

Presbyterian Church Scene Of Edminster-Brill Rites

Miss Mary Ann Brill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott E. Brill, Trail, became the bride of Robert Edminster, Merced, Calif., in an evening wedding July 12.

The Rev. D. Kirkland West performed the double-ring ceremony at First Presbyterian church, Medford. Baskets of gladiolus, and white flower bows attached to the pews decorated the church.

The bride's gown was of organdy imported from Switzerland, and styled in ankle length with a high neck and tiered skirt trimmed with lace. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a Juliet cap purchased in Belgium by the bride on her tour of the continent last summer. Fingerless organdy and lace gloves completed the costume. She carried an orchid and stephanotis bouquet.

Mrs. George De Gregori, sister of the bride from Castro Valley, Calif., was matron of honor for the wedding. Bridesmaids and brides matron were Miss Susan Brill and Miss Dorothy Polley, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. John Quackenbush, Burlingame, Calif. They wore ballerina length taffeta and net gowns of pastel shades, and their nosegays were of varied colored flowers.

The bride's father gave her in marriage, and best man for the ceremony was Robert Dutton, San Francisco, Calif. George De Gregori, brother-in-law of the bride, and John Quackenbush were ushers. Candelights, Miss Judy Brill, the bride's cousin, and Miss Phyllis Briggs, were pastel green taffeta dresses trimmed with lace. Sheri Watson, Shady Cove, was flower girl. She wore a pastel pink taffeta and white net frock.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Sally Edminster, Livingston, Calif., sang for the ceremony, accompanied on the organ by Miss Priscilla West.

The reception was held at the Brill home following the wedding, with about 80 guests present. Mrs. Louis Polley, Tacoma, Wash., aunt of the bride, cut the cake, and another aunt, Mrs. James K. Hoey, poured. The bride's cousin, Miss Janice Piersall, San Diego, Calif., served punch and Mrs. James K. Hoey Jr., was in charge of the guest book.

During the reception Miss Sally Edminster caught the bride's bouquet. The house was lighted by tapers and the decorations were ester reed daisies and sword fern.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. William Piersall and son, Robert, San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. George Larson, Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Polley and daughter, Dorothy, Tacoma; and the bridegroom's three sisters, Miss Sally Edminster, Miss Adelia Edminster, Turlock, Calif., and Mrs. Donna Antonini and family, Stockton, Calif.

The newlyweds traveled to Sun Valley, Ida., after the wedding, and will remain there for the summer. Next fall they will make their home in Merced, Calif., where the bridegroom is employed as an athletic coach at the high school. The couple graduated from San Jose State college, and the bride is a graduate of Medford High school. She is a recreation technician for the Veterans' administration at Palo Alto.

Two Hostesses Give Shower and Party For Medford Visitor

Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Mrs. Randy Huggdahl were hostesses July 11 at the Huggdahl home, 2230 Canal street, for a shower honoring Mrs. Robert Brewer, Madras, Ore.

Games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Jesse Lang, Mrs. Robert Brewer, Mrs. Howard Glascock, and Miss Donna Hussong. The gifts were then presented to the honor guest, and refreshments served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Carl Pearson.

Guests attending the shower were Mrs. Earl Scriptor, Mrs. Frank Hussong, Mrs. Carl Pearson, Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mrs. Dee Parker, Mrs. Blaine Shirley, Mrs. Michael Beck, Mrs. Howard Glascock, Mrs. Jesse Lang, Mrs. Nora Glascock, Mrs. James Pearson, Mrs. Dean Eppinger, Mrs. Sharon Lang, Miss Donna Hussong and Miss Carol Hussong.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer are spending the summer here with relatives while Mr. Brewer attends summer school at Southern Oregon college. He is a band director at Madras.

Picnic Planned

Jacksonville—Jacksonville Masonic Warren lodge, Royal Arch lodge, and Adarell chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will hold a picnic at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, July 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Abbott, on Lake Creek. Lodges will furnish the drinks, rolls and butter, and the ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edminster, married July 12 in First Presbyterian church, will live in Merced, Calif. Before her marriage the bride was Miss Mary Ann Brill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott E. Brill, Trail. The bridegroom is athletic coach at the Merced High school.

(Brainerd Studio)

Lodge Officers Installed In Ceremonies Tuesday

Olive Rebekah lodge and Medford Odd Fellows lodge held joint installation of officers at Odd Fellows hall, Tuesday evening, July 15.

Officers were installed by District Deputy Grand Master Carl Black, Jacksonville, and Mrs. Frank Heller, deputy president of Olive Rebekah lodge.

They were assisted by a team from Jacksonville which included Mr. and Mrs. John Black, grand marshals; Mrs. Peter Fick and Claude Perry, grand wardens; Mrs. Margaret Hawkins and Clair Ewart, grand secretaries; Mrs. Francis Brisbane and Albert Hackert, grand treasurers; Mrs. P. E. Matheny and Francis Brisbane, grand inside guards; Mrs. A. W. Hackert and Irwin Boyd, grand outside guards; Mrs. Betty Matheny and Charles Hawkins, grand chaplains, and Miss Anita Heckert musician.

New Olive Rebekah officers are Mrs. Donald Ivie, noble grand; Mrs. O. S. Walden, right supporter to noble grand; Mrs. John Daniels, left supporter; Mrs. Fred Daugherty, recording secretary; Mrs. L. O. Howard, treasurer; Mrs. Claud Cooper, chaplain; Mrs. Sara Tolle, musician; Mrs. Oliver Rogers, vice grand; Mrs. Minnie Bryant, right supporter to vice grand; Mrs. Margaret Davis, left supporter; Mrs. Earl Williams, conductor; Mrs. Elsie Lewis, warden; Mrs. Fred H. Baker, flag bearer; Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, past noble grand; Mrs. P. M. Aldredge, inside guard; and Mrs. Dollie Love, outside guard.

Odd Fellows' new officers are Walter Craig, noble grand; Fred Daugherty, right supporter to noble grand; L. O. Howard, left supporter; George Swingle, warden; Arthur Scarseth, conductor; A. J. Hanby, chaplain; Don Piatt, musician; John Daniels, recording secretary; E. D. Perkins, treasurer; W. H. Dyer, vice grand; E. W. Pease, right supporter to vice grand; Frank Heller, left supporter; William Moore, outside guard; Homer Vissant, inside guard; J. Breez, right scene supporter; C. E. Naffziger, left scene supporter, and Frank Heller, past noble grand.

A 50 year jewel was presented to John Hubler, who has been a member 50 years. Mrs. Alfred Schroeder, past noble grand, was given a gift by Mrs. Carrie Milnes, vice president of Past Noble Grand club, and then presented with a pin and invited to join the club. The F. L. club also presented a gift to Mrs. Ivie.

Women of the installing team wore pink and green dresses of old fashioned style in honor of the 100th anniversary of Odd Fellowship in Oregon.

Olive Rebekah lodge will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, July 21 at Odd Fellows hall, 221 West 6th street.

Mrs. Donald Ivie, noble grand, and her new officers will have charge of the meeting. Visiting lodge members are invited.

Pocahontas Lodge Holds Installation At Recent Meeting

Installation of chiefs in the degree of Pocahontas was held at Redman hall, July 11.

Mrs. Louis Thompson, deputy great Incahoney, was the installing chief, and her team was made up of past chiefs of the lodge.

Newly elected chiefs who were installed were Mrs. Noel Erskine, Pocahontas; Mrs. James Grigsby, Wenonah; Mrs. James Wicker, Prophetess; Charles Steele, Powhatan; Mrs. P. M. Aldredge, first scout; Mrs. Carl Ludwig, second scout; Mrs. Roy Stoy, first runner; Mrs. Juanita Barr, second runner; Mrs. Walton Mee, first counselor; Mrs. Charles Steele, second counselor; Donald Ivie, guard of forest; Richard Singler, guard of teepee.

Other chiefs are P. M. Aldredge, first warrior; Roy Stoy, second warrior; Louis Thompson, third warrior; Charles Dooms, fourth warrior; Mrs. Roy Stoy, reporter; Mrs. Sarah Tolle, musician; and Donald Ivie, team captain.

Corsages were presented to the new chiefs by the newly elected Pocahontas.

Medford Student Is Contest Winner

Miss Carla McKeen, who won first place in the annual essay contest of Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, Medford, won second place in the state contest according to an announcement from the auxiliary. Miss McKeen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. McKeen, 25 Wilamette avenue.

Miss McKeen was presented

Sunday, July 20, 1952

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

Cutting the cake at the reception following their wedding June 25 at Shady Cove Assembly of God church, are Mr. and Mrs. William L. Cushman. The bride was Shirley Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Cooper, Trail, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cushman, Trail, are parents of the bridegroom.

(Ellison Studio)

a medal in a ceremony held July 15 during a meeting of the auxiliary at VFW hall. Mr. McKeen accompanied his daughter.

The essay contest, on some phase of Americanism, is held each year in the state with high school seniors participating.

Married

Shady Cove — Miss Barbara Conway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Conway, Shady Cove, and Richard Lee Reedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Reedy, Ashland, were married recently in Crescent City.

The couple is living in Ashland. Mrs. Reedy attended Southern Oregon college in Ashland last year.

It's Cool

All Day At The
Medford Beauty
SCHOOL

Senior Permanent Complete
With Hair Shaping, Shampoo and Style, $5.00 and up
Senior Hair Styles $1.00 up
Plain Shampoo Free With
All Hair Styles

SIXTEEN

Senior Students to Serve You
For Appointment

Phone 2-6536

What is romance...only you heart can tell. What is the loveliness of Romance pattern...only your eyes can know. Pictures do not show the ever-changing play of light on shimmering ribbons of silver...the drama of deep-carved lilies. Let us put Romance pattern itself before your eyes soon.

See it today and 5 other
Inlaid patterns

52-pc. service
for 8
16 teaspoons, 8 knives,
8 forks, 8 soup spoons,
8 solid forks, 2 table-
spoons, 1 butter knife,
1 sugar spoon...all in
handsome tarnish-resist
wood chest.

$7.45

For the Silver
You'll Give With Pride . . . Let Brophy's Be Your Guide!

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century

1 BOTTLES

splash and spray
night and day
with your favorite
Fabergé fragrance

APHRODISIA, WOODHUE, TIGRESS, STRAW HAT, ACT IV

Cologne extraordinaire 2. 3.50 5. 10.

MAIN AND BARTLETT STS.
PHONE 2-6428