

Two American Records Broken at Los Angeles In US Olympic Trials

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Marvelous Mal Whitfield, the former Ohio State middle distance star, became the U. S. Olympic games finalist only double winner Saturday as he handily won the 400-meters from another Ohio State boy, Gene Cole.

Whitfield, who Friday ran one of his greatest races as he came from a dead last to spreadeagle the 800-meter field, won as he pleased Saturday, easing up at the finish to win in the good time of 46.9.

Third was the converted University of San Francisco sprinter and grid star, Ollie Matson. The chunky Negro was two yards back of Cole, who, in turn, was four yards off Whitfield's finish. A crowd of 22,795 watched the final session of the two-day Olympic finals in Memorial Coliseum under a high overcast which displaced yesterday's warm sun.

They saw two American records established, one by Horace Ashenfelter in the 3000-meter steeple chase, the other by Exetion Hall Sprinter Andy Stanfield in the 200-meters around the curve.

Two of the nation's best hurdlers, Dick Attlesley and Craig Dixon, missed the plane to Helsinki. Attlesley, the World record holder, failed to qualify in his prelim, while Dixon hit a hurdle and fell while running second in the event's final.

One of the biggest thrills of the day came as Don Laz, one of the best three 15-foot vaulters in active competition today, snapped his pole while attempting 14 feet 9 inches and was momentarily winded when he fell into the pit. Laz, the Reverend Bob Richards and the Olympic Club's George Mattos, all made the Olympic squad in the tall jump. Richards won the event at 14 feet 8 3/4 inches.

In the 1500-meters, Occidental's fast improving Bob McMillen stamped himself as a good Olympic game threat in easily winning in the Coliseum record time of 3:49.3—to equal the best American mark of the season, set by Kansas' Wes Santee in last week's AAU meet at Long Beach.

Santee passed today's 1500-meters for yesterday's 5000-meters in which he finished second. The 110-meter high hurdles matched eight men, any of whom is capable of winning the event at Helsinki. But it was the "old pro" Harrison Dillard who showed his heels to the rest of the field.

Handy Andy Stanfield of the Grand Street Boy's Club scorched the Memorial Coliseum track in running a 20.6 200-meters around the curve—the fastest such race ever posted.

In the 300-meter steeple chase the ex-Penn State brother pair of Horace and Bill Ashenfelter made it strictly a family affair as they kept favored Bob McMullen of San Jose State boxed throughout to take first and second with Horace's winning time of 9:06.4, a new American record.

In the discus, the form boys—Sim Iness, Fortune Gordien and Jim Dillon, placed one-two-three to make a formidable platter team that should give the favored Italian weight men quite a battle at Helsinki next month.

Winner Iness's distance was 174 feet, 10 and 1/4 inches. Texas Aggies' Walter Davis won the high jump as expected with a leap of 6 feet, nine inches. He barely missed on his final try for a world record of 6 feet, 11 1/2 inches.

Second in the high jump was Ken Wiesner of the Navy Olympic team with a leap of six feet, 7 1/2 inches. Arnie Betton of Drake became the third jumper on the team although there was a three-way tie for third. However, he cleared 6 feet, 6 1/2 inches on his first leap to win the coveted spot.

Snead, Ferrier Forge Ahead in Inverness Play

Toledo, O. — (U.P.) — Sam Snead and Jim Ferrier scored a plus one victory over Jimmy Demaret and Jack Burke, Jr., Saturday in the third round of the Inverness all-star invitational tournament to maintain their slight lead with a plus six total.

Snead and Ferrier, the pre-tournament favorites, put together rounds of 31 and 33 for a 64, total while their opponents carded a 65 on rounds of 32 and 33 in the four-ball, best-ball event.

Snead's best shot of the day came on the 14th hole when he chipped within two inches of the cup and then dropped it in for a birdie.

Lloyd Mangrum and Dr. Cary Middlecoff scored a plus two victory over Doug Ford and Ed (Porky) Oliver to stay just one point behind in the tight race for the championship, which will be decided today in the 36-hole final. Mangrum-Middlecoff carded 31-33, while their opponents put together 34-32.

Auto Races Start Today

A program of auto races will get underway this afternoon at the new Medford Speedway just south of the municipal airport off Biddle road. Time trials are scheduled to start at 1 p.m.

In qualifying laps yesterday, the fastest time of 30 seconds was shared by Roy Dykesman and Chuck Pendleton on the three-eighths mile track.

Dykesman also toured the oval in 31 seconds and Pendleton chalked up a 33-second trip. Top thrill of the qualifying yesterday was an end-over-end accident involving the car driven by Bob Kodat. Kodat escaped injury and his car was not harmed. When the vehicle had been righted, he went on to qualify with times of 31 1/2 and 31 seconds.

A total of five cars took part in the qualifying laps. Les Walker was forced to drop out by car trouble. A group of Yreka, Calif., drivers may take part in today's events. The Speedway track is reported to be in good condition.

The YMCA and Andy's Jewellers opened play but the tussle was halted with one out in the first half of the first inning with the eighth YMCA man at bat and four runs in on two walks, three hits, an error and a fielder's choice.

Two men's conflicts are set for this Tuesday. Mobilgas will face Trowbridge and Flynn at 7:30 p.m., and Eagle Point will face Andy's.

17-Year-Old Australians Upset U.S. Doubles Team

Wimbledon, Eng. — (U.P.) — Two 17-year-old Australian kids with no respect for their elders gave Wimbledon's famed center court one of its historic upsets Saturday by beating the second-seeded U.S. doubles combination of Dick Savitt and Gardnar Mulloy, 6-4, 8-6, 1-6, 3-6, 7-5.

Louise Brough, three-time champion, beat Nelly Adamson of France, 1-6, 6-1, 6-2, and Shirley Fry of Akron, O., defeated Michele Bourbonnais of France, 6-4, 6-0, to give America five of the eight places in the women's singles quarterfinals. But their triumphs were far overshadowed by the doubles upset.

A delirious crowd of 15,000—cramping every inch of space in the court on one of Britain's hottest days—gave a roaring tribute to blonde, chunky Lew Hoad and dark, slender Ken Rosewall after an exhibition of tennis so dazzling that even their American rivals paid them unstinting tribute.

The U.S. women appear set to win the singles title for the ninth straight time but Saturday the great doubles battle monopolized the attention of the 30,000 spectators. Those who couldn't get into the center court sweltered around the outside scoreboards, alternately jubilant or melancholy as the Empire's fortunes rose or fell.

Even the normally taciturn Savitt broke into smiles of wonderment as Hoad or Rosewall shot back his powerful cannonball serves for points, smashed with such deception neither of the more experienced Americans was near the ball, or slashed stop volleys from hits that should have left them flat-footed.

Savitt, the 25-year-old defending singles champion, fought to the last point but was too frequently outmaneuvered along with the 37-year-old Mulloy. The Americans had only one real chance to win—a match point in the 10th game of the fifth set. But with the greatest composure, Rosewall served a blistering ball to Mulloy. Mulloy managed a return only to have Hoad ram it down the sideline for duce. Then Mulloy netted an easy one, Savitt hit out a sure point and the Aussies outplayed the Americans in a ping-pong session at the net.

MISSFELDT MISSES BOAT
Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Chuck Missfeldt, University of Oregon spear thrower, was off his best form in the Olympic finals here Friday and placed ninth to be well out of the money. His javelin heave was only 200 feet.

THE HARD WAY — Floyd Baker, Washington second sacker, is upended as he gets throw off to first base for a double play. Sliding under him is Eddie Stewart of the White Sox, who was forced out. The Sox lost the game, played in Chicago, 6-4.

Studs, Lumberjacks Mix This Afternoon

Starting time of Southern Oregon league baseball action at the fairgrounds here today between the Medford Cheney Studs and the Coos Bay-North Bend Lumberjacks was dependent on the affect of weather on the frays scheduled between the two clubs last night.

If rain halted or prevented last night's scuffle, the teams will play a doubleheader beginning at 1:30 p.m. today. If the clubs completed their hassle last night, a single game will start at 2 p.m.

Paul Gehrman was to have pitched for Medford last night and Herb Karpel today. If there are two games today, Gehrman may start the first affair, a team spokesman said.

While the Studs, naturally, will be after a sweep, there is talk that they will be happy with a split. The Lumberjacks, only one game behind loop leader Drain going into the week-end series, loomed a rough customer for the Cheney gang. Their heavy slugging line-up boasts more men among the hitting leaders of the circuit than any other team.

Coos Bay-North Bend is intent on maintaining its battle for the top place in the standings. The Jacks are expected to have a flock of hometown supporters here today to bolster their spirits on the rival field.

There are a number of ways the status of teams in the league may change as the result of week-end games Medford will be gunning for second or third place deadlocks. The Studs are now knotted for fourth in percentage with Bandon.

Club Champion Tourney Slated

Qualifying play for the club golf title among men of Rogue Valley Country club is now underway and qualifying must be completed not later than Sunday night, July 6. Match play will commence on July 7.

George Harrington is defending champ. He whipped Dr. Bruce Stanley 10 and 9 in the 36-hole finale.

Zoe Ann Jensen May Miss Trials

Indianapolis, Ind. — (U.P.) — Former national diving champion Zoe Ann Jensen has pulled a stomach muscle and may not be able to compete in the U. S. Olympic team tryout finals, it was revealed Saturday.

A physician who examined the attractive 21-year-old diver said it may take 10 days for her to recover, but Zoe Ann said she would compete for an Olympic team berth "if at all possible."

The pert little blonde from Oakland, Calif., wife of Washington Senator's baseball player Jackie Jensen, was second only to Vicky Draves in the 1948 Olympic springboard competition. She has been in virtual retirement the last three years but began practice two weeks ago for a come-back.

Five events of the women's Olympic swimming program will be decided here July 4-6, with three-meter springboard diving scheduled for the final day.

Overhauling the NEWS

By BOB TAYLOR

With the 4th of July rolling around, my mind is jumping with excitement towards a 3-day holiday at the Lake O Woods. I'd rather talk about holiday fun, but I feel it would better the company financially if I talked shop. Today it's PRICES. Well, first off we all know things seem too high, so let's attempt an escape by using comparison as a basis of what's too high. Now let me put you straight before I start this ditty, I'm not saying I sell the BEST car, but I do say "Dollar for Dollar you Can't Beat a PONTIAC."

Okay, so you ask me what the price of a Pontiac is! Naked, $2280.51. With clothes, top hat, nylon undies, it can climb to $3100.00. Now here is the beauty of our car. Come in and order it the way you want. No accessories crammed down your neck, no pressure towards higher priced models. Just plain write your ticket. You want it green, with heater, radio, dual range drive, etc. We'll have it custom made to your particular taste. Why should everyone have the same menu in front of them, and why shouldn't you the buyer be able to choose your car accessories? We don't know the answer here.

According to a National publication, here is a list of the nationally known cars, starting with the lowest to the highest in that order. (4 Door models only.) Ford, Chevrolet, Studebaker, Nash, Plymouth, Pontiac, Dodge, Buick, Spec., Kaiser Spec., Mercury, Hudson, Oldsmobile, DeSoto, Chrysler, Packard, Lincoln, Cadillac. If you'll reread that list you'll find us 6th from the lowest and 11 others following.

By comparison then, we find ourselves the lowest straight 8 cylinder car made, and the first medium weight car. Naturally then, our car is popular with its owners, and it's a best seller on a used car lot. Consider your car a "Savings Account," but instead of interest being paid, it depreciates. Now the one that depreciates the least, must be paying the highest interest. Frankly, only one make of car beats our interest rates.

You're all invited to track up our showroom floor looking at the new cars, and we delight in wearing out our demonstrator. Before you buy your next car, won't you stop in and talk Pontiac First! 6th & Grape, Phone 2-5241.

HOME WORKSHOP Radial Arm SUPERSAW

New Comet Cub combines superior Radial Saw Features with Economy of Multi-Purpose Tool

As a Saw, the Comet Cub is better because...

• in crosscutting the saw moves instead of the work, providing greater accuracy, less effort.

• the saw is above the work for greater ease in following layout marks.

• it requires less space...material stays in the same position for crosscutting or ripping.

• adjustment for angle and compound angle cuts is faster, more accurate.

As a Multi-Purpose tool, the Comet Cub is better because...

When equipped with optional units, it provides all the basic shop operations at far less cost than buying individual tools—saves space, too.

• exclusive duplex drive 3/4 h.p. motor provides power for sawing, sanding, woodturning, buffing, grinding—speed for fine finishing as a router, shaper or planer.

• converts easily from one operation to another without elaborate reassembly.

• performs every operation like a single purpose machine—not left-handedly or in a makeshift manner.
