Confetti Corn Is Heap Good Eating

According to Indian legend, corn was a gift from the Great Spirit. Even with the help of the spirits, the Indians never saw more luscious golden sweet corn than that available right now in your favorite market. Make a colorful dish like this:

- 3 or 4 ears of corn
- (1½ cups kernels)
- ¾ cup finely diced celery
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 3 tablespoons chopped pimiento or red or green bell peppers
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

Boil or steam corn five minutes. (Or use frozen corn or niblets type canned corn). Cut corn from cob. Cook celery and peppers in butter for five minutes. Add corn, peppers, salt and pepper. Cook five minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Serve immediately.

Beet Soup, Hot or Cold

Borscht or beet soup stems from the Slavic tradition where flavors are sharp and exciting. To a rich broth, add finely chopped beets together with their juice, minced onion and a dash of salt. Vinegar is blended in. The result is a refreshing, tantalizing balance of sweet and sour.

- 2½ cups beets
- 1/3 cup minced onion
- 1 can condensed consommé, undiluted
- 1 cup water
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 6 tablespoons cider vinegar
- ½ cup sour cream

Cook and dice beets or use a No. 2 can, reserving ½ cup beet juice in either event. Finely chop the beets. Combine with beet juice, onion, soup and water. Heat thoroughly but do not boil. Add salt and vinegar. Serve hot or chill thoroughly. Top each serving with 1 tablespoon sour cream. Makes 5 or 6 servings.

Western Ham and Egg Special. Sandwiches to take or to toast and enjoy at home. In skillet, fry ½ cup diced ham, ¼ cup chopped green pepper, ¼ cup chopped onion. Combine 3 slightly beaten eggs, 3 tablespoons milk, salt, pepper and mustard to taste. Pour into pan; brown lightly. Turn and brown other side. Cut into quarters. Put between plain or toasted slices of rye or chicken Hawaiian.

This super duck was really perfected for duck, but we tried it with chicken, and believe us there is nothing the matter with Chicken Hawaiian. Duck is now available the year around in either local fresh supply or frozen. Chicken of course is readily available at reasonable prices.

- 1 4-pound duckling or fowl
- ¼ cup salad oil or other fat
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon soy sauce
- ½ teaspoon powdered ginger
- ½ teaspoon onion salt
- 1½ teaspoons curry powder
- 1 cup chicken broth or chicken bouillon
- 1 cup pineapple juice
- 2/3 cup water

- 1 cup pineapple cubes or wedges
- 1 bunch green onions, cut in 1-inch pieces

Cut duck or chicken into serving pieces. Brown in oil. Place in greased baking pan or casserole. Mix cornstarch and seasonings and make into a paste with a little chicken broth. Add remaining ingredients except green onions. Pour over duck or chicken.

Cover and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 1½ to 2 hours. Add a little more water if necessary. Ten minutes before duck is done, sprinkle green onions on top. Finish baking. Serve with rice garnished with sprinkling of toasted shredded almonds. Serves 4 generously.

For a delightful accompaniment for many meats, especially ham, these are recommended highly. Just boil ¾ cup vinegar.

2½ cups sugar, 2 dozen whole cloves and a stick of cinnamon until sugar is dissolved and syrup thick. Then drop the bananas into the hot syrup and boil for two minutes. Remove from fire, cool and serve bananas whole or cut. Strain and save remaining spice sauce for next batch of spiced bananas.

Curry Favor With This. A good tip from a Hawaiian cook is the use of ¼ to ½ teaspoon curry powder for 3 pounds of fish in any fish casserole recipe. And some curry powder in the pickle jar when you're pickling is definitely worth remembering: one teaspoon to a pint jar is about right.

Many Fresh Fruits Fill Week-end Market Baskets

Bartlett pears and summer apples are rapidly reaching their peak of flavorful perfection. Now is the time to check with your fruit man about best buys in both these fruits for home-canning and freezing. Wonderful, too, for apple pie and for fresh pear salads. Remember that summer apples are more tart than the winter varieties; they take a bit more sugar, less spice.

Now is the time also to enjoy the wonderful variety of fresh fruits which abound in our markets. In good supply we find, besides pears and summer apples, peaches, purple plums, cantaloupe, berries of different kinds, apricots, watermelons, and the usual bananas, oranges and grapefruit. Pineapples are available at reasonable to high prices.

Vegetables are abundant and of excellent quality. Tender ears of golden corn just right for roasting or 3 to 5 minute boiling. Cucumbers, lettuce, tomatoes, green onions, radishes, celery and cabbage are all on the list of good buys. For further variety in the vegetable line we find spinach, an assortment of squashes, cauliflower, and carrots at moderate prices. Green beans, fresh peas and eggplant are available.

Tender Young Turkeys. Western homemakers find all sizes of this delicious food delicacy in their favorite markets, and many families are making it a

Congress Advised To Go Easy With 'Dirty Book' Probe

Washington — (U.P.) — Rep. Emanuel Celler said Friday Congress had better go easy with its "dirty book" investigation or it may wind up outlawing the Holy Bible.

"There are a lot of references to incest in the Bible," the New York Democrat said, "and everyone knows that a high life was led by David, the giant-killer."

Celler feared the works of Shakespeare, Chaucer and other literary greats also would be "blackened out" in any congressional ban on smut in printed form.

One of Committee. Celler is one of nine hand-picked members on a special House committee set up to study the "immoral, obscene or otherwise offensive matters" in books, magazines and comic books found on newsstands and in corner drugstores.

The $25,000 inquiry was sponsored by Rep. E. C. Gathings, Arkansas Democrat who staged an impromptu "hootchy-kootchy" dance to kick off his companion investigation of sex and crime on radio and television programs. Movies Viewed. Investigators currently are spending quite a bit of time in the dark—viewing some pornographic movies rounded up by Gathings to demonstrate just how widespread smut has become.

They also have poured over other Gathings' samples like playing cards decorated with nude ladies, magazines featuring full-page "art" photos of draped and undraped girls in a variety of poses, and lusty passages in love story bedroom scenes.

Gathings had said the committee plans to hold open hearings later and that some of his collection will be put on public display.

MAMMOTH IN NEBRASKA. Dawson, Neb.—(U.P.)—A paleontologist from the University of Nebraska identified remains found on the Nemaha river near here as those of one of the early mammoths. Lloyd Tanner guessed that the animal lived about 35,000 years ago when Nebraska was populated by giant elephants.

A bidentate animal is one with only two teeth.
