

Miss June Bosworth, William Hughes Married Sunday at Episcopal Church

Miss June Marie Bosworth became the bride of William George Hughes in rites held Sunday, June 22, at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster read the marriage service at two-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, with 230 guests attending.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Page Bosworth Jr., 2425 East Main street, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sherman Cochran, and Harry O. Hughes, both Portland.

For the ceremony the church had been decorated with garden blossoms, and the altar vases were filled with white delphinium and orange blossoms. Prelude music was supplied by the bride's brother, Harlan P. Bosworth IV, cellist, with Mrs. Ernest Conrad at the organ. Vocal soloist was Herbert Daniels, Camp White.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a ballerina-style gown of lace and net with net sunburst skirt. Her veil was finger-tip length and she carried a nosegay of white bride's roses centered with Cecile Brunner roses and encircled with Stephanotis.

Miss Elizabeth Mersereau, San Jose, Calif., was honor attendant. Her gown was of shell pink with sunburst pleated net skirt over taffeta, and she carried a nosegay of Cecile Brunner roses encircled with carnations. Miss Marge Petersen, Portland, Mrs. Harper Hamilton and Mrs. Louis LeMire, Medford, and Mrs. Fred Foulon, Klamath Falls, completed the list of attendants. They wore frocks of aquamarine blue to match the honor attendant's gown, and their nosegays were of Cecile Brunner roses and carnations.

Virgil Cavagnaro, Portland, served as best man for Mr. Hughes. Ushers were Robert and David Bosworth, brothers of the bride, Goodrich O. Hayes, Jr., and Sherman Cochran, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, both Portland.

The reception was held in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden on Genessee street. Mrs. John C. Boyle cut the bridegroom's cake and Mrs. Twila Ferguson, Klamath Falls, the bride's cake. Serving punch were Miss Josephine Koppes, Mrs. Richard W. Gray and Mr.

Boyle, Medford; Mrs. Tom Mahoney, Portland, Miss Dorice Pancrost and Miss Marcia Summers, Dallas, Ore., and Mrs. Pat Aimes, Dallas, took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Eden, Mrs. Stephen G. Nye and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harvey decorated the church.

Music for the reception was provided by the bride's brother, Harlan, Bruno Pellegrini and Lloyd Halvorsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are spending their honeymoon on the Oregon coast and at mountain resorts, and after July 1 will be at home in Salem. The bride, who was graduated from the University of Oregon after attending Medford and Klamath Falls schools, has been on the staff of the Polk county public welfare administration the past year as a caseworker. Mr. Hughes was graduated from Roosevelt High school, Portland, Oregon State college and the University of Syracuse, taking a master's degree at the last school earlier this month. He is now employed by the Oregon state forestry department.

Catholic Rites Wed Miss Dixie Coutts, James Edwards Jr.

An event of Sunday, June 15, was the wedding of Miss Dixie Lou Coutts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, 32 Ashland avenue, and James Edwards Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards of St. Louis, Mo. The ceremony was held at two o'clock in the afternoon at Sacred Heart Catholic church with the Rev. C. J. Linehan officiating.

About 100 guests attended. Floral decorations were of all white, and included arrangements of snapdragons, gladioli and stock. Clusters of white gladioli with satin bows marked the bride's train.

Bruno Pellegrini was organist. The bride's gown was of bluish pink chantilly lace, ballerina style, and her finger-tip length veil was held by a cap of the lace. She carried her white prayer book with orchids.

Mrs. Louise LeMire was matron-of-honor, and other attendants were Mrs. Charles Nine-mires and Mrs. Jerome McDougall. The attendants wore frocks of eyelet organdy, ballerina length, over pastel colored taffeta. Their headresses were of white maline with tiny rosebuds and they carried nosegays of rosebuds. Linda Morse, flower girl, also wore eyelet organdy over taffeta and carried a basket of flowers.

Mr. Mosse escorted his daughter to the altar and Harvey T. Carmichael of Sacramento, Calif., was best man for the bridegroom, Warren E. Adams and Jack R. Connors, San Francisco, and Hugh P. Boyd, Eugene, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mosse wore a powder blue gown of lace and faille with hat of purple maline. Her flowers were purple stock.

The reception which followed the ceremony was at Rogue Valley Country club, which had been decorated with pink and white flowers. The bride's cake was encircled with gardenias and flanked with pink and white tapers. Pink and white snapdragons decorated the table from which punch was served. An orchestra played for dancing, with the bride having the traditional first dance with the bridegroom and the second with her father.

Mr. Edwards and his bride spent their honeymoon in San Francisco and are living in Medford at 106 Ashland avenue. The bride attended Medford Senior High school and Southern Oregon college. She is now a teller for United States National bank. Mr. Edwards, who attended Washington university, St. Louis, is now hotel representative for Lever brothers.

The wedding guests included Mrs. Jack Fink, Kansas City, Mo., aunt of the bride; Mrs. Harvey T. Carmichael, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Ron Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Glenn and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Phair, Tulelake; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Nolan and Mr. and Mrs. George Mayfield, Klamath Falls.

In Medford for the wedding were Harry O. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Cochran, Miss Colleen Cochran, Mrs. G. Hughes, Mrs. Virgil Cavagnaro, Thomas Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Wilhelm, Mrs. Bessie Wilhelm and Dee Strickler, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Totten, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Wallis Tolles, Miss Julie and Richmond Tolles, Preston, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dalo, Mrs. Marjorie Fulham, Lois Wadsworth, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis, Wheeler; Miss Virginia West, Eugene; Lowell E. Patton, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Ritchey, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Serrurs, Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams and Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Foulon, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. VanVactor and Robert, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Miss Ruth Merrill, all Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Steele, Yreka; Miss Joan Barnes, San Francisco.

Following the wedding and reception Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth gave a buffet supper at their home for 75 out-of-town guests.

Society Members Will Participate In Outdoor Show

All active members of Southern Oregon Society of Artists will participate in the first annual Greenwich Village art show which the society will hold July 13. The show will be in the Old City Park on West Main street from 1 to 5 p.m.

Among the members who will paint during the show will be Clifford Platz and Hal Bishop. They will also have numerous pictures on display. Mrs. Bishop, owner of the Art center, paints in his spare time for pleasure, and Mr. Platz is both salesman and artist. Eugene Ferrell, executive of Fluhrer's bakery, will also display work in the park show. All three men work in oils.

The society is sponsoring the show in order to provide an opportunity for those interested in art to meet members of the society and to watch them at work.

New Evening Circle

A newly organized evening circle of First Christian church will hold its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Ron Gandee, 1575 E. McAndrews Road at 8 p.m. Monday, June 30.

Miss Dolores Lee, who will lead the group, extends an invitation to all of the women in the church who would enjoy Christian fellowship but who are unable to attend daytime meetings.

Festival Chorus To Hold Rehearsal; Musicians Needed

Hans Lampl, director of music for the 1952 Oregon Shakespearean festival, stated Saturday that another rehearsal of the festival chorus is set for Monday, June 30 at 7:30 p.m. at Roosevelt school.

The chorus first met last week and Mr. Lampl states that he is most pleased with the quality of the voices of singers who joined the chorus, and with the singers' enthusiasm. However, additional singers are needed, particularly men and women with high soprano voices, the director added.

Director Lampl is also in need of instrumental musicians for an orchestra and small instrumental ensembles. It was pointed out that for professional and experienced instrumentalists, the rehearsal schedule, and also the performance schedule, will be light. Instrumental musicians are urged to contact Director Lampl and discuss the season's program.

Footlighters Plan Meeting Tuesday

Footlighters will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 1, at the Fairgrounds theatre.

Business of the meeting will pertain to the building and to the last show, it is said. Important decisions are to be made, officers state, and they hope for a majority attendance.
