

Turman-Waters Rites Are Held In Church Here

Miss Florine Waters became the bride of Bill Ross Turman in a ceremony held June 27 at First Methodist church. A small group of relatives and friends attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Waters, 1003 West Tenth street, and Mr. Turman is a son of Mrs. Allie Turman, 906 West Eleventh street. The Rev. Meredith A. Groves read the double-ritual at eight o'clock in the evening. Arrangements of regal lilies, white ester reed daisies and blue delphinium decorated the church.

For her wedding the bride wore a ballerina length frock of embossed nylon in old ivory shade and a matching tiara trimmed with seed pearls held her finger-tip length veil. She carried a white orchid.

Miss Mary Jo Hall, cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Miss Hall's gown was blue embossed organza, ballerina length, with which she wore a headband of pink carnations. Her bouquet was of white ester reed daisies and perkins roses.

Lynette Waters, sister of the bride, and Linda Lou Schoppert, her cousin, were junior bridesmaids. Miss Waters wore orchid embossed organza and Miss Waters turquoise embossed organza. Their headbands were of pink carnations and their bouquets matched that of the honor attendant.

Mr. Waters gave his daughter in marriage, and Ray Klepper was best man for the bridegroom. Misses Judith Hall and Susan Schoppert, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. Their ballerina frocks were of blue and pink organza.

Mrs. Lyle R. Schoppert, aunt of the bride, played a number of organ selections for the ceremony.

The reception which followed was at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Ross J. Turman Jr., sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Susan Schoppert poured and serving the wedding cake were Misses Judith Hall and Marie Johnson. Miss Joy Lee Wright took charge of the guest book.

Mr. Turman and his bride traveled to Portland and eastern Oregon for their wedding trip and will live at 906 West Eleventh street. The bridegroom is a cabinetmaker at Padgham millworks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olsen and daughter, Miss Barbara Olsen, 40 Berkeley way, spent the July Fourth week-end with a motor trip into eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Robert Miller, Portland, is in Medford to visit relatives. Mrs. Miller, (at left) is visiting her sister, Miss Donna Sherwood and her mother, Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, Loring court. Mrs. Miller, who was Elaine Sherwood before her marriage a year ago, and her husband just returned to Portland after spending the past year traveling and living in Europe. Mrs. Miller is holding two of the bottles of French perfume which she brought back from Paris for her mother and sister. Mr. Miller is an artist and the couple spent much time in the art museums and galleries of the European countries. Greenwich Show Plans Completed By Local Artists

Members of Southern Oregon pleted plans for the first annual Society of Artists have com Greenwich Village Art show. It will be held in the old city park on West Main street Sunday, July 13, from 1 to 5 p.m. Every one is invited to attend.

Both active and associate members of the society are participating, and they expect to display pictures on park benches, easels and clothes lines.

Johnny Ahern expects to take enough pictures to fill two park benches. Mr. Ahern, who uses both oils and tempera for his works, is a radio announcer at KYJC.

Mrs. Eileen Mole, advertising manager for Mann's Department store, will also take part in the show. Mrs. Mole works in oils and will feature still life paintings.

Mrs. A. V. Hardy will show watercolors of old country castles and villages and Mrs. Gladis Chapin, a clerk during working hours, will display seascapes which she paints in oils as a hobby.

Miss Maccione Titus, staff artist and senior assistant at the public library, will display her work on a clothesline. Mrs. Titus paints in oils, tempera and watercolors.

The pictures displayed will be both framed and unframed and most of the artists will have work for sale. The society hopes to make this unique show, something never attempted in Medford before, an annual event that will attract visitors from all parts of the valley.
