

What's New At BELL'S

From Sunny Italy—ceramic pieces of artistry and charm. On the elegant side, there's a footed candy jar, elaborately pierced and lavished with gold. Less formal is a cigarette set in the very popular rooster motif. A delightful bonbon dish uses twin bowknots for handles. Vases and planters, too, in this fine selection of imports.

From heating a can of baby food to boiling up a batch of preserves—Weaver has made a top-quality aluminum pan for it. And if you're in the mood to whip up a mile-high chiffon cake, a juicy berry pie, or anything else in the baking line—we have just the Weaver pan for it.

Bell's Homewares
44 South Central

FUR STORAGE
Phone 2-6526 Medford, Ore.

Dead line Sunday Classifieds is at 5:30 p.m. for following day; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; noon Saturday.

SHIRTS... COME BACK TO YOU THE WAY YOU LIKE THEM SPIC & SPAN!

Our special shirt laundering process GUARANTEES longer wear... our friendly route man will pick up your shirts (or you drop them off here) and you'll get them back sparkling clean... collars and cuffs perfectly formed... just the way you like them. And don't forget to send us your sheets, pillow cases and other hard-to-do items.

DRY CLEANING

Warm summer days are hard on clothes. Why not let us dry clean them regularly, so that they are always in proper shape, clean and the colors "alive"? They're MOTH TREATED, too when they're dry cleaned here!

Phone 2-6165
FOR FREE PICKUP AND DELIVERY

CREDIT ACCOUNTS INVITED

ONE CALL DOES IT ALL!
Al Dumas' Medford Domestic

Laundry & Dry Cleaning
30 N. RIVERSIDE MEDFORD

Medford Rites Wed Out-of-town Couple; Will Live at Alameda

Sunday, July 20, Miss Betty Juanita Lillie of Provolt became the bride of Wallace D. Green of Klamath, Calif., now stationed at the Alameda, Calif., Navy Air base.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lillie and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burchfield.

The ceremony was performed at the Medford St. Marks Episcopal church in the presence of about 40 guests. The Rev. J. M. B. Gill officiated for the 2:30 o'clock single ring ceremony, in a setting of white and pastel gladiolus.

Mrs. Diana Fay of Wilderville was matron of honor and George Tilley of Gold Hill acted as best man.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a white gabardine suit with navy blue accessories. Baby orchids formed her corsage.

The bride is a 1930 graduate of Grants Pass high school and the bridegroom attended Medford high school.

The couple made their wedding trip to Salada Beach, Calif., and will live after August 1 at Alameda, where the bridegroom is an aviation electrician's mate with the Navy Air arm.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding in addition to the bridegroom's parents were the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lillie, Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. W. Lunceford, Bremerton, Wash., who are houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lillie, 1174 Court street.

Beta Chi Theta Rho Girls' Club Initiates; Presented With Flag

Central Point—Miss Ayers and Oteka Shepperd were initiated into the Beta Chi Theta Rho girls club July 17 during the group's first initiation ceremonies.

The committee in charge was Miss Beverly Taylor, Miss Sally Pepper and Mrs. Ralph Burkhardt. Mrs. E. C. Faber, Mrs. Mary Moore, Mrs. Albert Trautman and Mrs. Andy Glenn of the Women's Relief corps presented the club a large American flag, the staff and stand which had been made by Bert Langston.

Other guests were Miss Lillian Anderson and Mrs. Ernest Taylor of the Rebekah lodge; Mrs. Forest Thomason, advisor; and Mrs. Ernest Lowry and Mrs. Burkhardt, board of control members.

The refreshments were served from a table arranged with a centerpiece of phlox and shasta daisies.

Betty Juanita Lillie and Wallace D. Green, shown above, were wed in rites held July 20 at the St. Marks Episcopal church. The couple will live at Alameda, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed at the Navy Air base. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lillie, Provolt, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burchfield, Klamath, Calif. —(Ellison photo)

Summer Camp Delegates, Foreign War Brides Talk to Women's Society

Members of the First Methodist church Woman's Society held their annual picnic meeting in the garden at the home of Mrs. Herbert Sampert, 159 Renault avenue, on Tuesday, July 22.

A session of business was held at 11 o'clock with Mrs. Jessie Minear, president, presiding. Announcement was made of Bible study classes to be held in the church during August with Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, professor of religion at Pacific University, Forest Grove, conducting the classes.

Mrs. Charles Thompson led the devotions for the afternoon. Delegates to the recent summer school held at Camp Magruder then gave their interpretations of the activities there. Included in this group were Mrs. Jessie Minear, Mrs. Lionel Rankin, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. W. T. Frost, Mrs. Byron Pierce and Miss Carol VanAusdal.

Mrs. Pierce told of the musical programs, Mrs. Watson's topic was "Mission work in Africa." Mrs. Frost told of the devotional services presented by the young women at the camp. High lights of the study and recreational classes were given by Mrs. Minear, Mrs. Rankin and Miss VanAusdal.

Mrs. Gerald Warren, program chairman for the afternoon, introduced Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, who is assisting foreign war brides in learning the American way of life. Mrs. D'Albini had present with her three women who are members of her classes whom she introduced. Mrs. H. Ransstrom, who came to this country some years ago from Sweden, told of the churches of her country, stating that formerly the Lutheran church was the recognized church of Sweden while now one may join any of a number of Protestant churches. She also told of the progress made in the schools of her country.

Mrs. R. L. Herbert, an Italian war bride, expressed her appreciation of the help and friendship extended to her in this country. "In Italy one is born into a certain class and regardless of accomplishments which one may attain, the class never changes," she told her listeners. "Here there is no class distinction, and everyone is friendly, and I like your country for I am accepted graciously."

Mrs. C. Stanley, the last speaker, came from Germany about five years ago. She, too, expressed the same feelings toward this country as did Mrs. Herbert and her listeners asked questions which pertained to the political set up in Germany and the attitude of the people toward America.

Sewing Meeting

The Medford members of Zuleima temple will meet at 12 noon, Wednesday, July 30, in the Girls Community club for the second sewing meeting of the summer.

A pot luck luncheon will precede the sewing session and all Daughters of the Nile are asked to attend. Table service is required.

Cream wax is perfect for eradicating the crayon or finger marks left on light painted woodwork by children. Just pour it on a cloth and wipe.

H. Carolyn Green, John Marvin York Wed at Recent Rites

Miss H. Carolyn Green became the bride of John Marvin York, July 11 at the Church of Christ, non-denominational.

The Rev. Glen W. Lundy performed the service at 8 o'clock in the evening. About 150 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Lundy, former Grants Pass residents, more recently of Upland, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. York, Medford.

The bride's sister, Miss Mary V. Lundy, Upland, Calif., was maid of honor. Mrs. Norma J. York, Medford, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom was a bridesmatron and Miss Daris Reynolds, Riddle, was bridesmaid.

James A. York, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushers were Clell Lundy and James C. Lundy, brothers of the bride, Upland, Calif.; Harvey Martin, Medford, and Bryce Herndon, Grants Pass.

Candlelighters were Neva Varner, Grants Pass, and Eleanor Martin, Medford.

The bride's gown was of white organdy designed with a train. Her veil was of nylon netting held in place with a heart-shaped headpiece. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid.

The bridesmatron and bridesmaid wore similar organdy dresses which matched the bride's gown. Mrs. York's gown was green and Miss Reynolds's was yellow. The candlelighters' gowns were taffeta with full skirts.

Arrangements of white and peach gladioli with palms formed the decorations.

The wedding music was furnished by a vocal quartet made up of Mrs. Ida Thompson, Mrs. Celia Martin, Oran Martin and Bill Cate. Mrs. Arlis Cate sang a solo.

The reception was held at the church. Mrs. Ida Thompson served the punch and Mrs. Hazel Woodward, Grants Pass, served the wedding cake.

The couple will live at 423 King street. The bridegroom is employed by the Pierce-Martin Insurance agency. He attended Southern Oregon college for two years and also attended Abilene Christian college at Abilene, Tex. He is a 1949 Talcott high school graduate.

The bride was graduated in 1940 from Grants Pass high school. She attended Southern Oregon college and Pepperdine college, Los Angeles. She has been employed at Burelson's Ladies Ready-to-Wear store.

Central Point Club Honors Winners

Central Point—Winners of a recent contest by FL club members were honored at an outdoor supper served recently by other club members at TouVelle park.

Mrs. Forest Thomason won a special prize. Mrs. Harold Wilson will be hostess for the group's next meeting.

Mr. England is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles England, Medford. He was discharged last May from the Marine corps after serving for four years.

Mrs. W. J. Hess, aunt of the bride, from Madras, Ore., was here for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marvin York are shown here following their wedding July 11 in the Church of Christ, non-denominational. The bride is the former Miss H. Carolyn Green. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Lundy, former Grants Pass residents more recently of Upland, Calif. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. York, 316 Portland avenue. —(Bill Cate photo)

Sojourners Meet for Dessert and Cards Members Bade Farewell

Forty-six members and guests of the Medford Sojourners met Thursday in the Medford hotel for a regular dessert luncheon. Each of those attending was given a gladiolus corsage and gladioli also were used to decorate the dessert table.

The short business meeting was followed by cards with prizes for bridge won by Mrs. Alyce Swanson and Mrs. E. F. Cronin. The pinochle awards went to Mrs. W. S. Lair and Mrs. C. G. Whitney.

Mrs. Fred Brennen and Mrs. Nina Chandler won the canasta prizes. Special awards were given to Mrs. C. P. Talbot, Mrs. E. F. Cronin, Mrs. J. E. Westland, Mrs. Charlotte McCullough and Mrs. Mildred Joseph.

Prospective members attending were Mrs. Chandler and Mrs. L. McCarl. Mrs. H. P. Willard, Moose Jaw, Saskatoon, Sask., Can., was a guest, and Mrs. Fred Bennen, a new member, was introduced.

The afternoon's hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Broyles, Mrs. F. E. Burdick and Mrs. T. G. Parker. Announcements were made of the departures soon of Mrs. Norval Hildman, who will leave for Portland, and Mrs. C. P. Talbot, who will live in Kansas City. Both have served as officers and board members of the Medford Sojourners.

Make the radiator in your room a part of the furniture unit. The Gas Appliance Manufacturers association suggests a cover with a good-looking louver or grille front. Build in cabinets or shelves on each side.

They're Here Again!

THOSE WONDERFUL
PETER PAN BRAS
small bust, in-between size, any size!

if your strapless bra doesn't flatter... you need...

PETER PAN

*Hidden Treasure
for fuller measure without PADS! without PUFFS!

the contours are built right into the MAGICUP—adds fullness confidentially!

At last—the one strapless bra that gives you a fuller, flattering bustline under bare-shouldered fashions—without embarrassing "falsies" or gadgets! Fits securely... and comfortably, too! Keeps its glamorous contours washing after washing. Try it—you'll know why thousands of smart women always insist on Hidden Treasure! Come in, write or phone for yours.
SIZES 32-36A; 32-38B

STRAPLESS STYLE white nylon $5.00

We Give S&H Green Stamps

Pick's APPAREL
112 EAST MAIN - Next to Robinson Bros.

Helena Rubinstein's new perfume Spray Deodorant keeps underarms dry perfumes and stops odor!

Looking for the perfect deodorant? It's here—in the prettiest pink plastic bottle you've ever seen. Just one squeeze of the bottle and Helena Rubinstein's remarkable new perfume deodorant covers your whole underarm. It's deliciously scented with the essence of white magnolias—and even though it checks perspiration as well as odor, it will not harm your clothing. Need we say that the plastic bottle won't break, spill or leak? It won't.

2 ounce bottle 125

PLUS—

Matching White Magnolia Cologne Stick
Combination Value $2.05

Both for only $1.25

During our Rubinstein Sale

