

American Embassy Forced to Change Homes in Moscow

Moscow—(U.P.)—The U. S. embassy has got to give up its building just across the street from the Kremlin.

The embassy disclosed Monday night that the Soviet government had notified it that the $62,500-a-year lease on the embassy building would expire Dec. 31 and would not be renewed. The building, like all municipal real estate, is owned by the Moscow Soviet.

Seeking New Building
The "office for serving the diplomatic corps," a branch of the Soviet Foreign Ministry, said in the same letter of notification that it was searching for another building to serve as the American embassy.

It said the present building on Mokhovaya street would be taken over by the Moscow University, which already occupies an adjacent building.

The U. S. embassy will lose one of the choicest locations in Moscow. Its balconies and roof-tops offer excellent views of the traditional parades and demonstrations in Red Square, which goes diagonally across the street.

An embassy spokesman said no alternative building yet has been offered.

Infant Arrives as Stop Light Changes

Portland—(U.P.)—Mrs. Rana Suppa, 39, postmistress at the Warm Springs Indian reservation, and her day-old 7-pound, 12-ounce, son were "doing very nicely" Tuesday in a local hospital.

But that was only half of the story.

Dr. Roye Rasmussen, Gresham, who was accompanying the mother-to-be to Portland Monday, said he halted his car for a red light at N. E. 12th ave. and Sandy blvd., then heard a cry from the rear seat.

The doctor jumped to the rescue and finished delivering the infant just as the traffic signal turned to green. He moved back to the wheel and finished the trip with the mother and son.

Father of the child is Frank Suppa, a field man for the Warm Springs Confederated tribe and a tribe councilman.

Rare Operation Success At Philadelphia Hospital

Philadelphia—(U.P.)—The Pennsylvania Hospital Tuesday announced the success of a rare operation in which part of a dead man's aorta, the body's largest blood vessel, was transplanted into a living person.

The operation was performed on John Chatman, 48, Philadelphia, who was admitted to the hospital a month ago suffering from a weakening of the wall of the aorta. The vessel was swollen and any break would have caused immediate death.

1952 POLIO PRECAUTIONS

RECOMMENDED BY THE NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Seven-year-old Karen Blecha enacts 1952 polio precautions recommended by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. When polio is around, the National Foundation cautions parents to watch for these signs: headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, tenderness and stiffness of neck and back. A person showing such symptoms should be put to bed at once, away from others. Then, call your doctor and follow his advice. If polio is diagnosed, call your local chapter of the March of Dimes for advice and assistance, including needed financial help.

GOP Convention Sidelights Include Salute for General, Broken Seals, Poll of Votes

Chicago—(U.P.)—Sidelights of the GOP Convention:

Gen. Douglas MacArthur got something new in the way of military salutes as he left Convention Hall after his keynote speech Monday night.

About 40 uniformed Chicago policemen flanked the exit through which MacArthur passed en route to his waiting limousine.

Present Arms
As the general reached the exit a police sergeant barked: "Present arms."

The policemen dutifully held up their night sticks.

The Republicans are taking extra precautions against gate-crashers after discovering that someone had broken the paper seals pasted across the exit doors at Convention Hall Monday.

Doors Sealed
The seals enabled patrolling ushers to tell at a glance whether anyone inside the hall was admitting unauthorized persons through the exit doors. Head usher Andy Frain replaced the seals and hired 30 more ushers.

The Puerto Rican delegation to the Republican Convention drew a big laugh during the roll call vote on delegate contest rules. When the roll reached Puerto Rico, one member of the delegation demanded an individual poll of his delegation. Get Big Laugh states as New York, with 96 delegates, and California with 70, roared with laughter. Puerto has three delegates.
Conventioners from such big

English Scientist Supports 'Saucers'

Los Angeles—(U.P.)—Scientist Arthur C. Clarke, one of England's leading authorities on space travel, believes flying saucers are more than mirages or myths.

The former Royal Air Force flight officer said he based his belief on new data on saucers supplied him by scientists at the United States' rocket testing base at White Sands, N.M.

Clarke, who arrived here Sunday from White Sands, said he was "beginning to think there's more to the flying saucer mystery than just a mirage."

He was ready to guarantee the disks are real, but said "a noted American scientist told me at White Sands that he is certain he has seen one."
