

Bostwick-McCormick Rites Take Place in Church Here

One of June's largest weddings was that of Miss Margaret Ruth McCormick to Ray Donald Bostwick, held Saturday, June 21, at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McCormick, 2002 Stage Road south, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bostwick, 503 Haven street.

More than 300 guests witnessed the double-ring ceremony, read by the Rev. C. J. Linehan, and about 250 attended the reception which followed at Rogue Valley Country club. The wedding day was also the bridegroom's birthday.

White stock and gladioli arranged with ferns and palms decorated the church altars and candelabra held white tapers. Bruno Pellegrini was at the church organ.

The bride's gown was of white lace and marquisette. A matching lace cap held her finger-tip veil and she carried white roses with a white orchid.

Miss Mary Elizabeth McCormick, honor attendant for her sister, wore a lime-colored frock of lace and tulle. Her small matching cap was trimmed with roses. Miss Dolores Robida, Miss Martha Spatz and Miss Corinne Wing were bridesmaids and Layle Bostwick, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The bridesmaids' frocks of yellow lace and tulle matched that of the honor attendant and were worn with small matching caps. The attendants all carried colonial bouquets of pink roses.

The flower girl was dressed in a white tulle frock trimmed with roses.

Mr. McCormick escorted his daughter to the altar, and William A. Bostwick served as best man for his brother. David McCormick, brother of the bride, Edward Bostwick, brother of the bridegroom, and Fritz Offen-bacher, Jacksonville, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a gown of pink crepe with white orchid corsage, and the bridegroom's mother aquamarine crepe, with white orchid corsage.

During the reception, Abbey Green played for dancing. Mrs. Fritz Offenbacher took charge of the guest book and Miss Joyce Gosch and Miss Denise Mennier the gifts.

Mr. Bostwick and his bride spent their honeymoon traveling south to San Diego where the bridegroom, air technician third class in the navy, is assigned to the naval air station. He attended Southern Oregon college after graduation from Jacksonville High school. The bride attended St. Mary's academy here and the University of Oregon.

In Medford for the wedding were Mrs. Homer Miles, aunt of the bride from Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. Knight and daughter, Peggy, Miss Noreen Allen and Miss Joanne Ware, all Roseburg; Allen Baker and Wayne Walker, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Curuso, San Francisco; Jack Danner and Norman Dethman, Portland; Thomas McGurrin, Los Angeles.

Albany — (U.P.) — The Oregon Aerie of Eagles was scheduled to elect officers Saturday at its 37th annual state convention and then conclude the sessions with ritualistic team competition.

Mrs. Mary Brown, Grants Pass, was elected Madam president of the state auxiliary. Mrs. Lona Bergman, Medford, was named vice - president; Mrs. Grace Drew, Coos Bay, secretary; Mrs. Mary Capon, Portland, chaplain; Mrs. Gertrude Mack, Astoria, treasurer; Mrs. Lois Renstrom, Nyssa, inside guard; Mrs. Dorothy Hamstreet, Klamath Falls, outside guard,

Couple Married In Recent Service; Will Reside Here

At a ceremony in First Methodist church, Lyons, Ore., Miss Juanita Elizabeth Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville C. Downing, Lyons, became the bride of Richard Loughton Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Brown, Santa Ana, Calif., June 22. The Rev. Rinka Feenstra officiated.

The bride wore a white slipper satin gown with train and a fingertip veil. She carried stephanotis and white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Her sister, Mrs. Robert J. Carleton, Lyons, was maid-of-honor. She wore a yellow net gown with lace jacket, a matching headdress, and her bouquet was of Ester Reed daisies. Bridesmaids were Mrs. J. W. Royce, Medford, and Mrs. Duane M. Downing, Portland. They wore pastel taffeta dresses, matching headdresses and carried bouquets similar to that of the maid of honor. The flower girl, Twila Bailey, wore a blue taffeta dress.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, F. Wallace Koster, Kelso, Wash., acted as best man, and ushers were Duane M. Downing, Portland, and Robert J. Carleton, Lyons. Soloist was Mrs. Donald Sheythe, Mills City, accompanied by Mrs. Delos Hoeye, Silver-ton.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the church parlor. Serving were Mrs. Lafe Potter, Portland; Mrs. Kenneth Meis, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Eldon Tietze, Salem; Miss Bernice Hansholt, Hillsboro, Ore.; Mrs. Delbert Bailey, Salem; Mrs. Conrad Lee, Salem; and Miss Marlene Downing, Sutherlin, Ore. In charge of the gifts was Mrs. Roy Downing, Sutherlin, and guest book, Mrs. Earl Allen, Lyons.

The newlyweds will make their home in Medford after a wedding trip to Southern California. The bride graduated from Oregon State college, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the University of California.

and Mrs. Wuanita Walters, Prineville; Mrs. Grace Johnson, Pendleton; Mrs. Venita Miller, Eugene; Mrs. Marie Marshall, Ocean Lake, and Mrs. Beatrice Cure, Newport, as trustees.

Pictured following their wedding June 22 are Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Healy. The bride was Miss Lael Shuck before her marriage, and the Healy-Shuck rites were the first to be held in the new Medford Assembly of God church. The bride is the foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Votaw, 320 Laurel street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Healy, Citrus Heights, Calif. (Anders photo)

Scottish Rite Women Give Dinner Monday

Seventy Scottish Rite Masons and their wives attended a dinner given by Scottish Rite Women's club Monday evening in the Masonic temple.

Arrangements of Ester Reed daisies and roses decorated the long tables.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Radie Hodges, Mrs. Melvin A. Krows, Mrs. D. W. Bowers, Mrs. George W. Thomas and Mrs. Leonard C. Scott.

Ralph Lue, assisted by Mrs. Ira D. Canfield, president of the woman's club, introduced the Scottish Rite Masons and their wives. Mrs. Elizabeth Settle was a guest of the club, and Mrs. George W. Jacobs, a member from Vallejo, Calif., was present.

Cards were the diversion of the evening. Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Frank E. English, and Mrs. Settle, while canasta prizes went to Mrs. Paul R. Sipple and Mrs. Kneut C. Wernmark. Another prize was given Mrs. Scott.

This was the last meeting of the club this summer. A business session will be held September 8, and Mrs. John Graves, Mrs. Jack Weddle and Mrs. Tony Franco, Ashland, will be hostesses.

Military Order Honors Newly Married Member

Mrs. Audley White was hostess for a recent meeting and a dinner of Cebu swamp, Military Order of the Lizards at her home, 523 North Riverside avenue. Mrs. White was assisted by Mrs. Rosa Young.

The meeting and dinner featured a bridal shower for Mrs. Ed Grosh, the former Mrs. Mary Jo Schuler. Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Ralph Atwood and Mrs. Frank Widner. Plans were made for a picnic meeting to be held August 2 at the Grants Pass city park.

Californians Leave

Vacationing at the Robert Norris' cabin on the Rogue River this week were Mr. and Mrs. Milton McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hardwicke and their son, Bobby, all of Los Gatos, Calif.

Mrs. McDonald is the former Helen Norris of this city. While living here, she was known for her radio script writing.

The group left Saturday morning after spending a week at the cabin. Wednesday evening they dined at the Dead Indian Soda Springs resort.
