league this season.

Held in reserve by the Studs will be Cliff Piland, who pitched brilliant relief ball against Bandon in a Southwestern Oregon league game last Saturday. Wooton at Third Derald Wooton, a regular thrower for the Studs, is ticketed for third base work against Dunsmuir. Alex McDonald will be at shortstop. Connie Holzgang at second base and Clarence Mellbye or George Gitzen at first base. Frank Roelandt will be catcher and in the outfield will be Moose Blevins, Terry Maddox, and Snuffy Smith. Maddox has been playing recently for Hill, Calif.

The most up to date information on Dunsmuir shows that club among the leaders of the Northern California league. Medford is knotted for fourth in the Southwestern Oregon loop. Outcome of the game should give some idea of the comparative strength of the two circuits.

One member of the Dunsmuir club was with Medford at the start of the season. He is Marvin Cartwright, who probably will be catcher for the California crew. He played in the infield and outfield for the Studs.

Hollywood After PCL First Spot

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Runner-up Hollywood was favored Tuesday to take the Pacific Coast league baseball leadership from San Diego in their series which begins tonight in the Padres' home town.

The Padres hold a two-game edge over the Stars, who showed exceptional power in recent contests.

San Francisco and Sacramento meet at the state capitol to decide who inherits the last place in PCL standings.

San Francisco will visit Oakland, while Portland plays at Los Angeles.

PITCHES NO-HITTER

Portland — (U.P.) — Bill Wittala hurled a no-hit, no-run game Monday night to lead Thompson Fab-Portland Bolt to an 11-0 American Legion Junior baseball victory over Starr Construction here.

Salem Solons Top Seattle In Exhibition

BY UNITED PRESS

Pacific Coast league teams are learning the hard way that members of the class A Western International league are no soft touches.

The WIL record against its big brother stood at 2-0 Tuesday after the latest blow to the coast circuit's pride—Salem's 3-1 victory over Seattle Rainiers Monday night. San Francisco was the first to fall, bowing to Yakima recently.

A two-run third inning iced the game for the Senators, who had lost six in a row. Singles by Jim Deyo, Andy Anderson and Connie Perez loaded the sacks and set the stage for Dick Bartle's double to right.

Sal De George scattered six hits to gain credit for the win. Charlie Schanz, who gave up 12 bingles, was charged with the defeat.

In the regular WIL games played, loop-leading Victoria and runnerup Spokane both lost ground to the rest of the pack. Tri-City edged the Canadians, 6-5, while Wenatchee tripped Spokane, 6-1.

The Tynes nearly pulled the game out of the fire with a four-run rally in the ninth, but player-manager Cecil Garriott was tagged out trying to steal home.

Charlie Oubre held Spokane to five hits as the Chiefs took advantage of three errors to down the Indians.

Portland Youths Lead Qualifiers At Junior Meet

Portland — (U.P.) — Two Portland youths won clear-cut medal honors Monday as 225 youngsters staged dawn-to-dusk qualifying play at Alderwood Country club in the annual Oregon Golf association junior tournament.

Sue DeVoe, the girls runner-up last year, shot a 45-42-87 to pace the feminine field and Jerry Forrester ran up a 51 for nine holes to top the special pee-wee bracket.

Bob Dauterman of Longview, Wash., Bob Donnelly of Portland and Bob Seeds, of Vancouver, Wash., finished in a three-way tie for top honors in the junior division, each with one-over-par 74.

Don Slevers of Pendleton and Vince Altenhofen of Portland, a pair of 15-year-olds, set the pace in the boys division with 78s.

Central Point Teams Top Ashland Twice

Central Point—The Central Point Cubs defeated Ashland's Cubs, 13 to 5 in a baseball game played here last night. Central Point Pitcher Bob Hill struck out 12, gave up 2 hits and allowed 4 walks over the five-inning route.

In the Pee Wee contest, the Central Point club defeated Ashland, 7 to 5. McQuade homered for the winners. Stubbs and Hamilton were the battery for the Central Point team.

Portland — (U.P.) — Veteran Emery Neale stroked his way to his fifth Portland city tennis championship Monday by defeating former University of Washington star Jim Brink, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3.

ROUGH LANDING—Chicago White Sox's first baseman Ed Robinson makes a one-point landing as he scores on Ed Stewart's fourth-inning double during first White Sox-Red Sox game Sunday at Chicago Stadium. Boston catcher, Wilber, waits for throw.

Bonus Pitcher Eddie Urness Wins First Professional Contest, 6-4

Schenectady, N. Y. — (U.P.) — A young pitcher's first assignment in professional baseball is always a tough one to win, but Eddie Urness, the bonus boy hurler from The Dalles, Ore., had the initial test behind him Tuesday.

The 18-year-old righthander, who signed with the Boston Red Sox for a reported $50,000, struck out four, walked five and gave up only six hits in hurling the Albany Senators to a 6-4 victory Monday night over Schenectady.

Legion Mix Wednesday

The Medford American Legion junior baseball club will contend with a strong opponent Wednesday when it meets the Eugene Legion nine.

Site of the activity will be the Medford fairgrounds field. It was originally planned to play at Camp White, but the field is not in good shape there, Legion team officials indicated. A doubleheader may be played. The first game is set for 1:30 p. m.

Eugene Plays Klamath Eugene's crew will come here after playing today at Klamath Falls. The Lane county gang has two earlier wins over Klamath. Last Sunday Klamath topped Medford by scores of 8 to 4 and 11 to 1.

Jim Kelly is expected to get the starting call as Medford pitcher in one of the frays. His performance was the best of four Medfordites on Sunday. The other starting flinger may be Gordon Carrigan, a Central Point high athlete. He played third base Sunday.

1952 Collegiate Tourney Finale Scheduled Tonight

Omaha, Neb. — (U.P.) — Missouri and Holy Cross will settle a heated East-West baseball feud Tuesday night in the final game of the 1952 College World Series.

The Crusaders, who caught fire in the later rounds of the meet, defeated the Missouri club 7-3 Monday night to take their fourth series game in a row, after losing to Missouri 1-0 in the second round.

Missouri will be battling to keep the crown west of the Mississippi River. No Eastern club ever has won the NCAA tournament.

U.S. Golfers Advance in British Play

Tron, Scotland — (U.P.) — Mae Murray of Rutland, Vt., gained the fourth round of the British Women's Amateur golf championship Tuesday with a 4 and 3 victory over Celia Nicholson of Scotland as third round play began with a strong southwesterly gale and squalls of rain sweeping Tron's 6,500-yard seaside course.

The four Americans and 28 others who survived Monday's two opening rounds faced a struggle with the weather as well as each other in the match play grind.

After weeks of dry weather that baked the fairways and greens bone-hard, a heavy storm off the Firth of Clyde and the Irish Sea greeted the women.

Besides Miss Murray, Claire Doran of Cleveland, and Polly Riley and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite, both of Fort Worth, Tex., were the only other U. S. players still in the tournament. Six others, including national champion Dot Kirby of Atlanta, were eliminated Monday and Tuesday's weather was not expected to help the American chances.

Tron, Scotland — (U.P.) — Graeie DeMoss of Corvallis, Ore., bowed to England's Jan Machin, 1-up in a second-round match Monday and was eliminated from the British Women's Amateur golf championships. Miss DeMoss earlier had taken her first-round match, 1-up, from Dorothy Beck of England.

Champion in Grave Danger Of Losing to Sugar Ray

Grosinger, N. Y. — (U.P.) — Unless he is putting on a act, Joe Maxim is in grave danger of losing his light heavyweight crown to smaller Sugar Ray Robinson at Yankee stadium Monday night.

That was the unanimous opinion of sports writers in camp Tuesday as Cleveland Joey retired from training.

The supposedly "good big man" hasn't been looking "good" in preparation for his 15-round fight with the "good little man" — Robinson, Jack Dempsey was so surprised at Maxim's sluggishness Monday, he declined to predict the winner of the June 23 fight. After he had flown in from Montreal to make a forecast, Dempsey evaded a selection by saying, "I never saw Robinson fight."

It was the second consecutive day on which sparmate Joe

Blackwood of Patterson, N. J., belted the champion about the ring. And Blackwood is a middleweight, scaling only 161 pounds. Maxim registered 177. The weight difference between Maxim and Robinson will be somewhat similar.

Maxim became very angry at his poor showing against the dusky middleweight who had knocked him down with a left hook on Sunday. Joey blamed everything on his headguard during the three rounds.

Between rounds he complained to trainers Al Del Monte and Freddie Fierro: "I can't see. This thing keeps slipping down over my eyes." Another headguard was sent for, but it arrived after the sparring was finished.

Some observers believed Maxim "stale" because of too much work in the warm weather. He has sparred 107 rounds for this fight.

gether enough hits to get back in the ball game after Holy Cross took a 6-1 lead in the sixth. The Crusaders picked up a run in the fourth and added five more in the sixth, completing their scoring in the eighth when Perry singled to drive in Dick Hogan, who had tripped.
