

Lodge Men Honored At Auxiliary Dinner; Campaign Announced

The auxiliary to Crater Lake aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held a covered dish dinner at Eagles hall Thursday evening honoring members of the mens' lodge.

Theme of the evening was "sport shirt night," and the women acted as judges. Winners in the judging were Floyd Leith for the best looking shirt, Jack Meacham for the most colorful, and Al Ford for wearing a unique shirt.

During the meeting plans were made for the cross country membership campaign. The "kick-off" will be next Thursday at 8 p.m. with a ball game opening the drive.

Eagle Heights Women Meet in Brownsboro

Eagle Point — Members of Eagle Heights Social club met July 10 for a picnic at the home of Mrs. Joe D. Arnes, Brownsboro.

Adults at the picnic numbered 12 and there were 8 children present. The next meeting of the group will be the first Thursday in August at the home of Mrs. Harry Hanscom, Eagle Point.

Take Vacation

Mrs. Hugh Coleman and daughter, Carol, 1806 East Main street, returned Tuesday from a vacation at Pebble Beach, Calif.

They were registered at Del Monte lodge for a week, and Mrs. Coleman reports "beautiful weather" during their stay.

Miss Centers Wed To Robert Payne In Church Service

Gold Hill — Miss Barbara Jo Ann Centers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Centers, Fourth avenue, became the bride of Pfc. Robert Dallas Payne, United States Army, in a candle-light ceremony held at 8 o'clock Saturday night, July 12, in the parlors of the First Christian church in Grants Pass. The bridegroom is the son of D. W. Payne, Southgate, Calif., and Mrs. Dorothy Page, Vallecito, Calif.

Baskets of gladiolus in mixed colors and white candles were used as decorations for the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. John Cogswell of Gold Hill. The service was read by the Rev. William C. Piper.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a navy blue suit with white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. Miss Lola Jo Taylor, Gold Hill, served as maid of honor, wearing a gray suit with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

William L. Centers, Medford, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with white accessories, and her corsage was of white gardenias. The ceremony was attended by about 18 friends and relatives of the young couple.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 25 guests was held at the Gold Hill home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cogswell. The refreshment table was centered with a wedding cake flanked with white candles and arrangements of ester reed daisies.

Assisting Mrs. Cogswell and the bride's mother with the serving were the bride's two sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Hobson, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Richard Straus, Medford, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Centers, Medford.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Payne left for a short wedding trip to the coast. They will stay in Grants Pass during the remainder of the bridegroom's furlough. After he returns to his station at The Presidio in San Francisco, Mrs. Payne will stay with her parents in Gold Hill until her husband completes his term of service in the Army.

The bride was graduated from Crater High school this past year. Mr. Payne was graduated from Grants Pass High school in the class of 1948, and made his home in Grants Pass before entering the service.

Dining at the Christianna club at Sun Valley, Ida., recently were Dr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Emmens, 10 Keeneway drive, Medford. The Emmens spent the first week in July at the famous resort.

Theater Guild Considers Plays by Shakespeare

New York—The Theater Guild is eyeing three propositions involving British productions for its schedule next fall.

One is "The Love of Four Colonels," a London success by and with Peter Ustinov. A second is Hepburn in Shaw's "The Millionairess," scheduled for London late this month. The third concerns John Gielgud and his appearance here in two Shakespeare plays, "Measure for Measure" and "Much Ado About Nothing."

To Meet

Medford Sojourners' club will meet Thursday, July 24, at the Medford hotel. Dessert will be served, and cards played during the remainder of the afternoon.

Methodist Church Group Holds Dessert Meeting; New Officers Preside

Circle 8 of First Methodist church held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold White, South Pacific highway.

A dessert luncheon preceded the business meeting which was conducted by Mrs. Peter Zimmerman, newly elected chairman. Other officers for the coming year are Mrs. Ben Schmidt, vice-chairman; Mrs. Walter Garner, secretary; Mrs. George Goodman, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Merrill, Mrs. Paul Bray and Mrs. Harry Chipman, membership and telephone committee; Miss Bessie Wilke, sunshine committee; and Mrs. Ross Adams, publicity.

New members are Mrs. John Pilkington and Mrs. Earl McAllister. Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. Hardwick Harshman, Mrs. Jack Draper, Albany; and Mrs. Dale Newton.

Mrs. Zimmerman announced that the annual picnic of the WSCS will be held at the home of Mrs. Herbert Sampert, Renault avenue, Tuesday, July 22. An event of July 23 will be a reception in the church parlor honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Hardwick Harshman.

The group also decided to send a CARE package overseas in memory of Mrs. Joetta Bray, a former member of circle 8, who passed away recently.

The members will dispense with the August meeting, and the next meeting will be September 16 at the home of Mrs. Ross Adams, 2308 Hillcrest road.

Travelers Home

Mr. and Mrs. Earl York and Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge returned last week from a motor trip north. The travelers made stops in Portland and Seattle, and were as far north as Victoria, B. C.

Group To Sponsor Lecture In City By Adelle Davis

Adelle Davis, consulting nutritionist in Los Angeles and author of "Let's Cook It Right" and "Let's Have Healthy Children" will lecture in Medford Thursday, July 31. Mrs. Davis will speak at the YMCA at 8 p.m. under the sponsorship of Medford Living Foods Group.

Mrs. Davis has studied at Purdue university, the University of California, Columbia and the University of California at Los Angeles. She began her career at a dietitian at Bellevue hospital in New York City, served as a nutritionist in health clinics and for some time was supervisor of health education in the public schools of Yonkers, N. Y. Tickets for the lecture may be obtained by calling Mrs. George S. Jennings, or from the Health Food store at 807 South Central avenue.

In addition to aiding motor travel, one of the main purposes of early automobile clubs was to overcome antagonism of lively stable operators who frequently barred "horseless carriages" from their premises.

Delegate To Leave For Washington

Mrs. Evelyn Schroeder will leave Monday, July 21, to attend the national convention of the National Secretaries association to be held in Washington, D. C.

The Rogue River chapter held their last meeting at the Jackson hotel. Six supper guests from the Klamath Falls chapter were present, and District Attorney Paul W. Haviland was speaker of the evening.

Walter Johnson pitched 21 years for the same team, the Washington Senators, from 1907 through 1927.
