With heavy concentrations of power in the eighth inning on both occasions, the Medford Cheney Studs swept a two-game week-end series here against the Coos Bay-North Bend Lumberjacks to gain new stature in the fast Northwestern Oregon Baseball circuit.

On Saturday the Studs pushed over four runs in the eighth in manufacturing a 5 to 2 triumph. On Sunday they tallied all their runs in the eighth to earn a 3 to 1 decision over the highly-regarded nine from the coast area.

The two victories gained the Studs a third place deadlock in the standings with the Lumberjacks. Drain's slated two-game stand at Roseburg was rained out. Coquille split at Brookings, taking the first hassle 4 to 0 and dropping the second 4 to 1. Brookings posted its first loop win.

Studs Trail

The Studs came to bat in the eighth stanza Sunday lagging 1 to 0.

Moose Blevins led off the inning with a single and Snuffy Smith sacrificed him to second base. Norm Lucich doubled home Blevins to tie up the fracas. George Gitzzen fanned for the second out. Pitcher Clarence Melbye whammed a triple to deep center field that enabled Lucich to cross with the tie-breaking runner. Alex McDonald followed with a single, scoring Melbye to pad the margin.

Coos Bay got its lone marker in the third inning on a walk to Joe Sugura, sacrifice by Don White and single by Lou Scrivens.

Melbye was the winning hurler but he required help from big Paul Gehrman, previous night victor for the Studs. Coos Bay threatened Glenn Stetter led off with a single but Buzz Arlitt hit into a double play Melbye to Pete Bianchi to Gitzzen. Then Dick Wenner and Ken Johnson got on base with singles.

Gehrman Fans Ruggles

Gehrman was called to the mound at that point and Melbye went to first base replacing Gitzzen. Big Paul fogged through three pitches and batter Jim Ruggles swung and missed at each to fan, retire the side and end the ball game.

The Studs recorded one other double kill during the scuffle. That was in the fourth frame when Coos Bay got two bingles. Arlitt had safetied but was thrown out by Catcher Frank Roelandt when he tried to steal second. Wenner was safe on a single. Then Jensen rapped a grounder and was thrown out to Gordon to Gitzzen. Wenner made second and tried to sneak to third. Gitzzen fired the ball to McDonald at third and Wenner was caught in the hot box by Shortstop Bianchi.

Medford got a slick double base swipe in the second inning when Blevins and Smith got on first and second on successive hits. Lumberjack Tossler White thought he saw Smith napping off first and ran over to tag him out. Smith fooled the hurler by dashing to second base and Blevins scooted to third.

Has Big Day

Smith had a big day in center field with six putouts, a number on long runs for fly catches. The best was a long run back almost to the fence to haul down a sky ball off the bat of Sugura.

Melbye, who doesn't pitch often, was called to the hill because Herb Karpel did not arrive from Seattle. He reportedly got as far as Portland but it was not learned why he did not come the rest of the way.

Gehrman on Saturday night gave up only four hits to Coos Bay. There was never more than one an inning and errors figured in both Lumberjack scores.

Medford's next league action is at Drain on July 12 and 13. The Studs meet the House of David nine here on July 15.

CARRYING THE TORCH—A runner passes the Olympic torch to another at Mt. Olympus, Greece, in the first of many such relays to be made on its trip to Helsinki where the 1952 Olympic Games will be held. Pendleton Tops Racers

Chuck Pendleton Sunday loomed as the driver to watch on the Medford speedway this season.

He combined a hot car with driving skill to take all three auto races at the speedway. Pendleton nabbed three five-lap rambles and the 10-lap main event.

Pendleton, Flip Kodat and Ray Dietschman with the three speediest cars in the time trials vied in the first run. The second race provided thrills when Dietschman rolled his Ford coupe on the southeast corner and Ray Reid rolled his Buick on the west end of the track. Reid was scratched and his car was out of action for the day.

Wayne Carter suffered a broken ankle while racing his motorcycle.

Because of the weather no out-of-town cars were on hand. A better entry for races next week-end is anticipated by promoters Reid and Eddie Claasen.

Pendleton was fastest in the time trials yesterday with a 29.4 second run. Other times included Kodat 30, Dietschman 30.0, Reid 31 and Jim Downs 32.

PCL Action Highlighted By Shutouts

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Shop talk among Pacific Coast League pitchers today doesn't so much concern how many games they have won as how many shutouts they've thrown.

Consequently, Willie Luna, the slim southpaw from San Diego, has more reason than most to be garrulous. He pitched his fourth white-washing of the season Sunday — a two-hitter — in getting the Padres a 2-0 win from Seattle. The game was delayed half-an-hour by rain and the second heat was postponed after four frames for the same reason.

League Two Leading

League — trailing Hollywood had two representatives in the blanketing society. Righthander Mel Queen took a 4-0 decision from Los Angeles. And teammate Jim Walsh came back to pick up a 2-0 victory. Both games were three-hitters, though Queen called on Red Lynn to finish the ninth inning for him.

Portland also had two pitchers eligible for the zero squad. Aged Red Adams, who's serving them stingily this season, and Marino Pieretti both shut out Sacramento. Adams won 7-0, with a four-hitter, and Pieretti took his 3-0, allowing two safeties.

San Francisco annexed its only game of six from Oakland on Bill Bradford's 3-0, steady seven-hit job. But the A's came back to take the overtime second game, 5-4, on Seal Bob Thurman's eighth — frame bonehead play. The 5-4 thing was the only PCL game played yesterday that was not won with a shutout.

Snead, Ferrier Win Inverness

Toledo, Ohio — (U.P.) — Sammy Snead paid tribute today to the putting of his partner, big Jim Ferrier as the chief factor that gave them the $5,000 first prize in the Inverness All-Star, best-ball golf tournament.

The two long-ball hitters clinched an easy triumph Sunday as they walloped their chief contenders, Lloyd Mangrum and Cary Middlecoff, plus five, in an afternoon round.

Drop To Third

Mangrum and Middlecoff dropped from second to third place with minus one, while Doug Ford and Ed (Porky) Oliver moved into second with plus one.

Scores of the other teams were Jimmy Demaret and Jack Burke Jr. minus two; Byron Nelson and Skeel Riegel minus three, and Clayton Heafner and Marty Furgol, minus eight.

Cave Junction Downs Prospect

Cave Junction protected its unmarred lead in the Rogue Valley Baseball league Sunday with a narrow 4 to 1 decision at Prospect.

Other games, Grants Pass at Butte Falls and Ashland at Gledale, were postponed by rain. Central Point had a bye.

Tiger Bob Smith and Ron Maurer tallied all runs for Cave Junction and Lon Maurer drove in three of the markers. Wayne Saffer threw three-hit ball for the victors.

GAMES CALLED OFF

The doubleheader scheduled Sunday between Medford and Myrtle Creek American Legion junior baseball nines was called off because of rain, team officials reported here this morning.

Major Loop All-Star Fray Squads Selected

Chicago — (U.P.) — The world champion New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians today held more than half the positions on the 1952 American League All Star team, picked by baseball fans and Yankee Manager Casey Stengel.

The Indians landed seven players on the 25-man squad while New York placed six. Each will have three starters in the lineup for the game July 8, all winning their positions by topping their competitors in the popular vote of the fans.

Stengel, who picked the entire squad but for the eight starters exclusive of pitchers, nominated only six hurlers, two from his own team, Vic Raschi and Allie Reynolds, and from Cleveland, Mike Garcia and Bob Lemon, one from St. Louis, LeRoy "Satchel" Paige, and one from Philadelphia, the league-leading hurler, Bobby Shantz, who has won 13 and lost only two.

Tribe Players

Cleveland, represented by starters Bobby Avila at second base, Al Rosen at third base, and Dale Mitchell in left field, also will have catcher Jim Hegan and centerfielder Larry Doby in the roster.

New York, with catcher Yogi Berra, right fielder Hank Bauer and shortstop Phil Rizzuto as starters, had centerfielder Mickey Mantle as its sixth squad member.

Other starters were Eddie Robinson, Chi White Sox, at first base, and Dom DiMaggio, Boston Red Sox, in centerfield.

Other players picked by Stengel were third baseman George Kell, Boston, second baseman Nellie Fox and outfielder Minny Minoso, Chicago, outfielder Vic Wertz, Detroit, first baseman Ferris Fain, Philadelphia, and third baseman Eddie Yost and outfielder Jackie Jensen, Washington.

New York — (U.P.) — Seven Brooklyn players and five of his own New York Giants formed a 12-man bulwark, or almost half the personnel of the National League All Star squad which Manager Leo Durocher announced today.

Durocher, who chose the pitching staff and the reserves for the 25-man squad which meets a similar American league contingent in the annual classic, July 8 at Philadelphia, picked Preacher Roe, first baseman Gil Hodges, shortstop Peeewe Reese and outfielders Duke Snider and

Louise Suggs Open Champion

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Louise Suggs, who has won all of golf's major titles during her 12 years on the greens, tucked her second women's National Open championship among her trophies today and gave her sister golfers a world's record to shoot at in the future.

The 28-year-old precision artist from Carrollton, Ga., posted a 284 score, the lowest ever turned in by a woman for 72 holes of Pittsburgh — (U.P.) — Stan Musial's 24-game hitting streak was at an end today—thanks to Howie Pollet and a rain storm. The Cardinal slugger had only two trips to the plate Sunday as rain ended the first game of a scheduled Cards-Pirates double-header at the end of five innings with the Pirates winning, 2 to 1.

STREAK ENDS
