Well Known Model Visitor in Medford; Lectures for Group

Nelson Bennett, New York City, considered one of the nation's leading artist's models, is spending several days in Medford. He has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Platz, 1512 Wilson place. Mr. Platz is president of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists.

Friday evening Mr. Bennett lectured for members of the society at the Art center, and posed for sketches.

The model has traveled extensively in all parts of the world and has posed for many famous artists. He is now engaged in writing a book which is to cover his experiences, and since he had worked in all 48 states with the exception of Oregon and Washington, came to the west coast this summer to visit artists in these two states.

Council and Directors Of Ruth Esther Guild Have Picnic, Meeting

The executive council and directors of Ruth Esther Wesleyan Service guild, First Methodist church, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Adamson, 839 East Jackson street Thursday evening for a potluck picnic. Mrs. Adamson is president of the guild.

A tentative program for the year was planned and several meetings will be devoted to the review of books on Africa. Plans were made for a reception Sunday evening August 24, after the church services, to honor Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, who opens a week of lectures at the church.

The Rev. and Mrs. Harwick Harshman were guests at the potluck picnic.

Childrens Leave After Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Childreth, formerly Medford residents now living in Portland, have been visiting relatives and friends in Medford for the past week.

Their daughter, Shirlee Childreth, has been here three weeks staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Childreth, and her aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brewold, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Childreth, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Irish.

While in Medford several picnics and dinners were given for the Childreths. Mr. Childreth was associated with the U.S. Department of Agriculture when he resided here. He is now with the U.S. Department of Interior.

The Childreths left Sunday for home. They previously spent some time in Redmond, Klamath Falls, Tulelake, Calif., and Ashland.

Georgia Youth First In Soap Box Derby

Akron — (U.P.) — Joe Lunn, a grinning 11-year-old from Thomsville, Ga., with a bump on his head and a song in his heart, ruled Monday as king of the Soap Box Derby world.

Lunn, who represented Columbus, Ga., came back from a first heat crash that dented in the nose of his racer and bumped his head to win the 15th annual international Soap Box Derby Sunday.

Akron, O. — (U.P.) — Three Oregon youths were eliminated in first-round heats of the 15th annual All-American Soap Box derby here Sunday.

First round losses were chalked up against Richard Reeves, Grants Pass; Phillip G. Shoop, Astoria, and Douglas H. Adams, Salem.

Donald Merwin, Vancouver, won his first two heats but was eliminated in the third round by the eventual grand winner of the derby, Joe Lunn, Thomsville, Ga.

Bit of Stanhope In Stonemason Jobs

Boyne City, Mich. — (U.P.) — There is "a little bit of Stanhope" in literally hundreds of Michigan buildings.

Stonemason Guy Stanhope, 66, says the public never will see it and until now never knew it, but he has laid his own "cornerstone" in a good many buildings.

"I like my work," he said, "and I get a kick out of leaving a little bit of Stanhope in every job."

So, down through the years, while the dedicating committee was out front making flowery speeches, Stanhope was quietly sealing up his own cornerstones.

Each one contains a newspaper clipping or new-minted coin, packed into a match box, he said.

The Rh reference to your blood on your donor card refers to the rhesus monkeys that were used for the initial experiments in determining the agglutination quality of the blood. Only 15 out of every 100 persons have an Rh negative factor.
