

Miss Mary Ann Brill Honor Guest at Party; Wedding Held Saturday

Shady Cove-Trail—Mrs. Randall Axtell, Trail, and Mrs. Ray Briggs, Shady Cove, were hostesses Monday for a bridal shower which honored Miss Mary Ann Brill. The party was given at Folding Hills ranch, the Axtell home.

The marriage of Miss Brill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Brill, Trail, to Robert Edminster of Merced, Calif., was set for Saturday evening at First Presbyterian church, Medford.

The centerpiece decoration for the table was a bride and groom cake made by Mrs. Frank Dolenshek, Trail, and a handmade lace tablecloth was loaned for the occasion by Mrs. Carl Richardson, Trail.

Games were played with prize for high score being won by Mrs. Walter Young, Eagle Point. Guests were Mesdames Scott Brill, mother of the bride; Norman Smedes Jr., Ralph Norning, Harold Barber, Frank Dolenshek, J. H. Mallery, Lee Merriam, Wilmer Ragsdale, Ralph Watson, Dean Tate, Bob Chamberlain, Wyles Berry, Allen Rodgers all of Trail; Glenn Nelson, Ashland; Wallace Brill, James K. Hoey and James K. Hoey Jr., all of Medford; Tom Shearin and Walter Young, Eagle Point; George De Gregori, Castro Valley, Calif., sister of the bride; and Carroll Watson, Shady Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darrell Phillips are shown following their wedding at First Baptist church June 29. The bride is the former Miss June Maureen Darby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Darby, 1140 Sweet road, and Mr. Phillips' parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips, 1597 South Peach street. (Brainard photo).

First Baptist Church Scene Of Phillips-Darby Ceremony

Miss June Maureen Darby became the bride of Fred Darrell Phillips in a double-ring candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. W. A. Dawes at First Baptist church June 29. Baskets of pink and white stock, arranged with fern, decorated the church. Three hundred guests attended.

The afternoon wedding took place on the 28th wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Phillips, 1597 South Peach street. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Scott Darby, 1140 Sweet road.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed in lace and fashioned with a train. Her veil was finger-tip length, and she carried a bouquet of light pink gladioli.

Miss Lois Zimmers, maid of honor, wore a yellow gown. Miss Janet Coyle and Miss Marie Pierce, bridesmaids, were gowned in blue and pink. All carried white daisies and pink carnations.

Don Chapman acted as best man for the bridegroom, and ushers were Dick Phillips, Gordon Conrad, Milton Hanson, Forest Jackson, and Kenton Adams. Susan Diane Fraley, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of green organza and carried a basket of rose petals. Candle lighters were Miss Sharon Fraley and Miss Loretta Darby.

Music for the ceremony was furnished by J. Robert Cochran, who sang. Accompanying him was Mrs. Ted Graham, who also played several organ selections.

About 200 guests were present at the reception which took place at the church after the wedding. Mrs. Dick Fraley cut the cake and Miss Margaret Huson and Miss Marie Laird served punch. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Jack Phillips.

The couple are now living on Oak Grove road after a wedding trip to Gold Beach and other points along the Oregon coast. Both are graduates of Medford High school, and the bridegroom is employed by California-Oregon Power company.

Luncheon Announced For Gleaners' Class

The Gleaners' class of First Baptist church will have a potluck luncheon at 12 noon Wednesday, July 16, at the home of Mrs. Ethel Van Cleaves.

Annual Session National Rotana To Be Held Here

Rotana club, classified service club for women in business and the professions, will hold the annual convention in Medford next week-end. The sessions open July 18 and will close July 20, with headquarters at the Jackson hotel.

Miss Helen McQuarrie, Bozeman, Mont., is national president of the organization. She will arrive in Medford Thursday to aid local officers with last-minute convention plans.

Saturday night a banquet will be held in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel, and the convention will close Sunday noon with a party at Mon Desir inn near Central Point.

Outdoor Meeting Planned by Club

Mrs. Florence Lance will conduct her first meeting as new president of Medford Business and Professional Women's club when the group meets for a picnic in TouVelle park at 6 o'clock Thursday, July 17.

Each member is asked to take one special dish, bread and butter or sandwiches, if desired, and table service for herself and guest. Ice cream and coffee will be provided by the club.

"The Ramparts We Build" is to be this year's BPW club theme, and Miss Dana Platz, program co-ordinator, has stated that the program for the year will be outlined at the August meeting, after program chairmen are consulted.

Mrs. Wayne Barnhouse and son, Danny, of Great Falls, Mont., are in Medford as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Landis, 1133 Dakota avenue, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Barnhouse.

Miss Rogers Wed In Private Corder To Church Rites

At First Methodist church Thursday, July 3, Miss Peggy Mae Rogers became the bride of Pvt. John W. Corder, United States Army. The evening ceremony was read by the Rev. Hardwick Harshamn.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lucero, Central Point, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Corder, live in Parma, Ida.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white net and applied lace, ballerina length gown. A seed pearl crown held her short net veil, and her flowers were red roses on a Bible.

The maid of honor, Miss Carol Rector, wore a pale green ankle length dress with a headband of yellow and white flowers and a nosegay to match. Bridesmaids Miss Patty Perry and Miss Anise Hobbs wore costumes similar to that of the maid of honor, and carried yellow and white nosegays.

George Arnold was best man at the wedding, and ushers were Norman Abbot, brother in law of the bridegroom, Parma, Ida., and John Heberling and Peter Thompson. Mrs. Charles R. Adamson furnished organ music for the ceremony.

About 50 guests attended the reception at the bride's home following the wedding. The mother of the bride cut the cake and Mrs. Mel Adams, Central Point, poured. Mrs. Norman Abbot, Parma, sister of the bridegroom, attended the guest book.
