ABOUT THE PREDICTED HIGHER PRICES...
FRUITS VEGETABLES

The price of canned fruits should not go up and advance buying does not seem advisable.
Growers are getting less for both peaches and pears than was paid last year.

Here is where the crops suffered most in many parts of the country by the dry weather. Here in the west we have plenty but the demand elsewhere for coast foods means short supply and possible higher prices.

SUBSTANTIAL DISCOUNT ON CASE LOTS OF ALL CANNED VEGETABLES FROM REGULAR PRICES!
