

FINE SPEAKS OUT — Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania addresses the Republican Convention in Chicago Wednesday afternoon. It was later reported he would support General Eisenhower for the nomination.

Oregon Delegates Stay With Kefauver Up To Conscience

Salem—(U.P.)—Attorney General George Neuner said Monday that the length of time an Oregon delegate to the Democratic national convention stays with the voters' choice for president is a matter between the delegate and his conscience.

Neuner replied to the query of a member of the Oregon delegation now in Chicago, pointing out that the pledge taken by the delegates binds them only to "put forth their best efforts" to nominate the candidate favored by Democratic voters in the state's primary election.

Just when his "best efforts" are exhausted, Neuner said, is a matter for the individual candidate to decide. He said, however, he didn't think the requirement would be satisfied "by merely casting his first vote."

The Oregon delegation is pledged to Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

AGATE SHOW

Oceanlake—The 10th annual agate show of the North Lincoln Agate society will be held here July 26 and 27. Collections of both amateur and commercial exhibitors will be displayed. There will be specimens from all over the world, according to the sponsors.

Eugene—(U.P.)—J. Scott Milne, international secretary of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Washington, D.C., will give the opening address here Thursday at a two-day conference on labor-management relations.
