By UNITED PRESS
Baseball's annual All-Star game may be a delightful extravaganza to the fans but it's still just an added, unwanted chore to the players and managers.

Just how the players and pilots feel about the game was demonstrated again Sunday when no fewer than six of the 13 pitchers named to the American and National league squads saw action and thus will come up for Tuesday's game without proper rest.

The fans, however, could take some solace in the fact that in each deliberate case of snubbing the All-Star game, justice triumphed over sin and the star pitcher lost.

Those tagged with defeat were Sal Maglie of the Giants, Robin Roberts of the Phillies, Warren Spahn of the Braves, Bobby Shantz of the A's, Mike Garcia of the Indians and Satchel Paige of the Browns.

Maglie was beaten by the Phillies, 4 to 1, after the Giants beat Roberts, 2 to 0. Spahn was hammered by the Dodgers, 8 to 2. Shantz retired after four innings and lost to the Yankees, 5 to 2, although the A's rebounded to win the nightcap, 7 to 6. Garcia bowed to the White Sox, 3 to 2, in 12 innings when Minnie Minoso hit a home run, and Paige, relieving Ned Garver, suffered the defeat as the Tigers beat the Browns, 8 to 6, for their second straight under Fred Hutchinson.

In other games Sunday the Cubs beat the Reds, 5 to 1 and 2 to 0, the Cardinals downed the Pirates, 6 to 5 and 6 to 4, and the Senators defeated the Red Sox, 5 to 2.

As a result, the All-Star interlude found the Yankees leading the American league by three games and the Dodgers leading the National by four-and-a-half. The White Sox, Indians, Senators and Red Sox trailed the Yankees with only 3½ games separating all four while the Giants were within range of the Dodgers. A year ago the White Sox were AL leaders, one game ahead of Boston and two ahead of New York while Brooklyn enjoyed an 8½ game spread over the Giants.

Stan Musial, of the Cards, led the National league's hitters with .333, nine point better than Toby Atwell of Chicago. In the AL, Ferris Fain of the A's, led with a .336 average with Billy Goodman of the Red Sox one point behind and Al Rosen of Cleveland six points away.

Fine Pitching
In the NL, the lightly regarded Cubs were in fourth place although 11½ games behind Brooklyn, and still getting fine pitching from such as Paul Minner and Warren Hacker who turned in a two-hitter and a four-hitter respectively. In the American, the Senators were still suspended in fourth place. Eddie Stanky's Cardinals were

Jim Kelly Tosses Legion No-Hitter

Jim Kelly, who during the school year hurls for St. Mary's, pitched a no-hitter Saturday for the Medford American Legion junior baseball nine. Medford won the game 8 to 1 and lost a Sunday affair 8 to 7 in a series at Prineville.

Saturday as Kelly gave up three walks in the second inning. The score was made on an error. The walks were the only ones issued by Kelly.

Medford scored twice in the second inning Saturday on hits by Jerry Perkins, Tom Rodgers and Kelly, a sacrifice by Jack Antonson, an error and stolen base. The Jackson county crew got four tallies in the fourth on two errors, a sacrifice by Rodgers, two walks, a triple by Terry Sherwood and a single by Dick Wooton.

Won in Seventh
In the seventh Medford got two more counters on two errors, a triple by Gordon Carrigan and a steal home by Carrigan.

Prineville on Sunday got its winning run in the seventh on an error, passed ball, wild pitch and a single. The Crook county nine, which is leading its district with five wins and no losses, tallied four runs in the fifth inning.

Medford got three runs in the first inning on singles by Sherwood, Wooton and Perkins, a walk, three stolen bases and two errors. One crossed in the second.

the current "hot team" with nine straight victories which have put them 12 over .500 and within 4½ of the Giants.

If the most valuable player picks were to be made today, the AL award would go to either Shantz or Allie Reynolds, NL award to Maglie. The "bust of the year" — and maybe of the decade — undoubtedly is Luke Easter, picked by many to be player of the year and now back in the minors. The manager of the year would be a toss-up between Casey Stengel and Bucky Harris.

Ashland moved up into third place in the Rogue Valley Baseball league Sunday by downing Central Point 6 to 3 as Grants Pass nipped Glendale 5 to 4.

Grants Pass held on to second position and Glendale slipped to fourth. In the other scuffle Cave Junction, unmarred loop leader, rapped Butte Falls 8 to 3 for its seventh decision in the circuit.

Ashland trailing 3 to 0, pushed over all its runs in the fourth inning to thump the Millers. Don

Middlecoff Wins Motor City Open

Detroit—(U.P.)—Dr. Cary Middlecoff flashed a check for $2,400 Monday as "sudden death" winner of the Motor City Open golf tournament.

The lanky Memphis, Tenn., dentist needed only one extra hole to dispose of Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., Sunday after they had tied for first place with 275 after the regulation 72 holes.

Middlecoff didn't waste any time as he rammed home a birdie four on the 497-yard first hole at spacious Red Run to send Kroll down to an early defeat. Mangrum Third Lloyd Mangrum, the Mr. Moneybags of golf, faded in the stretch after catching Middlecoff and Kroll and was forced to settle for third place with 275.

Roberto de Vincenzo of Argentina finished strong with a 6-under-par 66 for 277 to deadlock with Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg, Fla., for fourth place.

Another stroke back at 278 were Max Evans, Detroit; Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N. C., and Fred Haas.

Clint Conatser Will End Career

Portland—(U.P.)—The Portland Beavers management said Monday that Sunday's announcement by Outfielder Clint Conatser that he was ending his baseball career came as a surprise and a jolt.

Conatser's announcement was made between games of the doubleheader with San Diego.

Conatser joined the Beavers last spring on an option from Pittsburgh of the National League and Portland purchased him for $7500 later in the season. He had a batting record of .269 for the Beavers and a life-time average of .264.

He was second only to Joe Brovia on the Beaver roster for runs batted in with 38 and had laced out eight home runs.

He said he would enter the contracting business with his father in Los Angeles.

Thompson Hurls One-Hit Victory For Yakima Nine

By UNITED PRESS
A triple play and a one-hit pitching performance took the Western International league spotlight Sunday.

The triple killing was reeled off by the climbing Tri-City Braves in their 2-1 second-game victory over Wenatchee.

Three walks and a fielder's choice had given Wenatchee a run and left the bases full. Then Ben Guerro looped a pop fly bunt which was caught by Catcher Ben Robinette. He promptly tagged Clayton Carr who was racing in from third, then pegged to second in time to catch Frankie Dasso trying to get back to the bag.

Twelve Fanned
George New struck out 12 Chiefs and issued only two walks as the Braves walked off with the opener, 8-0.

The best pitching feat was turned in by Jack Thompson, who hurled Yakima to a 2-0 first-game win over Salem. He allowed only one hit — a first-frame single to Connie Perez. Yakima scored both its runs in the fifth inning.

The up- and - coming Bears played six runs in the fifth inning of the windup to support Kenny Wright's six-hit, pitching effort.

Spokane Shoved
Victoria shoved Spokane deeper into second place by whipping the Indians, 16-3. The game was tight until the seventh when the Tyees combined four singles, a double, and three walks for seven runs.

Big Gordie Brunswick powered two homers and a triple to pace Vancouver to a 6-4 first-game win from Lewiston. Len Tran also four-mastered for the

Oregon Net Meet Opens

Portland—(U.P.)—The 54th annual Oregon state tennis championship tournament opened Monday on the Irvington club courts here with Emery Neale of Portland making a bid for his seventh crown.

For competition, Neale will have another Portlander, Jim Caps.

In the finale, Bob Snyder pitched the victory as the Canadians supported him with a seven-hit attack which included four doubles.

HOW TO DRIVE THERE
Chicago—(U.P.)—The best route for drivers between Chicago, loop and the building housing the national political conventions will be: south on Wabash avenue to 43rd street, thence west to Halsted street. As supplements to Wabash avenue, traffic experts also recommend Michigan avenue or State street to 43rd street.
