

Episcopal Church Scene MacWhirter-Meadows Rites

The wedding of Miss Verna Jean Meadows and Donald E. MacWhirter Jr., was an event of July 20 at St. Marks Episcopal church. The double ring ceremony was attended by over 100 guests. The Rev. J. M. B. Gill performed the rites at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Jerome McDougall of Central Point, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the Misses Carolyn Shangle, Carolyn Coleman, and Bonnie Dallaire, all of Medford; and Pat MacWhirter, sister of the bridegroom, Santa Rosa, Calif.

Linda Kunzman, Central Point, was flower girl. Arthur Ostrander, Ashland, served as best man. Ushers were Dick Reedy, Ashland; James Pond, Medford; and Herman Ghea and Jason Wilson, both Ashland.

The bride is a daughter of W. Kenneth Meadows, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. MacWhirter of Santa Rosa.

The bride's gown was of eggshell satin with hoop skirt and train with lace inserts. A seed pearl headpiece held her tulle veil and she carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Mrs. McDougall wore a coral organza gown in colonial design and her flowers were pastel blue shasta daisies. She also wore a blue daisy headpiece.

The bridesmaids' gowns matched Mrs. McDougall's gown in design. Miss Shangle wore green, Miss Coleman, lavender, Miss Dallaire, pastel blue, and Miss MacWhirter, pastel pink. They carried daisies in pastel hues and white with matching headpieces.

The flower girl's gown of white organdy was similar to the others and she carried a basket filled with white shasta daisies.

The church was decorated with white gladiolus, white shasta daisies, fern and the pews ends were marked with pastel daisies. Mrs. E. C. Conrad furnished the wedding music.

The reception was held in the parish house. Mrs. Frank Meadows, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Frank Bernheisel, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Roy Smith served punch and Miss Joan Russell had charge of the guest book.

The bride has lived in Medford her entire life and was graduated from Medford high school. The bridegroom is an Ashland high school graduate and now is a student at Santa Rosa Junior college.

The couple will live after August 1 at Santa Rosa. They are making a wedding trip to California coastal towns.

August Wedding Rites Planned for Phoenix Girl and Navy Man

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Lovett, Phoenix, recently announced the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances Maxine Lovett, to William H. Pierce. The bridegroom is stationed with the Navy at Long Beach, Calif.

The announcement was made during a Hawaiian dinner served by the bride's parents at their home.

Miss Lovett is a 1949 Phoenix high school graduate and now is employed at Sacramento, Calif., by the California state department of architecture. Her fiancé recently returned from 19 months in Japanese and Korean waters on board the USS Ashtabula.

Their wedding date is set for mid-August. They plan a wedding trip to Mexico and then will live at Long Beach.

Clarkson-Smith Married In Double Ring Ceremony

Central Point—One of the larger summer weddings was that of Miss Wanda Smith and Marion Clarkson, July 19. The 8 o'clock evening ceremony was performed in the Medford Friends church, with about 120 guests attending.

The Rev. Clynton G. Crisman officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, Central Point, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clarkson, Greenleaf, Ida.

The bride's floor length dress was of white slipper satin. The veil she wore was of Chantilly lace and first was worn in 1914 by Madam von Dorn Harbert when she was decorated by the king of Belgium in recognition of her work as president of the International Congress of Farm Women.

The bride carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

Her maid of honor, Miss Joan DeZell, Spokane, Wash., wore a lilac taffeta floor length dress. Miss Betty Brown, Greenleaf, Ida.; Miss Marlene Addington, Central Point, and Miss Eietta Wheeler, Newberg, were bridesmaids. Their gowns were of orchid taffeta and they carried nosegays of orchid sweet peas.

Shirley Roberts, Central Point, was flower girl and Frank Roberts, Central Point, was ring bearer.

Marvin Clarkson, Greenleaf, was best man for his brother.

Miss Diane James, Sams Valley, and Miss Shirley Sullivan, Medford, were candlelighters. Their dresses were of yellow and blue organdy.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a rose crepe dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a brown and white pinstripe dress with white accessories. Both wore white corsages.

The church was decorated with gladiolus and sweet peas. Lary and Gary Smith, twin brothers of the bride, sang a duet and Mrs. Marjorie Crisman sang a solo. Mrs. Crisman also played the wedding music.

Ushers were James and Doyle Smith, Central Point; Gene Comfort, Greenleaf, and Dick Beebe, Eugene.

The reception was held at the church parlors. Mrs. Letha Dillon, sister of the bridegroom from Boise, cut the wedding cake. Miss Rose Marie Hansen, Medford, served punch and Miss Pat Schroeder, Medford, had charge of the guest book. Women of the church also assisted during the reception.

The couple left for their wedding trip by way of the coast and visited in Salem and they are living at 122 Portland avenue, Medford.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Ontario, Calif., uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Smith, Baton Rouge, La., cousins of the bride; Wayne Smith, DeQueen, Ark., a cousin of the bride.

In addition to the bridegroom's parents and his brother and sister, were family friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Reilly, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Temple McCollough, Nampa, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beebe, Eugene.

The bride was graduated from Polytechnic high school, Riverside, Calif., after attending grade school in Oklahoma, Medford and Central Point. She also attended George Fox college at Newberg the past year and has been employed as receptionist by Dr. Alvin Roberts, Central Point.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Greenleaf academy and he attended Friends Bible college, H viland, Kan., and the George Fox college.

Many out-of-town relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Clarkson were in Medford for rites which wed the couple July 19 at the Medford Friends church. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, live in Central Point. She is the former Miss Wanda Smith. The bridegroom formerly lived in Greenleaf, Ida., home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clarkson. —(Brainerd photo)
