

Church Rites Wed
Miss Neathamer,
Richard Pervorse

An event of June 7 at First Methodist church here was the wedding of Miss Norma Jean Neathamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Neathamer, 119 Jeanette street, to Richard E. Pervorse of Tarzana, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Pervorse, Los Angeles.

The Rev. Meredith A. Groves officiated at the double-ring ceremony, and the reception which followed was in the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white net over white satin designed ballerina length. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a tiera of orange blossoms and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white rosebuds.

Miss Gloria Dunagan was maid-of-honor. Her frock was peach colored net, ballerina length, and she carried a colonial bouquet of white rosebuds. Miss Dixie Neathamer, sister of the bride, and Miss Carole Johnson were bridesmaids.

They also wore ballerina frocks, Miss Neathamer's gown being pink net and Miss Johnson's lavender, and both carried colonial bouquets of white rosebuds.

Roy Deutchman was best man for the bridegroom, and ushers were Robert Dunagan, Corning, Calif., and Charles Hoyt.

Miss Donna Mack sang for the ceremony, read in a setting of pink and white gladiolus arranged in tall baskets.

Pouring for the reception were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Paul Burton and Mrs. Wayne White, Tacoma. The cake was cut by another aunt, Mrs. Ernie Evans, Ashland, and Mrs. Marlan Sander, Mrs. J. P. Graham, Mrs. Christine Rose and Mrs. Bernard Rice served. Miss Claire Pratt took charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a coral colored suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Pervorse wore a black and white print frock with white carnation corsage.

Also in Medford for the wedding were Miss Bobble Underwood, Corning; Wayne White and the White's two sons, Tacoma; Donna Mae Burton, Tacoma; and the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Neathamer, Grants Pass.

The newlyweds motored north for a wedding trip and will live in Los Angeles where the bridegroom is employed by the Douglas Aircraft corporation. Both are graduates of Medford high school.

Lions, Auxiliary
