Armed Posse Seeks Illinois Murderer

Pontiac, Ill. — (U.P.) — A posse Tuesday blockaded highway intersections and searched back roads in a search for a jealous gunman who killed two men, abducted his ex-wife and then pleaded for her love during a wild auto ride.

At Joliet, Ill., police said they believed the fugitive, Richard Cox, 27, may have returned to that city in a borrowed automobile.

Owner in Custody — Officers said they believed the killer might keep a date to return the car to the friend who loaned it to him. They said a squad of officers had the car's owner in custody and were lying in wait for Cox.

Cox drove the borrowed car to Pontiac Monday, stalked into a cafe and shot two men. He abducted his recently divorced wife, Betty, and sped northward along country roads. A 50-man posse, with shoot-to-kill if necessary orders, spread out over the countryside.

19-Year-Old Sentenced For Tavern Robbery

Salem — (U.P.) — Raymond Joe Knight, 19, of West Stayton, Ore., was sentenced to 10 years in the state penitentiary Monday for his part in the hold-up of Chuck's Tavern near Gates June 26.

Albert William Karnes of Astoria, charged with first degree murder in the axe slaying of 81-year-old Mrs. Susan Litchfield here June 7, appeared in court briefly but was continued to July 14 for entry of plea.
