

Many County SOC Students Get Top Scholastic Honors

Ashland — Eighty-four Jackson county students who attended Southern Oregon college during spring term were listed on the honor roll for the quarter's work which was released last week by the registrar's office. A total of 164 students achieved marks of 3.0 or better during the term.

Dan W. Cahill, Medford, and Charles R. "Skip" Rush, Ashland, earned perfect grade points of 4.0 for the quarter. Four students earned averages of 3.5 or better for the third consecutive quarter, including Una Fowler and Sam Mansfield, Ashland; Nancy Hunter, Central Point; and Peggy McCurley, Jacksonville. Four others achieved the high honor for the second consecutive term, including G. Byron Backes, Ashland; Deane Roberts, Central Point; Jean Stryker, Hornbrook, Calif.; and Elizabeth West, Rogue River.

Other county students who had averages of 3.5 or better included Edgar Bowen, Lenore Brown, Charles Eliason, Floyd Fowler, Ray Hassell and Lucille Vonsant, Ashland; Jean Page, Medford; and Colleen Tieg, Talent.

Twenty-one Medford students received honorable mention for grades averaging between 3.0 and 3.5.

FOE Drill Team To Defend Title

The drill team of Crater Lake Aerie 2093 Fraternal Order of Eagles will be in Albany Thursday, Friday and Saturday to defend the ritualistic championship they won at last year's Eagle state convention.

They will again participate in Class A ritualistic and field drill contests.

Last Sunday five officers from the local group visited Crescent City, Cal., to assist in the institution of a new aerie. Officers there were Ray Watkins Jr., past worthy president; Jack Meachem, worthy president; Howard Brooks, worthy vice-president; Eddy Olson, worthy chaplain; Ray Collett, worthy conductor; and William Rogers, inside guard.

Ted Turner, Portland, the Grand Aerie representative, and Eagles from Brookings, Cave Junction and Grants Pass attended the meeting.

Phoenix Community Club Election Set

Election of officers of the Phoenix Community club and Youth Center will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Community club house.

Officers ask all members and participating clubs to attend the election meeting because several emergency matters are to be discussed and settled.
