They added that she had apparently drunk too much ice tea before exposure to the sun. She collapsed at the corner of Fourth and Oakdale avenues. Her condition was termed "all right" and she was expected to be released by Saturday evening.

A. G. ANDERSON
New Safeway Manager

Safeway Stores' New Manager Here

A. G. Anderson, who entered the Safeway organization as a food clerk in the Medford store in 1927, has been announced as the new Medford district manager for Safeway. In this position he is in charge of the stores in Lakeview, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, Roseburg, Coquille, Myrtle Point, Coos Bay, North Bend and Medford.

Anderson has been in Portland as a supervisor for Safeway since 1936. He became a district manager there in 1941. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will live at the Plaza apartment, 235 South Oakdale avenue, but he expects to be traveling much of the time. Mrs. Anderson is the former Adelaide Turnquist, a Medford girl.

Anderson became district manager here July 1, replacing Harold Johnson, who was transferred to Salem. This is his second local managership; in 1929 he was named manager of the Medford Westside store. He said he was glad to be back in Medford, his "home town." Anderson is a member of the Elks and Masons in Portland and hopes to have his memberships transferred here.

Tonsillectomies — Tonsillectomy patients Saturday at Osteopathic hospital included Richard Tidmond, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Tidmond, route two, box 748, Central Point; Cheri Linn Brownell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brownell, 1102 North Riverside avenue, Medford; and Mrs. Gladys Sease, 1207 Peckerwood avenue, Grants Pass.

Registrations Open For Boy Scout Camp

Registrations for the Boy Scout camp at Lake o' Woods are still being accepted, it was announced yesterday from Scout headquarters. There are openings for the fourth, fifth and sixth weeks (July 20 through August 10) at Camp McLoughlin, it was reported.

Each Sunday a new group of boys goes to the camp and most of those there the week before return. Today, 123 boys are scheduled to leave for the camp. The number now at the camp is still not definitely known at Scout headquarters, but camp directors say there are more there now than there ever have been at one time before. There are at least 22 staff members there during each of the six weeks the camp is open.
