Preacher Roe Goes Route For Dodgers

By UNITED PRESS
A starter who finally finished and two finishers who finally got a start, stirred things up in the National League race today.

Preacher Roe, whose teammates were taking him off the hook so often he said he was beginning to feel like a striped-mouth bass, finally completed his first game in a month in Brooklyn by beating the Cubs, 6 to 1 as the Dodgers increased their lead to four full games.

Over the river in the Polo Pirates, finally getting a start Grounds, Forrest Main of the after 19 relief appearances, topped the Giants, 6 to 2, on an eight-hitter as Gus Bell hit a grand slam homer.

Three Hitter
At Philadelphia, Al Brazle, buried a three-hit, 4 to 0 victory for the Cards over the Phillies, in his first start after Bill Nicholson had won the first game, 2 to 1, for Philly with a pinch-single in the ninth.

In the American league, the White Sox closed in on the leaders with 13 to 1 and 2 to 1 victories over the Athletics as Eddie Robinson's hitting featured both games. The two wins put Chicago only half a game behind Cleveland which lost its fourth straight game, 4 to 3, to Washington. The Tigers topped the Yankees, 7 to 6, in 11 innings and the Browns stopped the Red Sox 3 to 1, by bunting three of their five hits in the sixth.

Camp White Posts Second Softball League Victory

One tiff in the women's league and one in the men's loop is scheduled in Medford Softball league action at the senior high school on Thursday. The women's game will be at 7:30 p.m. with the men's fracas to follow.

Stars Beat Padres 5-2

San Francisco — (U.P.) — A little guy named Carlos Bernier, a medium-sized fellow like Tom Seffell and a big bruiser called Pinky Woods were the glamour boys of the Hollywood Stars Wednesday.

Bernier, the larceny-minded outfielder, stole his 33rd base of the season Tuesday night and rapped out two hits, one a two-run triple, as his mates posted a 5-2 victory over San Diego to move within one game of the Padres' Pacific Coast league lead.

Saffell, Bernier's running mate in the Hollywood outfield, rapped out a homer, and Woods, who started the 1952 season slowly, pitched a steady game to post the important win.

Portland Wins
In other games, consecutive homers by Sam Chapman and Johnny Ostrowski led Oakland to a 3-1 victory over Seattle; Bob Thurman's three run homer got San Francisco a 4-2 win from Sacramento, and Lyman Linde pitched Portland by Los Angeles, 2-1.

Linde's effort was a four-hitter, one of them a homer by Bob Talbot. Eddie Basinski singled home one Portland run. And he scored the winning one in the fifth, doubling and scooting across the plate when shortstop Frankie Austin laced a single.

Cheney Studs Tussle Here This Evening

Semi-pro baseball returns to the fairgrounds baseball park here tonight when the Medford Cheney Studs and the Dunsmuir, Calif., aggregation mix. Game time is 8 o'clock.

It will be an inter-league contest. The Studs are members of the Southwestern Oregon league and Dunsmuir hails from the Northern California circuit.

Ozzie Williams is the probable starting chucker for the California nine while the Studs are borrowing the services of Carl Hueners, who tosses for the Central Point Millers of the Rogue Valley league.

A former Cheney player, Marty Cartwright, is the probable catcher for Dunsmuir. Other expected starters are Reid, first base; Marzel or Beck, second base; Dougherty or Johnson, shortstop; and Behnke, third base. The outfield will be picked from among Scott, Willford, Miller, Fiddler, Clements and White.

The latest report shows Dunsmuir with four wins and three losses and ranking third in its circuit. Medford with five wins and three losses and ranking third in its circuit. Medford with five wins and five losses is knotted for fourth in the Sawdust league.

Derald Woolton, one of the regular pitchers for the Studs, is slated to hold down third base tonight. He is scheduled to pitch against Weed, Calif., here on Friday night.

The Studs will be inactive in the Southwestern Oregon circuit this week-end, drawing a bye.

Justin Smith Nabs Match In Junior Golf 1st Round

Portland — (U.P.) — The favorites continued to set the pace here Wednesday in the Oregon Golf Association's annual state junior championships.

Bob Donnelly of Portland and Dick Twiss of The Dalles exhibited the best play in Tuesday's action. Donnelly defeated Don Bick of Coos Bay 8 and 6 while Twiss defeated Bob Dauterman of Longview, Wash., 8 and 7. Both Twiss and Donnelly shot under-par golf.

One upset marked the championship flight of the junior division. George Joy of Longview, Wash., knocked off little Bob Shepherd of Medford, 4 and 3.

But another Medford divotee did a little better. Justin Smith shot sub-par golf to defeat Dick Walker of Chehalis, Wash., 6 and 5 in the junior division.

In the junior second flight Harvey Woods, Ashland, defeated Ted Larsen, Eugene, 5 and 3 and Conrad Mann, Medford, 3 and 1. In the sixth flight, Charles Green, Medford, downed Bruce Fraser, Portland, 8 and 7.

Bob Rasmussen, Medford, tripped Dick Hogan, Portland, 2 up in the boys division championship flight. Larry Bucey, Medford, won 2 up over Kent Rothrock, Pendleton, in the fourth flight.

In pee wee contention David Town, Medford, lost his championship flight match with Biff Lovett, Portland, and James Town, Medford, beat Fred Taylor, Portland.

Outcome of matches played by Donald Peek, Medford, in the pee wee division top flight, Tom Hamlin, Medford, in the boys division 12th flight and Gary Harrington in the boys bracket fourteenth flight were not learned.

Qualifying scores of Medfordites in the tourney were Smith 77, Shepherd 80, Mann 85, Green 97, Rasmussen 87, Bucey 91, Hamlin 119, Harrington 135, Peek 64 (nine holes), David Town 63 (nine holes) and James Town 70 (nine holes).

Board Okehs Funds for OSC Stadium

Portland — (U.P.) — The building committee of the Oregon State Board of Higher Education Tuesday authorized expenditure of $94,330 for field construction, planting and other preliminary work on the Oregon State college stadium project.

The stadium funds come from the Oregon State College foundation which has about $560,000 in donations and pledges.

The building committee gave the go-ahead for field preparation, drainage, footings, engineering and administrative work. The preliminary work includes no seat construction.

The stadium as planned would seat 22,000 including 5,000 bleacher seats now in use on Bell field.

The committee also authorized final plans and specifications for a women's cooperative house at the college. The house would accommodate 80 women students. About $45,000 has been raised for the project by a state-wide extension women's council.

Approval also was given for an $111,000 expenditure to convert part of the men's gym at OSC from a basketball floor to physical education facilities, including a new filter system for both men's and women's swimming pools and rehabilitation of shower rooms.

U.S. Open Golf Qualifying Set

New York — (U.P.) — Thirty-three sectional qualifying tournaments, which will narrow the field for the championship flight to 200 players, will be held for the 52nd U.S. Amateur golf championship this year, the U.S. Golf association announced today.

The championship round will be played at Seattle, Wash., Aug. 18-23. The total number of entries is expected to approximate or exceed last year's record 1,416.

All sectional tournaments, consisting of 36 holes of medal play, will be held on Aug. 5, except the round at Salt Lake City, Utah, where the date will be Aug. 6.

MAE MURRAY OUT

Troon, Scotland — (U.P.) — The last surviving American was eliminated from the British Women's Amateur Golf championships Wednesday when tiny Mae Murray of Rutland, Vt., lost to Frances Stephens of England, 5 and 3, in the semi-finals.

Chuck Malmberg Scores Winning Tally for Bears

The Victoria Tyees, roaring along at nearly a 700 pace, are proving themselves the masters of just about any competition the Western International league has to offer.

The islanders increased their lead over second-place Spokane to six full games Tuesday night by beating Tri-City, 10-9, in 10 innings. They did it the hard way, scoring all but two of their runs after two were out in the various innings.

Jim Clarke's single with two down in the extra frame sent Granny Gladstone home with the winning run after the Braves had staged a six-run outburst in the eighth to pull ahead.

In other games, Vancouver whipped Salem, 6-0, in the first game of a twin bill but lost the windup, 11-4. Yakima dumped Spokane, 8-7, and Wenatchee edged Lewiston, 4-3.

PGA Links Meet Opens

Louisville, Ky. — (U.P.) — The world's toughest golf tournament—a 216-hole, week-long, marathon—gets under way today as 144 of the nation's top professionals go out for the first of two 18-hole rounds which will determine 64 survivors in the P.G.A. championship.

Defending champion Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., temporarily will sit on the sidelines with a strained side as the field fights today and Thursday for the 63 remaining match play berths. Snead qualifies automatically.

HIJACKING DOG FOILED —Memphis, Tenn. — (U.P.) — Mrs. George James doesn't worry about her son feeding his dog. The youth at the window saw a big dog outside snatch the bone he had given his pet. The youngster dashed to his bicycle, chased the other dog and retrieved the bone.

CHENEY OUTFIELDER — Clyde (Moose) Eievins, above, is an outfielder for the Medford Cheney Studs baseball team. He is expected to be patrolling left field tonight when the Studs play Dunsmuir, Calif., in a non-league contest at the fairgrounds ball park here. Eievins last season played professional ball with Klamath Falls in the Far West league and with Salt Lake City in the Pioneer league. The previous season he was with the Studs. — (Richards studio, Tacoma)

ARCHERY WINNER
Joe Williamson, Central Point, won the expert bowman Class B crown in the instinctive division of the Oregon Bow Hunters field tournament at Albany last week-end. His score was 546.

MISS BERG, aiming for her fifth title, matched par for 16 holes Tuesday for the best medal score of the day, and tangled with a veteran amateur, Carol Diringier, Tiffin, Ohio, in a headline match.

Miss Suggs, a three-time winner of the tournament, faces another pro, Marilyn Smith, Wichita, Kan., in another standout match. Miss Suggs defeated Pat Lesser, Seattle, Wash. Amateur star, 3 and 2, while Miss Smith won a 6 and 4 triumph over Marlene Gessell, Winona, Minn.

Holy Cross Tips Missouri For NCAA Diamond Title

Omaha — (U.P.) — Coach Jack Barry's Holy Cross Crusaders proudly carried the NCAA baseball crown home today after becoming the first Eastern club to win the "college world series."

The Crusaders stopped Missouri 8-4 Tuesday night in the final, dramatic game of the double-elimination meet, after winning six games and losing one.

Barry, a star on the famous Philadelphia Athletic club of the early 1900's, choked with emotion as he told nearly 7,000 fans in Omaha Municipal stadium: "This is the greatest night of my life."

Barry's team — which played without a substitution in the gruelling seven-game series — provided him with his 514th college victory in 32 years of coaching. His teams have lost 113.

O'Neill Hero
The individual hero of the meet, who was also chosen by sports writers as most valuable player, was Barry's star pitcher, Jim O'Neill, who became the first hurler in the tourney's history to win three games.

O'Neill earlier set down Western Michigan twice 5-1 and 15-3. The Crusaders' lone series loss was a 1-0 heartbreaker to Missouri in the second round, which the Tigers won despite the one-hit pitching of Crusader Jack Lonergan.

The national champions finished the season with a record of 21 wins and three losses. They won five straight series games after the loss to Missouri.
