Polio Serum Experiment Gets Under Way in Iowa as Sioux City Has 13th Death

Sioux City, Ia. — (U.P.) — Urgently needed iron lungs were rushed here Monday as thousands of anxious parents awaited the start of a mass experiment with an untried anti-polio serum.

More than 16,000 children between the ages of one and 11 will start receiving inoculations today in the second test of its kind this year.

Gamma Globulin Used
Half the children will be inoculated with gamma globulin serum. The rest will receive an injection of a harmless gelatin substance.

None of the children, or the parents, will know whether they have been inoculated with the serum or the harmless gelatin solution. The type of inoculation will be kept secret until doctors publish their conclusions on the test.

Won't Prevent Polio
Medical experts know that gamma globulin will not prevent polio. However, they are trying to determine if the serum will take the paralysis out of the crippling disease.

Two iron lungs were rushed here by Army plane from Duluth, Minn., Sunday night as the city recorded its 13th death during the current epidemic of polio.

Old County Jail Donated for Use In Jubilee Display

Jacksonville—The old county jail at Jacksonville has been donated for display purposes for the Gold Rush Jubilee, August 2 and 3, by the Southern Oregon Historical society, according to P. E. (Scotty) Matheny, general jubilee chairman.

Any Rogue river valley business or industry that wishes to acquire free display space in the building is requested to contact jubilee headquarters for space reservation, Matheny said. He expressed hope that a representative display from the valley would be set up to advertise the various economic phases to the jubilee patrons.

New Candidate
Another queen candidate was added to the contestants on Saturday making a total of six. She is Miss Janice Feldman, 15, Jacksonville. Miss Feldman is a sophomore at Jacksonville high school and stands 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighs 125 pounds and has brown hair and eyes. Her hobbies include swimming and roller skating.

Other contestants are the Misses Kay Marie Fisher, Phoenix; Margie Strader, Talent; Kay Carrara, Anne Weaver and Donna Schrader, all of Medford.

Dr. Al Griffin, queen contest chairman, noted that the age limits for contestants were 14 to 21. Late comers to the contest have an equal chance to win the weekly prizes offered. Dr. Griffin pointed out, and each contestant will receive a prize at the ending of the contest and a formal gown which she may keep.

Lamar Tooze Made Brigadier General

Portland —(U.P.)—Portland attorney Lamar Tooze was a brigadier general Monday, the first Oregon reserve officer to achieve that rank.

The veteran of 35 years in the reserves won his colonel's wings during World War Two. His single star was pinned on his collar Sunday at Vancouver Barracks, Vancouver, Wash., just before the 104th "Timberwolf" division entrained for two weeks of summer maneuvers at Fort Lewis, Wash. Tooze is commanding officer of the division.

DISILLUTIONED MOTHER POISONS DAUGHTER'S MIND
When a person has had an unhappy experience, she is likely to be bitter and disillusioned. This unfavorable attitude expresses itself in the advice she gives others. Here is a typical case:

(Q) "I am very much in love with a wonderful fellow. My mother has been telling me for years that I shouldn't marry until I am 25 years old because, she says, no matter how nice a fellow is to you before you are married, he isn't going to treat you nicely after he marries you. She also tells me I'm going to be sorry after I marry this fellow. Now I don't know what to do."

(A) In one respect, your mother's advice is good. You have a much greater chance for a happy marriage if you are a bit older than most girls think they should be when they marry.

That does not mean that you should wait until your 25th birthday but it would be wise to wait until you are close to that time.

There are several reasons for this. In the first place, you and the man you marry will be more mature and, as a result, will be able to adjust to each other and to marriage better.

Then there is the financial situation. If you wait until he gets on his feet in business, you will not have to worry as much as younger people usually do. Financial problems cause lots of unhappiness in marriage.

As for a man's not treating his wife well after marriage, that is not always true. No man marries with the intention of treating his wife badly. If he does so, it is because he is unhappy and disillusioned. In many cases, that is his wife's fault.

Mother Made Bitter

Your mother's marriage may not have been as happy as she dreamed it would be. This has made her bitter and disillusioned. She is trying to keep you from the same unhappiness she has had but I think she has gone about it the wrong way.

Boy Lost on Mt. Hood Found After Four Hours

Portland — (U.P.) — A four-year-old boy who wandered from his parents' camp site in the Mt. Hood national forest Sunday was found unharmed four hours later.

Rangers said Tommy Prosser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prosser, Hayward, Cal., was found by searchers about a mile and a half from the camp, 30 miles southeast of Hood river.

Ask her to tell you what has made her marriage unhappy and what part she has contributed to this unhappiness. Then you can profit by her experience. If you are prepared to make your marriage happy, you have a very good chance of success. If you have a personal problem write Elizabeth Hurlock in care of this newspaper. bar polio in a Sioux City hospital despite the frantic efforts of doctors to save her. She was stricken with the disease last Thursday.

Overloaded hospital staffs treated a total of 132 active cases of polio. Specially trained nurses and physical therapists were flown here from cities across the nation to help weary medical men and their aides.
