Westminster Guild Members Entertained By Methodist Women

Guests of Wesleyan Service guild at the June 17 meeting at First Methodist church were members of Westminster guild of Presbyterian church.

With Mrs. L. R. Adamson presiding, devotions and the annual pledge service were given by Mrs. Rex Note and Mrs. L. A. White. The theme was "My Father's World," and members of the Wesleyan Guild made their pledges to foreign missions.

The program for the evening included a trio by Mrs. J. C. Kaylor, Mrs. Jack Harris and Mrs. L. R. Adamson, who sang "Serenade" by Sigmund Romberg. Mrs. Marjorie Hopkins spoke on "The Work of Youth in Our Community." She made references to the survey recently completed to determine if a detention home was needed in Jackson and Josephine counties, and said she believed that there was a need for this type of home.

The meeting was attended by 38 members from both guilds. Hostesses for the evening were Miss Viola Dietrich, Mrs. Florence Gilkinson, Mrs. Bernice McCue, Mrs. Bernice Kunzman, Mrs. W. R. Peabody, and Mrs. Jack Burpee.

Colonel Kofahl Gold Hill Visitor

Gold Hill—Col. Harold E. Kofahl of the U. S. Air Force, who is in command of Moody Air Force base at Valdosta, Ga., visited three days last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kofahl, North 99 highway. He was accompanied by Capt. F. C. O'Bannon, also of Moody AFB.

It was the first visit Colonel Kofahl had made to his parents' home in three years, and Captain O'Bannon's first trip to the Pacific Northwest. The two men arrived at Medford last Monday by plane from Georgia.

Colonel Kofahl reported that Lt. Charles Sams of Medford is now taking a jet flying course at Moody AFB.

The colonel is well known here, having visited here frequently. He was here three years ago with his wife and three children, Kristin, Patrick and Michael. Since then, Colonel and Mrs. Kofahl have become the parents of another son, Robert. The officer for a time was in command at Moses Lake, Wash., and after a course at the Air War College, Montgomery, Ala., was assigned to Vance Air Force Base at Enid, Okla. Later he was assigned to re-activate Moody AFB.

Officer, Family Visit in Medford

Lt. Col. and Mrs. William Woodford and two children, Jimmy and Sandra, arrived in Medford Sunday to spend a few days visiting friends. They will leave Thursday to visit Colonel Woodford's parents in Vancouver, Wash., and Mrs. Woodford's mother and sister in Corvallis and Portland.

The Woodfords left here about a year ago when the officer entered the army. He was assigned to the staff and faculty of artillery school at Ft. Sill, Okla., teaching general staff subjects, and expects to be at the fort for at least another year.

Farewell Reception Planned Thursday For Pastor, Family

The Rev. and Mrs. Meredith A. Groves and family will be honored at a farewell reception Thursday, June 25. The reception is set for 8:30 p.m. in the parlors of the First Methodist church and will follow the regular mid-week prayer meeting service of the church.

All members and friends of the church are invited to attend. The Groves family has lived in Medford for the past five years while the Rev. Mr. Groves has been pastor of the church.

He has now been assigned to the Roseburg Methodist church and the family will leave soon for that city.

The Rev. H. W. Harshman of Ellensburg, Wash., will arrive soon to become pastor of the church here.

Convention Delegate Reports to Auxiliary

Siskiyou canton and auxiliary of Patriarchs Militant met for a covered dish supper Friday evening at IOOF hall.

Mrs. Carrie Milnes, a delegate to the state meeting of the Patriarchs Militant auxiliary, gave a report assisted by L. O. Howard. In charge of the supper were Mrs. L. O. Howard, Mrs. J. W. Hamlin, and Mrs. Blanche Robinson.

The group is planning a picnic for July 20, and committee members were appointed to serve. Those chosen were Vern Kight,
