Apostolic Faith Camp Meet Set

The Rev. C. W. Frost, pastor of the Apostolic Faith church here, has announced that the annual camp meeting convention of the faith will be held in Portland this year from June 29 through July 20.

The Apostolic Faith has a permanent camp ground at S.E. 52nd avenue and Duke street, which is considered one of the beauty spots of Portland. It has a huge tabernacle, recently enlarged, where regular Bible study and evangelistic services are held, in addition to a smaller tabernacle for youth services.

There are also tents and accommodations for housing the hundreds of visitors each year. A number of the Medford congregation expect to attend a portion of the camp meeting this year. Visitors are expected from all parts of the United States and from some foreign countries. Anyone in Portland during that time is welcome to attend the services, the pastor remarked.

Colored slides will illustrate the lectures, and a general question period will follow each session. No art background is necessary, it is stated.

The lectures will be held one evening each week, and a charge will be made.

Presbyterian Pastor Will Begin Series

Radio station KYJC will broadcast the 11 a.m. services of First Presbyterian church on Sunday, Dr. D. K. West, pastor, will speak on "What Shall I Do with Jesus?"

The sermon will be the first in a series on "Life's Greatest Questions."

Other subjects and dates are: "What If I Gain the World and Lose My Soul?" June 29; "How Long Hath Ye between Two Opinions?" July 6; "What Must I Do to Be Saved?" July 13; "My God, Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me?" July 20, and "Hast Thou Not Known?" July 27.

At the services Sunday Mrs. Vera Christensen and Mrs. Jean McAllister will sing "Comfort Ye One Another." The choir will sing "Build Thine More Stately Mansions," with solo by Robert Wright.

On Sunday evening Dr. West will speak on "Will Presbyterians Be United by 1955."

Free Methodist Program Tonight

Students enrolled in the Free Methodist vacation Bible school will perform tonight in a special Bible school program.

Mrs. Ray Jennings, superintendent of the school said an interesting program is planned, beginning at 8 p.m. at the church.

This afternoon the entire school was dismissed early and went to Hawthorne park for a picnic.

Twelve young people from the Free Methodist church are attending the Oregon conference youth camp at Camp Wyeth on the Columbia river. The camp began last Saturday and concludes tomorrow. Those who made the trip from Medford were: Celia Clogston, Donna Elkins, Lois and Loretta Kelley, Rita Grisis, Arlis Daugherty, Donald Eaton, George Sparks, Jimmy White, Junior McDonald, and Richard Atterbury.

Adventist Youth Rally on Saturday

A Southern Oregon Associated Missionary Volunteer quarterly rally will be held June 21 at 5 p.m. in the Bible Auditorium, 910 South Central avenue.

Joe Hoyt, president, said he expects at least 800 persons to attend from 15 towns, but has invited all other youth in Medford, of any faith.

A skit, "Decisive Moments," will be the main feature. There will be musical numbers by Donna Peck, Alyce Darner, the Grants Pass trio, Ruby Jorgensen and Ellen and Frank Brown, and a trumpet duet by Henry Martin and Charles Lewis.

At 6:30 refreshments will be served by Medford and Valley view hostesses. A Zion Lutheran film, "I Am With You," depicting missionary experiences in Africa will be shown at 8 p.m.

Methodists To Hear Chaplain on Sunday

Chaplain Henry W. Anderson, Camp White, will be guest speaker Sunday at the 11 a.m. service of First Methodist church.

His topic will be "Time for God."

The Chancel choir will present "The Earth Is the Lord's." Mrs. Lyle Schoppert will sing "God Painted a Picture."

The church daily vacation Bible school program will be given at 8 p.m. in the sanctuary. Open house will be 7:15 to 7:45 p.m. Parents and friends are invited to visit the rooms and departments to view work done by the children.

Evangelist To Answer Questions in Sermon

In another sermon from the book of Revelation at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, at the Bible auditorium, Evangelist Harold E. Metcalf will answer questions people have asked him.

They include: "What are the seven lost languages?" "When will they come?" "Why Does God permit them?" "Upon Whom Will They Fall?" "Will

Art Appreciation Will Be Subject Of Lecture Series

Eugene Bennett, artist, today announced a series of five illustrated lectures on art which he will give beginning the first week in July.

Mr. Bennett, who was graduated from the Art Institute of Chicago a year ago and who taught in the New Trier high school, Chicago, the last year, states that the lectures will be planned for laymen who are striving to understand and appreciate art. Emphasis will be placed on contemporary American painting and various art movements, including romanticism, realism, modernism and the American scene.

Colored slides will illustrate the lectures, and a general question period will follow each session. No art background is necessary, it is stated.

The lectures will be held one evening each week, and a charge will be made.

Quadruplets Born To 27-Year-Old Mother

Weymouth, Mass. — (U.P.) — A girl and three boys were born prematurely Wednesday night to Mrs. Marion Manning, 27. The attending physician said it was "too early to tell" if the quadruplets will survive.

The fourth baby, a boy born 66 minutes after the first birth, was said to be in "fair" condition. The girl, first to arrive, and two boys that followed were reported in "good condition." They were placed in incubators.
