

Shantz Shines in All-Star Tiff; National Leaguers Gain 3-2 Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
Philadelphia — (U.P.) — A soft-spoken pipsqueak — who threw only 13 pitches for the losing side — drew the loudest cheers Wednesday from the triumphant National League all-stars.

Southpaw Bobby Shantz appeared only briefly on Shibe Park's rain-soaked scene Tuesday and even though he toiled for the losing American leaguers, he was by far the outstanding figure in the 3-2 game.

Relieving losing pitcher Bob Lemon in the top of the fifth, the five-foot, seven-inch, 145-pound Shantz flashed his fast ball through the downpour to strike out Whitey Lockman, 307, Jackie Robinson 315 and Stan Musial 333 in swift succession.

Durocher Praises
"The kid is a wonder," marveled Leo Durocher, who piloted the National leaguers to their third straight triumph. "If that's the kind of stuff he throws, I'm glad we didn't have to face him anymore."

The three top hitters Shantz struck out were equally impressed.

"I can see why he has that 14-3 record," declared Robinson, whose first-inning homer off starter Vic Raschi gave the National league a 1-0 lead. "He threw me three curves and two change-ups. And if he had thrown me his fast curve sooner, I'd have struck out sooner."

Big Assortment
Musial, the only batter to hit so much as a foul off Shantz, said the mighty mite of the Athletics had "a tremendous assortment."

"He keeps you off stride all the time," Musial added. "I didn't think that third strike was over the plate but it was a good fast ball."

Lockman paid particular praise to Shantz' control. "He's really got it, no question about that," said the Giant first sacker.

Shantz, himself, said he wasn't concentrating on striking anyone out.

No Record Sought
"I merely was trying to get them to hit the first pitch," he declared. "I wasn't after any strikeout records."

Had Shantz started the game, the outcome might have been different, the National Leaguers generally agreed.

As it was, the American league took a temporary lead when Minnie Minoso doubled. Al Rosen walked and Eddie Robinson and Bobby Avila each singled off winning pitcher Bob Rush in the fourth, but the National league retaliated with two runs in their half of the inning when Lemon hit Musial with a pitch and then yielded a home run to Hank Sauer.

Entirely in Rain
A capacity crowd of 32,785 fretted impatiently for 56 minutes before the umpires decided to call the game on account of rain in the top of the sixth inning. It marked the first time in all-star history that a contest had been played entirely in the rain and then called.

Sharing pitching honors with Shantz was another left-hander, ex-G.I. Curt Simmons of the Phils, who opened for the National league after the start of the game had been held up for 22 minutes.

Simmons Zips
After walking leadoff hitter Dom DiMaggio, Simmons blazed a third strike past Hank Bauer and Dale Mitchell, then induced Al Rosen to ground out. Simmons zipped through the American league lineup in the second, striking out Robinson and yielding his only hit.

Pilney Sets Pace in Publix Meet

Miami, Fla. — (U.P.) — Ex-football star Andy Pilney headed the survivors Wednesday in the third round of the National Public Links golf tournament.

Pilney, former backfield ace at Notre Dame, posted one of the most top-sided scores of the tournament Tuesday as he whipped Gus Tamburino, Chicago, 8 and 7, in the second round.

In Wednesday morning's third round, Pilney was matched against Matt Carvey, Harvey, Ill.

In another feature third round matches, Defending Champion Dave Stanley, Los Angeles faced Robert J. Scherer, Decatur, Ill.

double by DiMaggio—in the third.

Outside of the homers by Robinson and Sauer, the only other National league hit was a double down the right field foul line by Enos Country Slaughter in the fourth.

The American leaguers, led by Casey Stengel who suffered through his third straight setback as an all-star manager, collected five hits, three of which came in the fourth.

Talent topped Jacksonville 16 to 10 and Ashland nipped Eagle Point 7 to 6 Tuesday in Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league club encounters.

Phoenix downed Medford 8 to 3 Monday in a pee wee game.

The first half point of loop play has passed but postponed hassles have muddled the leadership picture. Among the pee wees Ashland is on top with five wins and a loss and one tie to make up. Grants Pass has four wins and a defeat and two first half games to make up.

Postponements have caused even more trouble among the clubs with several teams yet in the running for top spot.

A meeting has been set for Friday evening at Central Point to determine which contests should be made up and which should be forfeited.

Star Ruckus Goes in Book As Muddiest

By UNITED PRESS
The rejuvenated Yakima Bears, riding the crest of a winning streak which has produced 15 Western International league victories in 17 games, are raising havoc with the first-place Victoria Tyees.

The Bears humbled the Tyees, 18-3, to climb into sixth place Tuesday, only one game away from the first division.

The winners' 19-hit attack produced 14 runs before Victoria tallied three runs in the eighth on Lou Brannham's homer.

Elsewhere, Spokane dumped Tri-City, 7-5, Vancouver swamped Wenatchee, 19-5, and Lewiston tripped Salem, 7-5.

Bouchee Homers
Spokane's victory came on the strength of two homers by Rookie Ed Bouchee. The Indian first-sacker also singled and drew two walks to help Pitcher Dick Bishop to the win.

Jake Helmutz's third-inning homer gave Lewiston a lead the Broncos never gave up. Salem Manager Hugh Luby protested the game when Solon Bill White and Lewiston's Jim Robinson exchanged blows as the result of a tripping incident on the basepaths. White was waved to the bench, but Robinson was allowed to stay in the game.

Tom Lovrich, 23-year-old former University of Southern California star on option from Seattle, made his professional debut as Vancouver rolled over Wenatchee. Lovrich gave up 10 hits, struck out six and walked four.

Brinkopf Homers Angels To 6-3 Decision Over Suds

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Leon Brinkopf, the most valuable player on the Los Angeles team in 1951, looked Wednesday like a sure bet to win the honor again this season.

The Angel third sacker, whose fine fielding, 25 home runs and 93 RBIs won him a shot with the Chicago Cubs in the spring, is one of those players who apparently is too good for the PCL but just a flea bite away from the majors.

Brinkopf trailed Seattle's Jim Rivera last season in the race for the Coast league's most valuable player award.

The 30-year-old right-hander started slowly when he rejoined Los Angeles two months ago. But he is picking up fast.

Drives in All Runs
Brinkopf boomed out his 11th and 12th homers of the season Tuesday night, batting home all six Los Angeles runs as the Angels downed Seattle, 6-3. His second of two three-run homers came off Paul Calvert in the ninth with the score tied, 3-3.

Hollywood's Carlos Bernier, a good bet to be the 1952 player of the year if the Stars win the pennant, stole his 42nd base and doubled home two runs in his mates' 7-1 win from Sacramento. Johnny Lindell, the loop's winningest pitcher, twirled a six-hitter for the win—his 13th. The victory moved Hollywood to within half-a-game of the idle Oakland A's PCL lead.

San Francisco got out of the cellar with a 3-2 win from San Diego. Portland at Oakland did not play and will make up the game Friday night.

Three Teams Knotted In Softball League

Eagle Point will face Central Point at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in a Medford Softball association girls' game at the senior high field. The Crater Lions meet Eagle Point in a 8 p.m. engagement in men's play.

YMCA was knocked out of league leadership and a three-way tie created for the top spot in Medford Softball association men's action Tuesday night.

Camp White took over one of the first place positions by topping YMCA 10 to 7 and Central Point also shared the spot after whacking Trowbridge and Flynn 15 to 4. Central Point, Camp White and Mobilgas now have records of three wins and one loss.

The Y, which had its first setback last night, is next with two wins and a defeat.

Tight Scrap
Camp White's scrap with the Y was a tight one most of the way. The count was deadlocked at 6 to 6 after four innings. YMCA took a 7 to 6 lead in the fifth frame. But Camp White came back with three runs in the same stanza to go on top 9 to 7. CW got another run in the sixth. Don Mintz homered for the Y.

Central Point got five runs in the second and six in the sixth in its game. Lee Flink and Vern Collins combined in a two-hit performance with a total of 15 strikeouts and Jack Daugherty homered.

The largest crowd of the season was on hand last night.

Edean Anderson Heads Field in NW Golf Tussle

Tacoma — (U.P.) — Smooth-stroking Edean Anderson of Helena, Mont., led a field of 16 into the second round of women's match play Wednesday in the Pacific Northwest Golf association's amateur tournament.

Miss Anderson, defending champion and this year's medalist, beat out Mrs. Les Von Reichbauer, Tacoma, 5 and 4, on Tacoma's Fircrest course. The Montana sharp-shooter, whose 74 in Monday's qualifying round shaved four strokes off the women's course record, appeared the one to beat.

Givan Medalist
Harry Givan, Seattle, posted a sizzling 138 to take medalist honors in two days of men's qualifying play at the Tacoma Country and Golf club. Second was Dick Yost, Portland, who led Monday's finishers but slipped to a 76 Tuesday for a 144 total.

Bruce Cudd, Portland, was third with 146. Defending Champion Jack Westland, Everett, qualified but was far back in the medal ranks with 150.

Other men qualifiers included George Beecher, Ontario, Ore.; Bob Atkinson, Portland, and W. Blakley, Portland.

Legion Nine Sets Klamath Tangles

The Medford American Legion junior baseball club will take on Klamath Falls in a double bill on Sunday, July 13, at Gems park in Klamath Falls.

Klamath's Cokes beat Medford twice in an earlier series here and Medford needs to take both frays this time to stay in the running for the district title.

Only Klamath and Medford are now left in the district. Lakeview, which has trouble finding a nine, has dropped out. Series slated.

If the Medfordites can win twice this week-end, the title will be decided the following week-end in a three-game series at Klamath. Those three games, however, are planned regardless of the outcome of this week's struggles.

The juniors have shown considerable improvement since last facing Klamath and backers feel that they have a fine chance this week-end of knocking the standings.

Links Two-Ball Slated Friday

A mixed two-ball golf four some meet is planned at Rogue Valley Country club on Friday, July 18, from 4 to 6 p.m. It is one of a number of the season series in competition for the Winetrot trophy.

FIGHT EYED

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — Promoter Herman Taylor disclosed Wednesday he planned to stage a middleweight title fight between Sugar Ray Robinson and Kid Gavilan at Municipal Stadium in September. "I'll do it if I can make the match," he said. "They should outdraw Monday's fight."

TOURNEY STARTS

St. Paul — (U.P.) — The $15,000 St. Paul Open gets underway at Keller Course Thursday with the brightest array of talent ever assembled for the 19-year-old golf classic. The 72-hole medal tournament grinds through four days, ending Sunday.

Fat-tailed sheep are raised throughout the Near East, but not only for wool, meat, and milk. Their tails, which weigh up to 35 pounds, yield a fat prized in making pastry. In times of drought, the fat stored in the tails serves as a reserve supply of nourishment for the animal.

Bears Blast Tyees Again In WIL Race

Philadelphia — (U.P.) — It may not have been the most exciting of the 19 All-Star games, but it certainly was the muddiest.

A steady downpour, which made a bog of the diamond, curtailed the classic for the first time since its inception, brought some hardly-justified boos upon the head of Phil Rizzuto, nearly made a goat of Jackie Robinson, and cheated several newcomers from their first chance to appear in the game.

Umpire Al Barlick said the playing conditions were just about the worst in which he had ever officiated. By the time the game was called after five innings, with the National league ahead, 3 to 2, many of the rain-soaked players and fans were just as happy.

Rizzuto Slips
Rizzuto drew some catcalls in the fourth inning when he grounded into an inning-ending double play. Many thought he had been loafing on his way to first base. He was thrown out by a wide margin, despite an errant relay from Jackie Robinson. The hooters, it appeared, had been watching the ball and never saw Rizzuto slip in the sloppy going after hitting the ball.

Robinson also slipped while going after a ground-ball single by Eddie Robinson of the White Sox in the midst of the American Leaguers' two-run scoring spree in the top of the fourth.

Causes Noted
Philadelphia — (U.P.) — What beat the American league for the third straight time in the All-Star game?

"The rain," said Casey Stengel, manager of the vanquished Americans.

"Home runs," said Leo Durocher, manager of the victorious Nationals.

Each made his case.

Still Had Chance
Said "Stengel: "At the time they stopped it, we still had a chance to come back and win. It was slippery around home plate. Three or four of our batters almost fell down. They couldn't get off to a start when they hit the ball."

Said Durocher, with brassy sarcasm: "I did a helluva managing job, didn't I? All I had to do is stand in the third base coaching box and shake hands with the home run hitters as they went by."

Figures show that more than 50 per cent of the revenue of Canadian hotels comes from the sale of beer, wine and liquor, more than 23 per cent from room rents and slightly more than 18 per cent from the sale of meals.

Neale Notches Second Triumph In Net Tourney

Portland — (U.P.) — Jerry De Witts of Oakland, Calif., topped entry in the Oregon State Tennis tourney, was due for his first taste of action on the courts Wednesday, facing Harvey King.

Tuesday's torrid weather failed to dim the hopes of any of the favorites in singles play. Portland's two title hopefuls, defending champ Emery Neale and Jim Brink, both notched their second tourney wins. Brink trailed Jerry Doyle, also of Portland, 5-4 in the first set before taking command running up a 7-5, 6-3 decision over Doyle.

Neale defeated Willard Gish 6-3, 6-0.

Rose Victor
Bill Rose, now a University of Oregon netter, triumphed in straight sets over Jim Flynn, No. 1 man on the University of Portland net squad, 6-3, 7-5. Jack Neer, another Webfoot netman, won by default yesterday.

Woman's division results placed Barbara Lum, Oswego high school dean of women, and Elizabeth Loock of San Francisco in the role of favorites. Miss Lum measured Bonnie Brown of Eugene, 6-1, 6-0, and Mrs. Loock tripped 16-year-old Caroline Craig of Portland 6-2, 6-0.

Top ranked Herschel Hyde, Jr., of Berkeley advanced with an easy 6-0, 6-1 nod over Tacoma's David Kelley in the junior men's singles. Hyde also won from Neil George of Eugene 6-4, 6-1, in men's play.
