Pickin' Pears News, Gossip, Comment From Camp White

By SID HOLLINGSWORTH

Vacation plans are in order among the personnel. Staff officials will start the parade this week.

R. H. Ruffin, domiciliary officer will leave the 12th for two weeks in Southern California and Mexico where he hopes to do some fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Keener and their four children are home from a visit to Omaha, Neb. Roberta Keener is one of the staff nurses.

Edward E. Sagen, Home member, has two brothers, Chris and Nels. Several years separate their actual natal day, but they celebrate their birthday on July 19, all three having been born on this date.

The Rev. G. Herbert Hiller, new pastor of Zion Lutheran church, Medford, who spent 10 years in Alaska, gave an illustrated talk to domiciliary members Sunday evening, descriptive of conditions in the territory today.

Military men are inveterate students of matters theological. Literature on the subject is always poured over whether on the battlefield, in camp, in hospitals or on ships at sea. War, it seems, has a tendency to provoke a desire to reform mankind by the process of religious truth.

According to the best accounts the most striking example of reform in a soldier trained under orders to do violence to the sect of early Christians was the conversion of St. Paul, a Roman man soldier first and then a leader of the disorganized followers of Christ.

And with time for meditation after the conflict is over the men of the domiciliary who have experienced in their lifetime much of the bitter taste of war, have an opportunity to read their religious literature in peace. A survey of the published material available at the offices of both the Protestant and Catholic chaplains which is widely read by the veterans of the home has been made.

Here is a list of the religious publications received and read at Camp White:

Protestant: American Lutheran, Christian Digest, Crusader, Christian Standard, Guide Posts, Herald of Holiness, Christian Advocate, Christian Century, Free Methodist, Gideon, Look-out, The Lutheran, Lutheran Herald, Lutheran Standard, Lutheran Witness, National Lutheran, The Upper Room, Watchman Examiner, Missions, The Pulpit, Signs of the Times, Weekly Unity, World Call, You, Secret Place, National Jewish Monthly, Baptist Leader, Christian Herald, Daily Word, Link, Home Life, King's Business, Christian Science Journal, Sentinel, Quarterly, Monitor, American Bible Society Record, and devotional tracts.

Catholic: America, Catholic Digest, Catholic World, Christopher, New Notes (Columbia), Echo from Africa, Messenger of the Sacred Heart, Maryknoll, The Register, Our Sunday Visitor, St. Joseph, Catholic Hour, The Far East, Holy Name Journal, The Military Chaplain, The Parish Visitor, The Sign, The Trumpet Call.

Crop-Dusting Pilot Killed in Washington

Centralia — (U.P.) — A 31-year-old Puyallup, Wash., flier was instantly killed early Tuesday when his crop-dusting plane crashed in a field three miles north of here.

The victim was James B. Sagmiller, 31.

Harry Pratley, whose pea field Sagmiller was dusting, saw the crash. He said the plane went under a power line after completing a run and hit a telephone wire. The pilot then pulled up the plane sharply. It stalled and then crashed.

Leading Candidates All Hopeful As Convention Enters Second Day

Chicago — (U.P.) — Here's what the leading candidates were doing and saying as the Republican National Convention went into its second day:

TAFT — The "hard core" of 548 delegates who voted for his side in Monday's rules change test shows that he is within 56 votes of the majority needed for nomination, and "practically guarantees" his victory.

EISENHOWER — The rules change vote shows that "the Republican party will deserve to win the White House in November."

WARREN — More optimistic about his chances for being picked as a compromise candidate in event of a Taft-Eisenhower deadlock; "no deals" with either leader.

STASSEN — Fighting to head off a move by Minnesota delegates to desert him on or after the first ballot in favor of Eisenhower.

The only French possession on the mainland of North or South America, French Guiana, is also France's oldest colonial outpost.

About one of every five automobiles in use today has more than 80,000 miles on its speedometer.
