Wedding Bells Ring For June Brides

By Olive Starcher

Several of the season's largest church weddings were held in recent days, with receptions following at Rogue Valley Country club, in homes and in gardens.

Among the June brides are the former Miss June Bosworth (upper left) whose wedding to William George Hughes, Portland, took place June 22 in St. Mark's Episcopal church, and Mrs. Ray Donald Bostwick (upper right), the former Margaret Ruth McCormick, whose wedding was held at Sacred Heart Catholic church June 21. Another recent bride is Mrs. James Moore Edwards Jr., (center right) the former Dixie Lou Coutts, the wedding having been held June 15 at Sacred Heart church.

For the reception which followed the Bostwick-McCormick wedding, the newlywed couple (center-left) cut the traditional first slice of the wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Bostwick will live in San Diego where the bridegroom is assigned to the United States Naval Air station. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McCormick, 2002 Stage Road south, and Mr. Bostwick is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bostwick, 503 Haven street.

The reception which followed the wedding of Miss Bosworth and Mr. Hughes was held in the O. A. Eden garden and the bride and bridegroom are shown (lower left) during the garden party. Mr. Hughes and his bride are spending a honeymoon on the Oregon coast and at mountain resorts, and will live in Salem where Mr. Hughes, a forester, is with the Oregon State Forestry department. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Page Bosworth Jr., 2425 East Main street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Sherman Cochran, Portland, and Harry Hughes, also Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards are shown (lower right) preparing to leave Rogue Valley Country club after the reception which followed their wedding. Before the wedding Mrs. Edwards was Miss Dixie Lou Coutts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mosse, 32 Ashland avenue, and her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, St. Louis, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will live here at 106 Ashland avenue. (Hughes-Bosworth and Bostwick-McCormick photos by Shangle; Mrs. Edwards photo by Arbuckle and Moran and Edwards-Coutts photo by Brainerd).
