Many Odd Requests Sent by Presidential Convention Delegates

Chicago—(U.P.)—There are some fussy delegates among the hundreds who will come here next month to select the presidential nominees, it was disclosed Wednesday.

Members of the convention housing staffs, handling the headache of finding and assigning rooms, have been besieged with strange requests.

Diagram Included
One delegate sent a diagram of how he wanted his room arranged. He specified the location of his bed, window, bureau and other furniture. The housing committee turned the request over to one of the larger hotels. After some juggling the hotel was able to fulfill the request.

Another delegate requested a room in a downtown hotel with air conditioning at not more than $2.50 a night. Housing officials said he couldn't get a hammock in the park for $2.50 a night.

Room House Requested
In contrast, another delegate asked the housing bureau to provide a 21-room house with a three-car garage. That request has not been filled.

The housing staffs said they're "prepared for anything," and will try to provide rooms for all. More than 8,000 hotel rooms in downtown Chicago have already been reserved. Another 4,000, some as far as 17 miles away, also have been assigned. More than 25,000 GOP delegates, newsmen and technicians are due to start arriving next week for the conventions, which have been described as the "biggest political show in the world."

SCIENTISTS HARNESS SUN
New York—(U.P.)—You may not need charcoal in your backyard barbecue. British scientists have come up with a way to cook by sunlight. The "sun cooker" collects heat by a system of mirrors and lenses and focuses it on the cooking chamber, British Information Services reports.

It takes a lot of confidence and all kinds of people to spend two and a quarter billion dollars' worth of advertising.

It takes everybody from big VP's with heavy ad budgets to housewives with rooms to rent. It takes chain-store executives and neighborhood merchants.

It takes local business people—those who spend only their own money for ads, and those who also spend big money contributed by manufacturers.

But most of all it takes an advertising medium that can do the job—a complete job: NEWSPAPERS.

Only newspapers can give you full value for your advertising dollar because only newspapers reach everybody who can possibly buy.

If you're a retailer or wholesaler, demand newspaper advertising before you place an order.

If you're a salesman or district manager, ask your management for newspaper advertising to move out the products you sell.

And if you're a manufacturer, remember this: IN 1951 ONE-THIRD OF ALL THE ADVERTISING DOLLARS IN THE NATION WERE ENTRUSTED TO NEWSPAPERS.

Miscellaneous media: 25.5% brings total to new high—$4 billion dollars. Figures include production costs. *Dailies only (weekdays and Sundays). Source: Preliminary estimates for 1951 published by Printers' Ink, Jan. 11, 1952.
