

Visitors at Camp
Camp White barracks 14 of World War I veterans welcomed some members of the newly organized Rogue Valley ladies auxiliary to the veteran's group at an open meeting Tuesday, June 25, in Veteran's hall.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by seven of Mrs. Eve Prentice's pupils who played and sang. Before the program, they entertained men in the wards and Company A and the infirmary. About 150 people attended the program and refreshment period which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer J. Dooley, shown cutting their wedding cake, were married June 12 at Carson City, Nev. Before her marriage the bride was Miss Thalia Doty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doty, Table Rock, and was employed by the Veterans' administration at Camp White. The bridegroom is a school teacher at Platte, S. D., and the couple will live there.

Convention Delegates Elected by Auxiliary; Two Members Honored

Colonel Sargent auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, elected delegates to the department of Oregon convention to be held in La Grande, Ore., July 13 to 16, at the last regular meeting.

Mrs. Helen Keesee and Mrs. Gladys Chapin will be delegates, and alternates are Mrs. Ralph Atwood and Mrs. Frank Widner. Also planning to attend are Mrs. Don Anderson, department conductor; Mrs. Harry W. Barneburg, past department president; and Mrs. Mildred Jolie, auxiliary president.

The meeting honored Mrs. Mary Hofer, who celebrated her eightieth birthday and Mrs. Hattie Alden, who is a charter member.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be in October, but plans were made for a picnic at Lithia Park, Sunday, July 27.

Shrinkage of wool blankets from laundering in a washing machine is caused mostly by moving the wool fabric in the water, rather than by the temperature of the water, reports the Oregon State college extension service.

Miss Thalia Doty And Delmer Dooley Married in Nevada

Mr. and Mrs. Delmer J. Dooley, married June 12 at Carson City, Nev., will live at Platte, S. D. The bride is the former Miss Thalia Doty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Doty, Table Rock, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Dooley, Madison, S. D.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Buntner, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. The bride wore a white silk suit with white yellow-throated orchid, and a white hat.

A large memory candle, presented to the couple and lighted for the ceremony and reception, is to be lighted again on each anniversary of the wedding.

Mrs. Doty was in Nevada to attend the ceremony.

The bride was on the staff of the Veterans' administration, having been a secretary in special services at Camp White before her wedding, and was honored at showers given by fellow employees and friends at the camp before her wedding. She was graduated from Kelsey-Jenney college in San Diego following graduation from Overton High school in southern Nevada.

Stassen's Nomination To Be Made by Woman

Philadelphia—(U.P.)—Harold E. Stassen's name will be placed in nomination at the Republican National convention by the Republican state chairwoman of Minnesota, he announced today.

Stassen said Mrs. Marjorie Howard, Excelsior, Minn., a delegate-at-large from Minnesota, will nominate him.

Daniel C. Gaine, Owatonna, Minn., also a delegate-at-large, will be floor manager of Stassen's campaign at the convention.

Church Rites Wed Miss Elsie Brown, Robert F. Earnest

First Baptist church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Elsie Brown, daughter of Mrs. Beulah Brown, Yakima, Wash., to Robert F. Earnest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Earnest, 60 North Orange street, Medford, in an evening ceremony June 20. Church decorations were baskets of gladioli and candelabra holding tapers.

The Rev. Wolford A. Dawes officiated.

The bride was married in a gray suit with fuchsia accessories. Her flowers were white carnations around a center of orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Lucille Brown, sister of the bride, Yakima, Wash. She wore a gray suit with red accessories. Her flowers were white carnations and Ester Reed daisies. The bridesmaid, Miss Lois Ann Glenn, was attired in a tan suit and green accessories. She carried red carnations and Ester Reed daisies.

Miss Elsie Morgan, niece of the bride, from Pittsburg, Calif., was flower girl. Her dress was white and she wore blue hair ribbons.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Lee Brown, Yakima. Best man was Jim Wilson, and ushers were Bill Arnold and Dave Johnson. Glenn Lamb sang two vocal solos.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by Mrs. Earnest and Mrs. L. K. Davis, at the church.

The couple are now at home at 240 North Holly street, Medford, after a wedding trip to Oregon Caves. The bridegroom is employed by the Retail Credit company as an insurance inspector, and the bride is an operator at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Valley Delegates Attend Convention Of PEO Sisterhood
