Medford Lions, Auxiliary Hold Installation Dinner

Archie E. Fries Jr., was installed president of Medford Lions club and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell was invested with the office of president of the auxiliary at a joint installation service Wednesday night at the Ashland Elks club. The service followed a dinner attended by 130 Lions and their wives.

District Governor - Elect Gunnar Wohgen, Rogue River, was the installing officer for the men, giving the oath of office to Mr. Fries and his cabinet consisting of Penn Chitwood, first vice-president; Ron Gandlee, second vice-president; Leland Knox, secretary; Anthony Capello, Lion Tamer; Hilary Meyerle, tailwister; Kenneth Campbell, Scott Ellis, Keith Bates, and M. J. Maubly, directors; and Elwood Hedberg, coordinator.

Mrs. Lee Mellish, past president, installed the auxiliary officers. Serving with Mrs. Campbell are to be Mrs. Frank English, vice-president; Mrs. Norman Burke, secretary; Mrs. Tom Flynn, treasurer; and Mrs. Dwight Johnson, lion tamer.

Lion Elliot Becken was toastmaster of the evening. Miss Colleen Kiegs, a student at Southern Oregon college, entertained with vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. Cay Huffman of Ashland.

Mrs. James Campbell, retiring auxiliary president, was presented with a silver tray by members of her club. Herb Seitz, who served as editor of the Lions club weekly bulletin for the past two years, was presented with a special award for his services. Mr. McKeen, retiring president, was given a special award as a "100 per cent President."

The Grants Pass club was represented by a group of 27 persons headed by Past President Chet Thompkins. The Crater club of Medford, and the Rogue River den were also represented.

G. W. Newberry, a past president of the Medford den, completed 21 years of perfect weekly attendance at Lions club activities, with his presence at the meeting.
