Business Retirement — Vince and Carl Theiss have retired from the assumed business name of Theiss Brothers Logging company, according to records in the county clerk's office.

Visiting Here — Lura Dinkens, Mrs. Fred Sander, route one, box 208, Medford, is expected to be here for about 10 days.

Camp White Party — A birthday party will be held tonight at the Camp White domiciliary, sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary. Eve Prentice's accordion band will play for the party by request of patients at the domiciliary.

At Family Reunion — R. M. Johnson, and daughter, Janet, 325 Vancouver avenue, are attending a reunion of the Johnson family at Yellowstone National park this week. After spending a week with his sisters and brothers, Johnson and his daughter will return to Medford.

Back From Trip — Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Smith, 27 Crater Lake avenue, arrived home last weekend after spending a month traveling in the east. They visited relatives in Illinois and spent some time in Mansfield, Ohio and Detroit, Mich. While in Michigan they visited the resort area in the southern part of the state.

With Radio Star — Harry Marshall, of Packard Sales and Service, left Tuesday night to drive to Fresno, Calif., where he will meet Stuart Hamblen, radio star. The two men will spend the rest of the week on a hunting trip for cougar and bear in the Huntington lake area. Hamblen is running for president on the Prohibition party ticket.

To Build — Jorgen Jorgensen has received a $500 building permit for construction of a bath house, deck and covered patio at 1913 Hillcrest road and the Disabled American Veterans have obtained a $200 permit for remodeling of the DAV club room at 1515 North Riverside avenue, according to records in the city building department.

Relatives To Arrive — Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hon, 213 Crater Lake avenue, will entertain their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wymore and children, Dorothy and Rickey, Portland, when they arrive in Medford Thursday. Mr. Wymore will return to Portland Sunday, but the best of his family will remain at the Hon home for the rest of the month. The Wymores have been spending the first part of this week at the coast.

Former Resident Here — A former Medford resident, Bill Barnum, now of San Francisco, was in Medford and at Lake of the Woods last weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnum of Carlton Nursery. With him on the trip was Gus Farnsworth, San Francisco.

To Attend Funeral — The Rev. and Mrs. Shelby Anglemeyer, and daughters, Cathryn and Charlotte, will leave Thursday to attend funeral services at Pomona, Calif., for the Anglemeyers' nephew, Fred W. Ross, who died Monday. Mr. Anglemeyer will officiate at the services.

Democrats Scoff At GOP Keynote

Washington — (U.P.) — Candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination added their bit to the Republican National Convention hullabaloo today by scoffing at Gen. Douglas MacArthur's keynote address as "meaningless oratory" and "empty promises."

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee charged that MacArthur made "a political football" out of U. S. foreign policy. Averill Harriman said the general's speech was filled with "self contradictions."

Sen. Richard B. Russell didn't join his rivals in deriding MacArthur. The Georgian predicted he will receive 300 votes on the first ballot at the Democratic National Convention which opens in Chicago July 21.

Rites for Ransdell In Ashland Thursday

Ashland — Funeral services for Marshall Emmett Ransdell will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Litzwiler funeral home chapel with American Legion Post 14 in charge. Interment will follow at the Camp White Veterans cemetery. Mr. Ransdell, who resided at 519 Siskiyou boulevard, died Monday.

Born September 5, 1891 in Norfolk, Neb., Mr. Ransdell served with the old Oregon Third company on the Mexican border during World War I and later was with Company G, 162nd Infantry. He came to Ashland five years ago after having served at the Umatilla Ordnance depot as a patrolman after the Pearl Harbor attack.

Besides his wife, Lottie, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Keith D. Axline, who with her small son Roger Marshall, arrived by plane from Seattle on Monday; one sister, Louise Rhine, Pendleton, and a brother, Sam Ransdell, Portland.

State Department Man Visiting in Ashland

Ashland — Harry Ramsey, who has been first secretary to one of 12 United States career diplomats in Bonn, Germany, the past two years, is in Ashland now visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ramsey. Ramsey will visit with his parents for several weeks before returning to Washington, D.C., to enter the National War college. He was one of 12 American career diplomats selected to attend the college.

He has been with the state department 12 years and has served 11 years in foreign countries. Ramsey has been with the diplomatic corps in Germany, South America, Spain and Poland.

The United States is the world's largest coffee consumer, both in volume and per capita consumption.

Wall Street

New York — (U.P.) — Concrete evidence of the erosion of the economy by the steel strike unsettled the market Wednesday after a rally had lifted the industrial average to within less than a point of its 1952 high.

Iron Age reported that the sixth week of the strike finds industry gasping for breath — with "no hope of early release from the steel vacuum."

Chrysler stock lost more than a point and adversely affected other auto issues.

Oil issues, bulwark of the market early fell from their highs and some recorded losses.

Dow Jones closing stock averages: 30 industrials 107.25, off 1.18; 20 railroads 100.77, off 0.65; 15 utilities 49.52, off 0.19; 65 stocks 105.22 off 0.52.

Sales Wednesday were 1,120,000 shares.

Ashland Hospital Men To Request $233,000

Ashland — The board of directors of the Valley View hospital district are expected to request $233,000 in Portland today when they go before the state hospital advisory committee on the question of federal financing of a new hospital.

The directors will meet Friday with the state board of health. The board of health is the recommending body and federal aid will be contingent on that body's decision.

Specifications for the new hospital have not yet been drawn. Indications last week were that the hospital would cost between $560,000 and $770,000 at the most.

Well-Known Druggist Moving to California

Fletcher Stout, a druggist in Medford for 35 years, will leave here Thursday to enter the drug business in San Diego, he announced today.

Stout has been employed at Central Drugs, Main and Central. As yet no one has been hired to replace him, he said.

Stout lived at route 2, box 404, with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Niedermeyer.

Russ Press Claims Taft, Ike Stoozes

Moscow — (U.P.) — The Soviet press, in its first comment on the Republican National Convention, said Wednesday Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft are stoozes of financial interest.

Comment came in a prominently displayed Tass dispatch from Chicago, which pictured the convention delegates as voiceless puppets of machine bosses.
