

Garden Rites Wed
Patricia Hillis,
Edward James Barr

Rogue River — Miss Patricia Lee Hillis became the bride of Edward James Barr in a ceremony held June 8 in the garden of the bride's home. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hillis, East Evans Creek road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barr, Burbank, Calif.

The Rev. Vaughn E. Nelson, pastor of Wimer Community church, read the service at four o'clock in the afternoon. The double-ring service was witnessed by about 130 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a white linen suit with white accessories, her bouquet was of Cecile Brunner roses. Mrs. Roland Rabor, Medford, aunt of the bride, was matron-of-honor.

Mr. Hillis gave his daughter in marriage, and Walter Reisbeck, Burbank, was best man.

For the reception which followed, Miss Joyce Anne Boulter took charge of the guest book and Mrs. Walter Reisbeck served punch and coffee. Mrs. Morris Rabor served the wedding cake.

Miss Jaron McCoy and Miss Patricia Reeves provided the wedding music.

Baskets of azaleas, wild mountain lilac and roses formed a floral setting for the wedding and reception.

Mr. Barr and his bride will live in Burbank. Mrs. Barr, who attended Southern Oregon college after graduation from Rogue River high school, has been employed by the telephone company in Burbank as an operator. The bridegroom is a veteran of four years service with the United States Air force.

County Teacher
Is Delegate for NEA Convention

Mrs. Bert Stancilffe, teacher of social studies in Central Point junior high school, will represent Oregon Education association of Jackson, Josephine, Lake and Klamath counties at the National Education Representative assembly being held in Detroit, Mich., June 30 to July 4.

At the same time Mrs. Stancilffe will be an official delegate to Classroom Teachers of NEA. She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary teacher's society and of the executive council of Jackson county division, Oregon Education association.

Mr. and Mrs. Stancilffe are now on a vacation trip east before the convention. They left Medford by plane June 11 for Flint, Mich., where they will pick up a new car and drive into Toronto, Canada. They plan to come back into the United States by Niagara Falls and then motor across New York state to visit in the New England states. Places of historical interest will be the main objectives during their travels.

While in New York City they will spend a week sightseeing and seeing radio and television shows. One highlight of their stay there will be attending "South Pacific."

From the convention in Detroit, they will go to Chicago to attend the national Republican convention. The Stancilffes will also visit their son, Sergeant Gary A. Denzer, who is at present at Chanute Field, Ill., waiting for his assignment as an Air Force cadet.

On their trip homeward they will travel by way of the Black Hills, Rushmore Park, Yellowstone National Park, Idaho and Washington.

The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Edward James Barr took place June 8 in the garden of the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hillis, East Evans creek road, Rogue River. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barr, Burbank, Calif., and the couple will live in Burbank.

Stanford Graduates Five From County

Five Jackson county students were graduated from Stanford university during the 61st annual commencement June 16. Graduated were John Moffat Jr., who received a master's degree in the graduate school of business, and John Gooding Rivenburgh Jr., a bachelor of arts in history. Both are from Medford.

Two Ashland students were in the class. James Franklin De Lisle received a bachelor of arts in sociology and Charles William Jobbins a master of science in electrical engineering.

Robert Bruce Sund, Rogue River, received a master of arts from the school of education.

Diplomas were awarded to 1240 seniors and 1170 graduate students. The ceremonies, held in outdoor Laurence Frost amphitheater, were attended by 8,000 relatives and friends.

Mr. Moffat and his wife, the former Mary Jane Pitts of Portland, will return to California after visiting relatives here and in Portland and will live in Pasadena.

Rogue River Club Installs Officers; Award Presented

Rogue River — Rogue River Garden club installed new officers at the country home of Mrs. Walter Shock, retiring president, Tuesday, June 17.

Those installed were Mrs. Frank Deek, president; Mrs. Harold Dunham, vice president; Mrs. Sam Bellah, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Hoover, treasurer.

Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Medford, state program chairman, installed the new officers, and Mrs. E. W. Jermark, state recording secretary of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs presented the past-president's pin to Mrs. Shock. The retiring president then reported on the state federation convention to which she was a delegate recently.

The club voted to place an exhibit in the Josephine county fair which will be held in August.

The coveted Oregon Federation of Garden club's state green ribbon award for flower show achievement was then presented to the group by Mrs. Walter Carroll, last year's flower show chairman, and Mrs. Paul Hughes, staging chairman for the show, "Woodward Echo."

A specially arranged presentation of wedding gifts was made to Mrs. Jo Frosh, who surprised the members with her marriage last week. Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Carrall, Mrs. J. Kraus, and Mrs. Bellah in the shady creek-side garden.

The horticultural chairman, Mrs. Harry Rose, displayed arrangements, and Mrs. Carrall showed an outstanding blue delphinium to the club. Other flowers shown included red Hoover rose arrangement, Mrs. Jane Poole, Gold of Ophir rose buds by Mrs. Paul Hughes, and an unusual deep blue gloxinia by Mrs. Kraus.

Guests attending were Mrs. Jermark, Ashland; Mrs. Nichol and Mrs. W. L. Walden, Medford; Peggy Roth, Los Angeles; and Mrs. Earl Brooks, Mrs. E. J. Butterfield, Mrs. A. R. Shannon, and Miss Elizabeth Shannon.

Miss Shafer Wed
To Donald Johnson
In Home Service

Miss Joyce Marie Shafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shafer, 285 Lozier Lane, Medford, was married to Donald James Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Johnson, Phoenix, in a home ceremony at 2 p.m., June 7.

The Rev. Rolf Hansen of the Community church, Central Point, read the double ring ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bloch, 1106 Ellendale drive, Medford.

Miss Sharon Thompson, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Sandra Shafer, sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid. The bride's niece, Miss Anita Bloch, was ring bearer. Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Earl S. Johnson Jr. Mr. Shafer gave his daughter in marriage and ushers were Myron Shafer, brother of the bride, and Dorlene Thompson, cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a white taffeta, ballerina length dress and carried gardenias with stephanotis blossoms on a white Bible.

Her bridesmaids wore lavender ballerina length dresses, and carried bouquets similar to the bride's.

Miss Delores Davis furnished the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Bloch home at which Mrs. Bloch, sister of the bride, cut the cake. Serving were Mrs. Luther Thompson, aunt of the bride, Miss Phyllis Imhausen, Mrs. Lynn Myers, and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. S. Van Zel.

Miss Shirley Kepling kept the guest book, and the bride's aunt, Mrs. George Wagner, took charge of the gifts.

Butte Falls Women Make Garden Tour;
Announce Committees

Butte Falls — Butte Falls Garden club visited the gardens of several members recently and found wild flowers and shrubs such as azaleas, mountain lilies, and lady slippers blooming. Roses, sweet peas, columbine, and ruffled petunia were among the many kinds of domestic flowers.

In the yard of the hostess Mrs. Keith Scott, tea was served, with Mrs. John Holst pouring. A visitor to the club was Mrs. Roy Trefren.

Committees for the year were announced by Mrs. Robert Beeman, vice president, in the absence of Mrs. Leslie Horn, president. Assisting Mrs. Beeman on the program committee will be Mrs. John Holst and Mrs. Frank Carson. The membership committee will consist of Mrs. William Edmondson and Mrs. Carson. Mrs. James Arnold will handle publicity for the group.

Included in the civic committee are Mrs. Aaron Smith and Mrs. Clay Conley. Mrs. Ernest Smith is the hospitality committee member. Horticulture and conservation committee members announced are Mrs. N. B. Stoddard and Mrs. Edwin Mal-lory. Mrs. Viola Holm and Mrs. Ernest Smith will have charge of exchange and sale. On the flower show committee is Mrs. Fred Kincaid, and on the flower arrangement committee is Mrs. Al Hartlerode. Three other committees include corsage, Mrs. E. W. Abbott; birds, Mrs. William Thomas and Mrs. Ed Curtis; and tour and visiting, Mrs. Keith Scott and Mrs. Leslie Casey.

Although only eleven members were present due to summer vacations, they felt the tour so interesting that they are planning another one at a later date. Butte Falls club will be hostess to Eagle Point garden club for a picnic in the city park July 15.
