Janet Rutherford Becomes Bride of James Rowan Gray

Of interest here are details of the wedding of Miss Janet Rutherford, to James Rowan Gray, held July 20 in the McMinnville Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Rutherford, McMinnville, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gray, 18 Modoc avenue, Medford.

The couple exchanged memorized vows in a double-ring ceremony before the Rev. Lawrence Guderian at four o'clock in the afternoon. White and lavender gladioli formed a setting for the bridal party.

Miss Ellen Louise Stone was soloist, and Mrs. George Muhle was at the organ.

The bride's gown was of white chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her french illusion veil, trimmed with lace, was held by a Juliet cap of lace and pearls and she carried white orchids, roses and stephanotis.

Miss Mary Kay Reeves, Lebanon, sorority sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and bridesmaids were Miss Jane Cline and Miss Molly Mattheck, McMinnville. Miss Sue Gray, sister of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid.

The attendants' ballerina style gowns were of dotted swiss over taffeta worn with big sashes of matching taffeta, small caps and mitts to match. Miss Reeves and Miss Gray's gowns were lavender, and they carried baskets of lavender ester reed daisies. Miss Cline and Miss Mattheck were gowned in yellow and they carried baskets of yellow daisies.

Mrs. James Case and Mrs. Richard Close, sorority sisters of the bride, lighted the candles. They wore matching ballerina gowns of pink organdy.

Robert Gray was best man for his brother and ushers were Richard Henselman, Medford, Herm Kaiser, Eugene; Gayl Ness, Berkeley, Calif.; and Norman Combs, McMinnville, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a ballerina gown of rose silk organza over taffeta and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in a ballerina dress of gray lace worn with purple accessories and her corsage was a lavender orchid.

The reception which followed was in Youngson hall. Pouring serving and assisting at the reception were Mrs. Ronald Rutherford, Mrs. Arlie Walker, Mrs. Art Beedle, Mrs. Neil Pyle, Mrs. Bruce Chalmers, Miss Nancy Wells, Mrs. James Bunnage, Mrs. Glen Patton, Mrs. Donald Hendrickson, Miss Pat Clark, Miss Shirley Quilliam, Miss Pauline Deggendorfer and Mrs. Jennie Fink.

Miss Mary Adams and Mrs. Richard Boubel provided background music for the reception and sorority sisters of the bride serenaded the couple with the sweetheart songs of the bride and bridegroom's fraternal groups.

Mr. Gray and his bride made a wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., and are now at home at Hayward, Calif., where Mr. Gray is with the consumer research division of Continental Can company. Mrs. Gray will teach home economics in San Lorenzo High school this fall.

The bride was graduated from McMinnville High school and Oregon State college where she was a Pi Beta Phi sorority member. Mr. Gray served with the army after graduation from high school and is an alumnus of Oregon State college where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

In addition to the bridegroom's parents and sister, those attending the wedding from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henselman and Miss Jane Barker.
