The Grange

Shady Cove HEC

The Shady Cove Grange HEC met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Pat Close. Sixteen members attended.

An illustrated talk on the Indian tribes of Oregon was presented by Mrs. John Holtz, Butte Falls. Two guests, Mrs. Harding and Mrs. Hume of Upper Rogue, attended.

Mrs. Alvina Flowers, in charge of the fancy work, passed out materials for aprons and tea towels to be made for the bazaar this fall. A friendship tablecloth was suggested and the members voted to make one.

The next Grange meeting will be held July 9. The lecture hour will be presented then by visitors from Butte Falls. Members are asked to bring cookies or sandwiches.

Eagle Point Grange

Piano and violin music and a comedy skit were features of the Eagle Point Grange meeting Tuesday.

Georgia Weidman, Colleen Arthur and Harriet Chamberlain all entertained at the piano. A violin solo was played by George Conrad. Performers in the skit, "Diet Starts Tomorrow," were Clara Chamberlain, Marie Clark, Kay Kettlewell, Winnie Brown and Rosa Smith.

The lecturer's program was presented by Mable Wertz and

AND EKE THE RHEUMATIZ

Dr. Brady

This is the 12th of a series of talks about calcium, and I hope readers appreciate how carefully I have refrained from calling any one stupid, knucklehead, Yankee, or poor geek in these talks.

Getting right down to business, I assert, without fear of contradiction, that such impressive names as chronic arthritis, rheumatoid arthritis, arthritis deformans, atrophic arthritis, degenerative arthritis, osteoarthritis and hyperostrophic arthritis are $50 words for $1.80 rheumatism.

That I must add, for the benefit of the—watch out, Brady, the probation term has four days yet to go!—then for the benefit of rheumatiz sufferers who may have bought one or more of these fancy titles, they don't mean anything more than that there is apparently something the matter with the patient's joints.

Arthritis, derived from arthro, joint, and itis, inflammation, means joint inflammation and that's all.

Rheumatiz, derived from rheuma, the derivation of rheumatism goes back to catarrh and other absurdities, so we may as well settle for stiffness of joints with pain on motion.

I have a well defined view or concept of the pathology of the rheumatiz but, believe it or not, sympathat for sufferers constrains me to withhold my view—I'd rather let you have it in easy installments.

I have been taking treatment for my rheumatiz for about a year and with highly satisfactory results. The second joint of middle finger began to crackle at it, became somewhat tender and stiff compared with opposite middle finger (I do not use it much, being a two finger typist) and swollen to spindle shape. So I added to my daily ration of vitamins and minerals an extra daily ration of calcium and D. The swelling and stiffness steadily diminished and now there's little more than the memory.

Aside from injuries, strains or acute infections, the rheumatiz is a manifestation of nutritional deficiency, I believe. Especially, but not entirely, calcium and D deficiency.

Mind you, fa—please keep in mind that it is hardly possible to correct nutritional deficiency by taking vitamins or minerals or anything else for a few weeks or months as you might take medicine. If you have the notion to "try" something in that way, my advice is: Don't.

I wish every one who has or is training for the rheumatiz could read Nutrition and Physical Degeneration, by the late great Weston A. Price, M.S., D.D.S., F.A.C.D. Not that Dr. Price says anything about the rheumatiz, but he makes clear the meaning of physical degeneration. The book may be available in the public library. Just looking at the pictures in it is an education.

Editor's Note: Dr. Brady is now on a two-weeks vacation. Questions and answers usually printed here will be resumed upon his return.

MOO-O-OS and MUSINGS

We were eavesdropping on an animated conversation between two hungry looking woodchucks yesterday when they saw Bob Church of the Weather Bureau walk by.

We were quite impressed by the parting remark of one of them when he said,

"So long. See you in Church."

Shoe Store Sale Announced Here

The Lantis and Wilson shoe store, 2 North Central avenue, is under new ownership and will be operated under the name Johnston and Stewart starting this week.

The new owners are Earl Johnston, who was formerly associated with the store for many years, and Iral Stewart, Portland, a shoe representative who travels this territory. Store personnel will include Johnston, Robert Stewart, of Oakland, the son of one of the co-owners, and Tom Gifford, who has worked at the store since its institution. Robert Stewart announced

J. C. Penney Employee Promoted, Transferred

Donald Ammundson, who has been section manager in charge of men's clothing and women's accessories at the J. C. Penney store here, and who has been with the store for six years, has been promoted and transferred to the Eugene Penney store, it was announced this week. In Eugene, Ammundson will be in charge of the main floor of the store. He will be joined soon by his wife and family.
