Mr. Henicka was born May 11, in St. Paul, Minn. He was a veteran of World War I, serving from Feb. 23, 1918, to May 26, 1919, as a private in Co. "H," 325th Inf., 82nd Division.

Ashland Lumber Firm Files Incorporation

Salem—(U.P.)—A new lumbering corporation doing business in Ashland has filed articles of incorporation with the corporation commissioner in Salem.

Articles for the Lithia Lumber Co. were signed by Paul K. Folks, Roscoe S. Owens and James F. Steltzer. Capitalization was $100,000.

Today's Great Lakes were born with the melting of the last huge ice sheet over North America. As the sun's warmth pushed the boundary northward, the glacial waters were trapped between the ice front and highlands which now hold the headwaters of the Mississippi, Ohio, Susquehanna and Hudson rivers.

Assault, Battery Charges Result In Fines for Two

Two valley men were fined for assault and battery in district court Saturday, according to Sheriff Howard Gault.

Jim Duggage Monday, 44, general delivery, Central Point, was fined $50 for assault and battery against Alice Monday on the Table Rock road, and Arthur Day Dillon, 33, Box 204, Talent, was fined $25 for assault and battery against Martha Dillon on August 9.

In other court action, Michael Francis Heaverne, 31, of Klamath Falls, was fined $10 and costs on a charge of being drunk on a public highway, and Fred Gyer Spencer, 45, of Crescent, Ore., pleaded innocent to a charge of drunk driving.

Gault reported no further disposition of the following cases: Felix O. Costello, 52, of Ashland, drunk on public highway; Frank Porter, 49, of 189 Harrison street, Ashland, drunk on public highway; Frances Alda Padgett, 23, of Pardee court, Table Rock road, drunk driving; Cleatis Gerald Mitchell, 21, of Route one, box 131, Ashland, drunk on a public highway.

Also being held for authorities in Klamath Falls is Clyde Emery Tiltonson, 46, of Box 201, Jacksonville, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, Gault concluded.

Girls Use Ancient Gag To Go Roller Skating

Alliance, Neb. (U.P.)—Two girls had 50 cents between them plus a desire to go roller skating. There was one hitch. The money they had would admit only one.

But after watching the other girls skate awhile, they came up with an idea. They went to the owner and asked him if it was a quarter after eight. He glanced at his watch and said yes.

"We'll go skating then. Give us two tickets."

He chuckled at the ancient gag and gave them the tickets.

Butterflies Create Hazard for Traffic

Bend (U.P.)—Add traffic hazards: Butterflies.

The fluttering insects have become so numerous in the Lava Butte area south of Bend that they not only are clouding windshields and clogging car radiators but their crushed bodies are making Highway 97 slippery.

Cars Hit at Phoenix; Damage Claimed Minor

Rex Lee Johnson, Rogue River, and John Rudolph Baldwin, Ashland, were involved in a minor traffic accident in Phoenix Sunday morning, the state police report. Police said Johnson started to turn across the highway and was hit by Baldwin's car. Damage was minor and no citations were issued.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—SEVEN

Offer Accepted for School Construction

Eagle Point—Bessonette and Graff, Medford contracting firm, was successful bidder for construction of an elementary school addition here, school officials announced.

The firm made a $76,400 offer under an alternate plan. There were four other bidders.

Six classrooms and lavatories are contained in the addition. Construction will commence immediately and completion is anticipated in about 90 days. Howard Perrin, Klamath Falls, is architect.

Assault, Battery Charge To Be Heard on Tuesday

Allen Edward Gebhard, 1519 North Riverside avenue, will be tried in police court tomorrow morning on charges of assault and battery.

Mrs. Ann May Great, 329 1/2 Kennet street, signed a complaint against Gebhard, charging that he hit her and her daughter with rocks and that he broke her mother's arm in a neighborhood quarrel Friday. Her mother, Mrs. Rose Bell Huff, is 76 years old.

Gebhard has posted bail of $100.

Two Butte Falls Men Given Jail Sentences

Three Butte Falls men were sentenced to 10 days in city jail for vagrancy this morning by City Judge Warren Lesse.

Clyde Donald Gouglin, 25; William C. Merryweather, 25; and Raymond Elmer Coughlin, 32, all Butte Falls, were arrested early this morning. The police officer said they were acting suspiciously at Main street and Central avenue.

Police records show Merryweather climbed into a pickup truck there while the other two stood outside. Merryweather is not thought to have taken anything.

Judge Lesse also sentenced Thomas P. Chaney, 51, Camp White, to jail today. Chaney was given 50 days for being drunk in a public place.

State Forest Patrol Extinguishes Fires

The state forest patrol put out two small grass fires Sunday, it was reported this morning. One of the fires was near Ashland. The other was near Medford, between Buckshot road and Spring street. There were no reports as to size of the fires this morning.
