

Church Rites Wed Miss Jan Freeman, Benjamin Carter

Central Point—The wedding of Miss Jan Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Freeman, Central Point, to Benjamin Robert Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Edwards, Central Point, was an event of Sunday, August 3. The bridegroom is a ship's serviceman third class in the United States Navy.

The Rev. D. E. Millard, Eagle Point, officiated at the double-ring ceremony held at the home of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Baskets of pink and white gladiolus and roses decorated the room.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of white embroidered organza. Her headpiece was of white carnations and she carried a white carnation and stephanotis nosegay.

Mrs. R. M. Korner, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a street-length dress of blue embossed sheer and a white carnation headpiece. Her nosegay was of white carnations. Acting as best man was Joseph C. Edwards, father of the bridegroom.

A reception followed the ceremony at the bride's home. The bridegroom's mother served the cake and punch.

The couple took a wedding trip to Diamond Lake and Crater Lake, and the bride is now making her home temporarily with her parents while her husband is on duty aboard ship now stationed at Newport, R.I. He will leave for a tour of duty in Northern European waters at the end of August.

The bride was graduated from Central Point high school and attended Oregon State college. She is now employed as a receptionist by Dr. F. A. Freeburger, Medford. The bridegroom attended Central Point high school and has been in the Navy for the past 4½ years.

Miss Clara Johnson And Donald Wendt Set Wedding Date

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Clara L. Johnson, Jacksonville, daughter of Mrs. Lilian Miller, Portland, to Donald W. Wendt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wendt, Jacksonville, was announced recently.

The marriage ceremony is planned for August 29 in the Jacksonville Presbyterian church.

Miss Johnson attended Linfield college and now teaches at the Jacksonville high school. The prospective bridegroom attended Jacksonville high school, the University of Oregon, and Monterey junior college. He is now employed by the Southern Pacific railroad company, Medford.

Shown following their wedding July 31 in First Presbyterian church are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Joseph Camden. Before her wedding the bride was Miss Cecile Louine Morris, and she is a daughter of Mrs. A. M. Davis, Azalea, Ore., and A. C. Morris, Los Angeles, Calif. In recent years the bride has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holmes, route 1, Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Camden, 819 West Thirteenth street.

The regular business meeting will be followed by a White Cross work period. Those attending are asked to bring scissors and wool pieces for quilt blocks.

Meeting Scheduled For Bible Class

Miss Anna Streed's Bible class will meet at the home of Mrs. S. D. Earhart, 11 North Peach street, instead of at the home of Mrs. Robert Shock as was originally planned. The meeting will be at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Aug. 12.

Presbyterian Rites Wed Cecile Morris To Richard Camden

An event of July 31 was the wedding of Miss Cecile Louine Morris to Richard Joseph Camden, the rites having been read at First Presbyterian church. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. A. M. Davis, Azalea, Ore., and A. C. Morris, Los Angeles. Mr. Camden's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Camden, 819 West Thirteenth street.

The Rev. D. Kirkland West officiated at the ceremony, held at eight o'clock in the evening. The bride, who has made her home in recent years with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Holmes, route 1, was given in marriage by Mr. Holmes.

Arrangements of pink and white gladiolus decorated the church and sprays of these flowers marked the pew ends. Preceding the ceremony Miss Duane Carole Maddox sang. She was accompanied by Mrs. E. S. Veatch, sister of Mrs. Holmes from Klamath Falls, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride's gown was of nylon net and lace designed with peler pan collar and three-quarter lace sleeves. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a coronet of pearls, and her bouquet was of white gladiolus.

Miss Yvonne Keith was maid-of-honor for the bride. She wore a gown of green nylon net over taffeta and carried pale pink gladiolus. Miss Patricia Crow, bridesmaid, wore yellow nylon net over taffeta and her flowers were yellow gladiolus.

A. L. Clay was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Bob Gray, Phil Sanders, John Grabow and Frank Morris, brother of the bride.

The reception which followed the ceremony was given in the church parlor by Mr. and Mrs. Holmes. Mrs. John Moffat poured and Miss Josephine Kirtley cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. George Kerr, Mrs. Holmes' niece from Walla Walla, Wash. Miss Kirtley cut the cake with an heirloom knife belonging to Mrs. W. J. Warner which has been used for weddings in the valley for the past 45 years. For the Camden-Morris reception it was decorated with a spray of tiny pink rosebuds.

Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. John Moffat, Mrs. Lyle Van Scoy and Mrs. Victor Sether arranged the church flowers and members of Grace circle of the church, with Mrs. Lewis Ulrich assisting, decorated the bride's table and the reception rooms with gladiolus blossoms.

About 125 relatives and friends attended the wedding and reception. Mr. Camden and his bride are spending their honeymoon on the Oregon coast and upon their return will live temporarily at 819 West Thirteenth street. Later they will leave for Chicago where Mr. Camden will continue his education at Northwestern university.

The bride and bridegroom both were graduated from Medford Senior High school and the bride is an assistant to Dr. Thomas H. Emmens. The bridegroom attended the University of Oregon before entering the Chicago school.

Here for the wedding were the bride's mother from Azalea, her father and brothers, Danny and Dick, Los Angeles; her brother, Jack Morris from an air force base in Mississippi; Mrs. George Kerr and daughter, Nancy, Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Roy Camden, aunt of the bridegroom from Oberammergau, Germany; Mrs. George Parker, sister-in-law of Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, her sister, both from Klamath Falls.

Miss Maddox Honored At Shower Parties; Wedding Next Sunday

Miss Duane Carole Maddox, whose wedding to A. L. Clay is set for Sunday, August 17, has been feted with several bridal showers recently.

Miss Lovelle Davies was hostess at a party given in the Davies' yard, 1779 Spring street, Thursday evening. Gifts of linen were arranged in a wheelbarrow decorated with tinfoil, red and white paper, and butterflies which Miss Davies had made. About 10 guests were present, and Miss Patsy Davies assisted her sister as hostess.

Mrs. E. Ronald Rice, 302 Vancouver avenue, honored Miss Maddox with a kitchen shower. About 22 men and women were invited, and Mrs. Charles Martin assisted the hostess. During the evening the men embroidered a set of tea towels which Mrs. Rice presented to the bride.

Another shower was given for Miss Maddox by Mrs. H. Chandler Drew, 3528 Delta Chambers road. About 25 guests attended the party and Miss Maddox was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

Travelers Return From Alaskan Trip

Mrs. Rosalee Davis, Evelyn apartments, returned recently from a two week cruise to Alaska aboard the U.S.S. Aleutian-Alaska. With her was Mrs. George Beck, Dunsmuir, Calif.

They left Seattle, July 18 and travelled to Wrangell, Valdez, Juneau and Seward, taking a few hours to sightsee in each place the ship docked. From Seward, they took a train to Anchorage where they spent a day.

Mrs. Davis talked of the beauty of the mountains and glaciers, and said that there was only rain for a short time one day of the trip.

To Hold Reunion Of James Family

The home of Mrs. H. B. James, 2527 Capitol avenue, will be the scene of a family reunion this week.

Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harris B. James and daughters, Brenda and Catherine, arrived last night from Colorado Springs. Another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dolph James and daughter Alice, Eugene, Ore., will join the group Wednesday for the reunion.

Virginia Couple Visit in Medford

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bowers, 48 Rose avenue, were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Bowers, Arlington, Va.

Mr. Bowers is heating engineer in charge of about 40 schools in the Arlington school system. His wife is a grade school teacher in that city.

While here the couple visited the coast and other places of interest in Southern Oregon. They left for home last week end.
