Over Forty Attend Beagle Club Picnic

The annual meeting of the Beagle club was held in Tou Velle park, Sunday, July 20, where more than 40 members gathered for a basket dinner.

New officers elected to serve for the coming year were Belle Loftin, president; H. M. Harper, vice-president, and Charlotte Sweet, secretary-treasurer.

Short talks were given about the various projects vital to the Beagle area, including an outline of the plans for securing an irrigation project. A report on the work of the REA in securing power for Beagle as well as other rural areas, was given by George Loftin. He also reported on his trip to confer with Army officials in San Francisco in regard to the status of Camp White. While there, Mr. Loftin was assured the Beagle farms would not be endangered except in the eventuality of all-out war.

The Beagle club was organized in 1944 as a reunion of former residents of the Beagle area, with Charles Haas as the first president.

Toastmistress Club Hears of Convention

Medford Toastmistress club had a picnic dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thatcher, 210 Beatty street, Monday, July 21.

Mrs. George McIntyre, speaker of the evening, gave a talk entitled "Highlights of My Trip," in which she told about attending the Republican convention in Chicago. She was introduced by Miss Katrina Runtz, toastmistress for the evening.

Guests attending the picnic were Mrs. Hazeldeen Hohensee, Mrs. Lawrence Buonocore, and Miss Jo Williams.

Mrs. P. W. Foster, president, appointed new officers for the committees, and then extemporaneous talks were given with Miss Mary Ann Wilson acting as topicmistress. Each speaker drew a subject and gave a speech on it.

Luncheon Friday

Jolly Stithers will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Bryant, 1312 Rddy avenue, Friday, August 1, for a 12 o'clock luncheon.

Royal Neighbor Juvenile Club Installs Officers

Miss Sharon Copsey was installed oracle of the Royal Neighbor Juvenile lodge during installing ceremonies July 17 at the Pythian building. Other officers installed to serve with her are Freda Mae Rawstern, vice-oracle; Charlotte Franklin, chancellor; Joan Read, musician; Darlene Morrow, recorder; Frank Franklin, receiver; Dennis Barr, marshal; Clayton Copsey, assistant marshal; Myrton Schaffer and Cecile Gidney, sentinels; Evelyn Chew, patriotism; Mary Ann Adams, service chairman; Rosemary Rawstern, marching musician.

Larry Regester, Marshall Sellar and Leona Wright are the new managers.

Miss Geraldine Gidney, outgoing oracle, placed the crown on the new oracle, and installing officers were the Misses Melva and Belva Chew, and Miss Helen Read assisted by Kathie Read and Tommy Stevens.

Miss Gidney was installed as past oracle.

For the event the hall was decorated in purple, white and gold, with picks, shovels and gold pans representing "golden opportunity."

The outgoing oracle presented corsages to Mrs. Clayton Walker, Mrs. Paul Morrow, Mrs. Frank Gidney and Mrs. Robert Gilman. Gifts were given to Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Gidney, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Russell Zundel, Mrs. Clarence Chew, Mrs. Gilman, Mrs. Katherine Fredricks, Mrs. Laura Scott, Kathie Read, Tommy Stevens, Miss Copsey and Miss Gidney.

Mrs. Morrow was given a special honor by a group of juvenile girls in appreciation of her work and Miss Gidney gave her a past officers gift.

A program was presented by a group of small girls from the Colleen Hope dance studio and accordion selections were played by the Misses Chew. Other selections were played by Mrs. Alexander's Hawaiian band. Juveniles, their parents and guests were served refreshments by Mrs. Carl Pearson and her committee. The tables were arranged in the form of a cross. Flower arrangements, "gold" nuggets and a congratulatory center piece decorated the tables. Favors were in the form of gold and purple crowns.

Club Representatives Attending Convention

Three valley women are in Hollywood, Calif., where they are attending a national contest convention at the Roosevelt hotel. The three are members of the Medford Woodcrafters club and represent the club at the convention. They are Mrs. Jess Ragsdale, 513 Palm street; Mrs. Clinton Charley and Mrs. Marie Dizney, both of Central Point. Each has won numerous national contests.

The group is staying at the hotel and they plan to make tours of Hollywood and radio and television studios. They also hope to participate in a "Queen for a Day" radio program since they have tickets to that show.

YMCA Soap Sale Helps Prospective Members

The YMCA announces an opportunity for any boy or girl in Medford, nine years of age or older, to become a member of this organization by helping with a soap sale which starts today. Full instructions for those wishing to participate may be had at the YMCA desk. No money is necessary to join in the sale.

Last year over 50 boys and girls earned their YMCA memberships through this means. Several found it possible to earn

Williams Entertaining Visitors from Hawaii At Several Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Williams 619 South Ivy street, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Alice Harrigan, Oahu, Hawaii, since their arrival in Medford, Wednesday.

Mr. Harrigan is a Veteran of Foreign Wars leader in the islands, and a retired Navy man. Mrs. Harrigan is a native Hawaiian, originally from the island of Molokai where she lived on her family estate. The Williams had met them on a vacation in Hawaii four years ago, and kept up a correspondence.

Thursday evening the visitors were entertained with a party at the Williams home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Winkler and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stephens and family. Friday the Stephens, Williams and Harrigans gathered at the Winkler home, 513 Dakota avenue, and Mrs. Harrigan showed the group ancient and modern hula dances. She accompanied herself on the ukelele and sang Hawaiian songs.

Sunday the group had a picnic near Yreka, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Orville C. Farnley will be included on the outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrigan will remain in Medford until Thursday when they will travel to California. Mr. Harrigan is a delegate to the VFW convention which will be held in Los Angeles, August 3 to 8. They plan to stop off at Calistoga, Calif., before returning home.

Hear those squeaks? Time you got complete lubrication

Depend on Car-Saver service to stop expensive wear

Squeaks may be a warning—of needs more serious than chassis lubrication. Perhaps other things have been neglected, too. Automatic transmissions, for instance, should be checked every 1000 miles, drained at recommended intervals. For wheel bearings, oil filters, air cleaners—regular attention is vital! Car-Savers check everything... so we can warn you of trouble before it happens. Don't let incomplete service cause you costly repairs. Better see your Car-Saver soon—for service that's complete!
