The Rev. Earling Hofseth, Yreka, Calif., minister, will be speaker on Saturday, July 12, at a Rogue Valley Youth for Christ rally at First Baptist church here. The service will commence at 8 p.m.

Pastor of a Yreka church, the young evangelist has been doing outstanding work with young people as well as older persons, YFC leaders here reported. He has been active in YFC work and has many speaking engagements, it was said.

There will be a special musical program of solos and duets.

When building a new kitchen or remodeling an old one, look carefully into the psychology of color. Experts recommend the wide range of pastels in clay tile for all kitchen surfaces, because these tints do not become tiresome and have the added advantage of reflecting light.

To save space—and for a non-skid surface—sheer off one side of a watermelon before storing in your automatic gas refrigerator.
