

Local and Personal

Attend Market — Mrs. Bertha Pree of Bert Pree's Dress shop, Medford, and Mrs. Dorene Vaughn, Town and Country shop, Eagle Point, returned last night from Seattle where they attended market week.

Breaks Wrist — Janet Sorensen, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sorensen, 1025 North Central avenue, suffered a broken wrist when she fell from a swing at her home Tuesday evening.

Visit Son — Mr. and Mrs. Henry Muir and children left here Monday to visit their son Sheldon, in Seattle.

Visitors — Mr. and Mrs. Allyn Delara and daughter Nancy, Fresno, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Delara's mother, Mrs. Nancy Ginn, 35 Kenwood drive.

Assumes Name — Blanche E. Phillips, P. O. Box 1453, Medford, has applied in the county clerk's office for the assumed business name of the State Dating bureau, a business of correspondence.

YMCA To Close — The YMCA building will be closed July 4 and 5 it was stated today, since staff members will be at the "Y" camp at Diamond Lake. The camp suffered severe damage last winter from heavy snow. The dining room completely collapsed, and "Y" men are working to clean up the site and start a new building. The kitchen and pump house are still standing.

Volunteers Needed — Low Echo, the Girl Scout camp at Lake O' Woods, can still use volunteer helpers, it was announced today from scout headquarters. It is suggested that perhaps each father who drives a camper to the lake Sunday would be willing to work an hour or two while there, since many helpers working even an hour could accomplish considerable. The fourth and fifth weeks of camping are still open for registration. Seventy girls outside the area have registered for camping at Low Echo this summer, some from as far south as San Diego, Calif., and others from as far north as Astoria, Ore.

'IKE' ON STOCKINGS — Chicago (UP) — Women around Republican convention headquarters at the Conrad Hilton Hotel are wearing stockings with "I Like Ike" or "No Graft with Taft" emblazoned on the ankles. They are unhappy with the stockings, though. The girls say the lettering makes their ankles look thick.

Hotel Remodeling Nears Completion

The remodeling of the lobby and exterior of the Medford hotel is nearly completed, and remodeling of the lounge will begin next week, it was reported today by Harry Watson, hotel manager.

These jobs represent the final phases of an over-all remodeling and redecorating job under way at the hotel for some time. The first floor exterior and lobby exterior have been completely

Steak Fry Attraction For Trail Riders

A steak fry at Leroy Morris' "Hidden Valley" ranch was the chief activity of the Medford Trail Riders in their meeting Sunday. About 60 riders were there.

Before the steak fry the group took a two-hour ride to a ghost town on the ranch, investigated an old gold mine and did some panning for gold. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fincher, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Flannery and Bea Bismark were hosts and hostesses for the dinner.

A pot-luck dinner is planned for the group's next meeting, July 19. They also will discuss plans for their over-night ride later in the month.

Part-Time Chaplain Named at Camp White

Camp White — The Rev. Perry Johnson, of Temple Baptist church and president of the Medford Ministerial association, has been appointed part time chaplain at Camp White, it was announced today.

Mr. Johnson will be available in emergencies and will relieve the Rev. Henry Anderson while he is on military leave. He is well known at the domiciliary, having substituted on numerous occasions for Chaplain Anderson at the Protestant chapel.
