

Joe Chez Named All-American Hurler

Medfordite Chosen for Third Team

Joe Chez, Medford, pitcher for Stanford university, was named to the third team in the 1952 collegiate all-American baseball selections made by the American Association of College Baseball Officials.

Chez, who has completed his eligibility at Stanford and is eyeing professional offers, had a record of seven wins and one loss for the Indians this year. He made the all-star first teams of the California Intercollegiate Baseball association and National Collegiate Athletic association district No. 8.

Duane Helbig, Oregon State college outfielder landed a berth in the all-American second team.

East Lansing, Mich. — (U.P.) — Duke and Missouri shared top honors Wednesday in the 1952 All-America collegiate baseball team selected by the American Association of College Baseball Officials. John H. Kobs, chairman of the Coaches' All-American Committee and baseball coach at Michigan State college, announced selection of three 10-man teams for the mythical squad.

Marathon, Scuffle, 100th RBI Feature Major Loop Games

By UNITED PRESS

What a night it was in the majors!

A 19-inning victory for the Indians over the Browns, 4 to 3, as Satchel Paige finally met his match in the third marathon relief job he had been involved in in less than a month. A first fight in Boston between Earl Torgeson of the Braves and Earl Yvars of the Giants. And a proud new entry in the record books for a great competitor, Enos Slaughter of the Cardinals, who drove in his 1,000th run in an 8 to 3 victory over the Reds at St. Louis.

Paige, who pitched 10 shut-out innings against the Indians, had victory over Cleveland reliever Lou Brissie within his grasp when he finally wore out in the bottom of the 19th and yielded two runs on a single by Bobby Avila, a double by Al Rosen, and a pinch-single by Hank Mieski. Just before, Brissie had yielded a run that put St. Louis ahead, 3 to 2, on a walk to Dick Kryhoski, a sacrifice by Bob Nieman, and a single by Jim Delsing.

The game just missed being a curfew-halted tie by one minute. The 18th inning wound up at 12:49 a.m. The new major league rules prohibit any inning starting in a night game after

Yakima Nabs Pair From Vancouver

By UNITED PRESS

Dario Lodigiani's Yakima Bears may not win the Western International league pennant this year, but the current cellar-dwellers suddenly have come to life and are making it miserable for other members of the loop.

The Vancouver Capilanos were the Bears' latest victims. The Canadians skidded to seven full games off the pace Tuesday night by dropping both ends of a double-header, 7-5 and 5-1.

Victoria Splits
Pace-setting Victoria split with Wenatchee, winning the first 11-0, but losing the wind-up, 3-1. In single bills, Salem blanked Spokane, 7-0, and Tri-City clubbed Lewiston, 7-1.

Bill Stites of Wenatchee and Cal McIrvine of Victoria dueled until the ninth inning of the second game when two singles, a walk and a bunt gave the Chiefs their winning runs. McIrvine was returned temporarily from the parent Portland Beavers after Bob Drilling refused to report to the class A club.

Jack Hemphill hurled a neat six-hit shutout as Salem whipped Spokane. Tri-City took advantage of loose fielding and bunched its seven hits to roll over Lewiston.

Southern Oregon Junior Baseball

Grants Pass defeated Medford 7 to 1 and Ashland beat Jacksonville 17 to 7 Tuesday night in Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league cub division games. Grants Pass downed Medford 9 to 3 Monday in a pee wee fray.

Long Ball Hitters Aid Oaks Cause

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Two guys, hired by Oakland to hit the long ball, offered a hope Wednesday that their bats may pry Hollywood from its hold on the Pacific Coast league lead.

The belters, both outfielders, are gentlemen Sam Chapman and Johnny Ostrowski. Chapman, the class of the league in centerfield, has mildly disappointed some who expected him to rip holes in the PCL's most distant fences.

Seven Homers
Down by his own request from more than a decade of service with the Philadelphia A's and Cleveland, Chap has clipped out seven homers, batted in 42 runs and hit better than .280 in his 85 games as an Acorn. He missed spring training but overcame that handicap by playing himself into condition.

His manager, Mel Ott, and owner, Brick Laws, are delighted with Sam's services. Laws says Chapman has won "eight or nine games" for the Oaks on his professional outfielding alone.

Ostrowski, a veteran Coast leaguer, was obtained from Sacramento in a straight trade for Len Attyd. Since joining the Oaklanders, Ostrowski has belted five of his 13 homers and he's hitting about .250 with 43 RBI's.

Lead Trimmed
Both Chapman and Ostrowski ripped four-masters Tuesday night to pace Oakland's 6-1 victory over Hollywood. The loss trimmed the Stars lead to two games over second-place San Diego, who whipped Portland, 6-2. Oakland, in third place, is four games behind Hollywood. Los Angeles, though out-hit almost two-to-one, whipped San Francisco, 6-2, and Sacramento overwhelmed Seattle, 10-5.

Ostrowski had three hits and Chapman two, bolstering Allen Gettel's six-hit pitching against the Stars.

GENE SMITH FAVORED
Washington — (U.P.) — Gene Smith of Washington, seeking his 32nd straight victory, was a slight favorite to score a repeat triumph over Glen Flanagan of St. Paul, Minn., Wednesday night, in a televised 10-round bout at Griffith Stadium. The bout is regarded as one in a series to determine an "interim champion" while Featherweight Champion Sammy Saddler is in the Army.

Gasmen, Eagle Point Post Softball Wins

The Crater Lions are scheduled against YMCA and Mobilgas against the National Guard in Medford Softball association men's contest on Thursday.

The Lions and YMCA are to vie at 7:30 p.m. with the other fracas to follow at the senior high stadium.

National Guard will make its first appearance on the Medford field. Guardsmen lost an earlier game to Camp White on the veterans domiciliary field.

Mobilgas and Eagle Point won hassles in the Medford Softball association men's league last night.

Mobilgas gained a tie with Central Point and Camp White in the loop standings by bouncing Trowbridge and Flynn 12 to 4. Eagle Point chalked up its first win against one setback by topping Andy's Jewelers 10 to 6.

The Gasmen, making it two wins against one loss, pushed over six runs in the first stanza, four in the second and two in the fourth.

Three hits, five walks, an error, stolen base and passed ball figured in first inning scoring and three hits, an error, two stolen bases and three walks in the second inning surge. Bill Werner tripled in the second frame. In the fourth Werner singled and Carl Reich socked the second homer of the loop season.

All in Fourth
Trowbridge and Flynn tallied all its runs in the fifth canto. Bill Royce singled and two walks filled the bases. John McCormick pushed the runners around with a triple and romped home, himself, on an error.

The game was halted after five innings because of the Mobilgas lead.

Eagle Point also had a six run first inning. Five hits, three errors and two walks were utilized. Andy's got a run in the first inning on a hit by Bob Steele, double by Ned Landers and an error and one in the second on three walks and a flyout by John Niles.

Margin Cut

In the fourth frame the Jewelers got three markers to cut the margin to 6 to 5. Three hits, a fielder's choice and a walk were employed. Eagle Point got a fifth inning run on a hit, two walks and fielder's choice for a 7 to 5 lead. Andy's in the sixth gained a tally on a hit, two walks and an error to cut the gap to 7 to 6.

Eagle Point in the seventh frame, however, padded its margin with three runs on five walks, an error and a fielder's option.
