

Shower Party Given For Medford Woman

Mrs. D. E. Plaisance was honored at a shower given at the home of Mrs. Lyle Heidelman, 1806 Thomas road, Tuesday, June 17. Twenty-three of Mrs. Plaisance's friends were there.

Guests also took copies of their baby pictures, and tried to identify them, with Mrs. D. E. Kenner winning a prize for identifying the largest number. Other games were played, with Mrs. C. P. Smets winning two prizes.

Mrs. Kenneth E. Hood, Mrs. Carl R. Kliever and Mrs. James E. Camden assisted Mrs. Heidelman in arrangements for the shower.

When Rogue River chapter, National Secretaries association, recently held installation of officers, Dr. L. Paul Walker presented the chapter with several hundred postage stamps. The stamps replaced those which chapter members used when they mailed out 500 renewal pledge cards to Mercy Flights subscribers. Shown here with Dr. Walker, member of the board of directors of Mercy Flights, are Mrs. Kathryn Thomas, (standing center) new president of the secretaries association, Mrs. Margaret Robeson, treasurer; Mrs. Janice Erwin, (seated at left) recording secretary, and Mrs. Wilda Fabrick, first vice-president.

(Brainerd photo)

What's New at BELL'S

Problem—Find a wedding gift that will dazzle the bride without busting the budget.

Answer—Choose a Duncan crystal bowl from our large selection. Heavy, rich-looking square ones with a contemporary air come in several sizes. Other styles are flared—or scalloped—or laced-edged. All are beautiful, useful, and decidedly gift worthy.

Tempt hot-weather appetites with pretty, colorful molded salads. For family or parties, they're easy to make and a pleasure to serve. Our aluminum molds come in such attractive shapes—ring, melon, petal, fish, tower, and heart. Treat yourself to one or two of these—and keep them in mind for kitchen shower gifts, too.

Bell's Homeware:
44 South Central

Installation Planned For Auxiliary Heads; Announce New Officers

Central Point—New officers, elected at the June 12 meeting of the Myers-Holland American Legion auxiliary, will be installed at a joint ceremony for District 4 at 8 p.m. Thursday, June 26, in the Central Point American Legion hall.

Those to take office for the coming year are Mrs. Henry B. Kilburn, president; Mrs. Albert Thompson, secretary; Mrs. Don Faber, treasurer; Mrs. Eva Campbell, historian; Mrs. Hester Culbertson, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Mike Naples, first vice president; Mrs. Clarence Borah, second vice president; and Mrs. Elizabeth Faber, chaplain.

At the last meeting Mrs. Hubert Wright, president of the Erick, Okla., unit was a visitor.

Townsend Auxiliary To Hold Meeting
The Townsend Club No. 1 auxiliary meeting is set for Wednesday, June 25, at the home of Mrs. Charles Bousson, 720 Welch street.

Medford BPWC Members Hold Annual Installation

With Miss Laura York, first vice president of Oregon Business and Professional Women's club as installing officer, new leaders of the Medford club took office at a dinner meeting at the Ashland Elks club Thursday night. Mrs. Florence Lance became 25th president of the group, which was organized in Medford in 1924, succeeding Mrs. Bertha Pree.

Other new officers were Mrs. Bertha McKinney, first vice-president; Miss Mable Nye, second vice-president; Mrs. Helen Apple, recording secretary; Mrs. Inez Friel, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Patricia Beebe, treasurer; Mrs. Doris Naslund, auditor; Miss Dana Platz, program co-ordinator, and Mrs. Pree, Mrs. Alma McIntyre, Miss Lotus Eaton and Miss Eula Wintermote, directors.

Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Justin Smith, who told the history of the North Atlantic Treaty organization, beginning at the time after World War II when European countries could no longer count on "pax Britannica," but began to look to the United States for peace under American policing of their continent. She stated that it was as early as 1947 that the United States began defense measures which lead up to the founding of NATO.

Miss Platz told the club that a tentative program for the year is outlined and will be announced at the next meeting. Newly appointed committee chairmen and co-chairmen who will be in charge are Mrs. Edith Baker and Mrs. Alberta Rossi, education and vocations; Miss Eaton and Miss Frances McNeill, health and safety; Miss Helen Webster and Mrs. Cosette Jones, public affairs; Mrs. Virginia Wilson and Mrs. Ivah Murray, international relations; Mrs. Marion Gates and Mrs. Pree, news, radio and television; Mrs. Betty Flannery and Mrs. Alice Willits, music and arts; Mrs. Nellie Wall and Mrs. Kay Turquist, statistics; Miss Louise Drew and Miss Nye, forward, hospitality and orientation; Miss Hazel Swayne and Mrs. Harriet Watson, membership; Mrs. Jacque Lenox and Mrs. Naslund, emblem; Miss Wintermote and Mrs. Elsie Turner, legislation; Mrs. McKinney and Mrs. Beebe, finance; Mrs. Inez Jacobs and Mrs. Elizabeth DiVecchio, transportation and calling, and Miss Dorothy Wilson, scholarship. Mrs. Lance appointed Mrs. Bertha Haskins parliamentary, and assigned the scrapbook to Mrs. Ann Breton.

A gift of luggage from the club was presented to Miss York, who leaves next Wednesday by plane for the national convention of BPW clubs in Boston.

Special guests at the meeting were Miss Helen York, winner of the BPW scholarship for this year, and her mother, Mrs. Evans H. York, Jacksonville. Miss York announced plans to attend Maryhurst college near Portland. Preceding the meeting, three selections were sung by Mrs. Charles Champlin, one of them being "The Sunshine of Your Smile," Mrs. Lance's favorite song.

College Women Name Committees for Year; Mrs. Davis Entertains

Mrs. Frank Davis turned over the president's gavel of Rogue River Valley's College Women's club to Miss Elizabeth Burr at the club's last meeting of the year held at the home of Mrs. Frank Roberts, 2218 E. Main street, Medford.

At the meeting Miss Burr announced her committees for next year. They are as follows: program, Mrs. Ray Bailey, Mrs. G. B. Canode, Miss Fay Woolsey, and Miss Hazel Stephens; social, Mrs. H. L. Snodgrass, Mrs. W. J. Frost, Mrs. Ben Schmidt, Mrs. W. R. Peabody, and Mrs. R. M. Attwooll; membership, Mrs. C. E. Bradfish, Mrs. Nick R. DeWitt, and Mrs. N. H. Dillon; scholarship, Mrs. Ward Lampkin, Mrs. John Carter and Mrs. T. R. Nicholson.

Other committees include: music, Mrs. Volney Dixon, Mrs. Scott Heatherington, and Mrs. Arthur Peters; press, Mrs. G. L. Linn, and Mrs. W. J. Crandall; printing, Mrs. Horace Thompson and Mrs. B. A. Clark; cards and flowers, Mrs. H. S. Chirgwin and Mrs. Amos Willits.

The afternoon's program included a book review by Mrs. Walter Inch. During the tea hour Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Burr poured. On the social committee were Mrs. H. B. Janes, Mrs. DeWitt, Mrs. C. G. Van Valzah, and Mrs. Schmidt.

Retiring President Mrs. Frank Davis, Ashland, gave a luncheon for the executive board of the club Tuesday, June 17, at her home in Ashland. This was the club's closing event of the year.

FL Club

Mrs. Earl McQuigg, 224 Portland avenue, Medford, will be hostess to the F.L. club for a 7 p.m. salad supper, Monday, June 23. A business meeting will follow the supper. Those attending are to take table service.

Giving a shower for a bride? Appropriate to serve are intertwined rings of molded tomato aspic, filled with tuna salad. Make two identical rings of tomato aspic. Cut each ring and then interlock them to form the double ring.

Jurors Announced For Annual Exhibit University Women

Grants Pass—Jurors for the fifth annual Southern Oregon Art exhibit, which opens at the Grants Pass High school library this week, are Michele Russo and Rachael Griffin, both on the staff of the Museum Art school in Portland.

Mr. Russo teaches drawing, painting, and art history in the school. A graduate of Yale university, he has also studied at the Colorado Springs Art center with Boardman Robinson and George Biddle. His painting "Men On The Beach" was selected by Director Thomas C. Colt for a directors' choice exhibition held recently at Fort Worth Texas Art museum. Mr. Russo has had a number of one-man exhibitions and has shown both his prints and paintings widely in national competitive exhibitions.

Mrs. Griffin, a teacher of sculpture, is supervisor of the Saturday classes of the museum and has written articles on art for nationally circulated magazines. She has served on a number of juries and has taught at Reed college and the Museum Art school.

Jurors for the exhibit select award winners only, since the exhibition is open to all residents of Josephine and Jackson counties who wish to enter. Josephine and Jackson counties who wish to enter.

The exhibition opens with a reception for judges and artists Wednesday, June 25, at 8 p.m. This year the reception has been opened to the public at a small charge in order to help pay the expenses of the exhibit. With the exception of the reception, the exhibit is free and is open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., June 26 through 29.

Family Returns From Trip South

Mrs. Darrell Huson and daughters, the Misses Margaret, Laura Mae and Dorelyn Huson, returned to Medford last week from Los Angeles where they were guests of Mrs. Huson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Arnold.

Mrs. Arnold and daughter, Mildred, came north earlier this month to attend graduation ceremonies at Medford Senior High school, and the Huson's traveled south with her when she returned home.

Luncheon

A covered dish luncheon is set by the Reames Social club for 12:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 25, at the home of Mrs. Elton Waldron, 630 S. Holly, Medford. The affair will honor past matrons and members having birthdays in April, May and June. Members are asked to take table service.

Returns

Mrs. C. Rease Braley, 245 Valley View drive, has returned from Ft. Worth, Tex., where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Casey. Mrs. Braley saw for the first time the Casey's third child, Monica. The Casey's older children are Kathleen and Kevin.

They lived happily ever after with their Heirloom Sterling

For all the years of their life, the bride and groom will cherish the gift of Heirloom Sterling... for its fresh youthful design, for its thrilling feeling of weight—solidity—security. And—since this is solid silver—even a century of pridel use won't wear it out!

6-piece place settings from $27.50 Fed. Tax Incl.

Larry Schade
FINE SILVERWARE SINCE 1908

117 S. Central

Montgomery Ward

Phone 2-6241

A FLATTERER with BUTTONS and DOTS

Large disc buttons parade down the front of flocked dotted lawn! Cool... sheer... easy-to-get-into dress with becoming ways. Note the stitched collar... the stitched front panel... lily cuffed sleeves. A perfect fitting dress you'll love to wear straight through the summer.

So much cheaper... for so little money

June Arden

$5.95

Pick's APPAREL
112 East Main Street

FUR STORAGE
Free Pickup and Delivery
MEDFORD CLEANERS
34 NORTH HOLLY — PHONE 2-6500

LOW-IN-PRICE COTTONS

Juniors', misses' 5.98 Women's sizes
Tissue gingham or chambrays—so cool for summer. All so smartly styled. Some with full 150-inch skirts. Many sunback and sleeveless types. White pique; black cotton velvet; novel trims. Plaids, pastels, darks.

COOL, WASHABLE SEPARATES

Blouse 2.98 Skirt 3.98

Easy-to-wash broadcloths, piques, batistes and puckered nylons. Gay, young, summery styles. 32-38. Full, flaring skirts in colorful solids and prints. Crisp embossed cottons and broadcloths. Sizes 22-30.