Rogue River Club Wins Fair Prize; Meeting Planned

Rogue River—Laurel Garden club of Rogue River won first prize at the Josephine County fair for its entry "Blue Bird Trail Park."

The entry was made up of various summer flowers, moss and miniature trees laid out in a park with playground equipment in miniature, dolls, cars, road lights, silica for the roads and a playground. Tiny blue bird houses hung in the trees, as well as a real bird's nest containing three tiny eggs.

Members who won with their individual entries were Mrs. W. A. White, sweepstakes winner and blue ribbon for her double tiger lilies, second on a single tiger lily, first on decorative white dahlia, first on pompon dahlia, second on annual phlox and first on Unwin dahlia; Mrs. Henry Bonney, second on yellow dahlia; Mrs. Orma Farnham, third on pink and purple petunias; Mrs. Claude Willoughby, third on pink dahlia.

August meeting of the club was held at the country home of Mrs. Claire Douglas, and was a dinner with husbands of members as guests.

Next meeting will be September 2 at the home of Mrs. Walter Kasworm at 1 p.m.

Gold was discovered in Australia in 1851.

Auxiliary Holds Dinner Meeting; Sales To Be Held

Officer of the Medford Lady Lions entertained members and their husbands Friday evening at the K. S. Campbell home. A potluck picnic supper was served in the patio.

The game of horse shoe was a diversion of the evening and the women held a brief business meeting at which a rummage sale was planned for Wednesday evening, August 26 and all day Thursday, August 27. The sale is to be used toward the group's annual Christmas project which provides toys for children of needy families. It will be held in a vacant store building next to the Bartlett street Safeway store.

Those who have rummage to be picked up may call telephones 2-4034 or 2-9882 by Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. E. O. McKeen is chairman for the sale with Mrs. Herbert Seitz, assisting.

Two Church Circles Hold Recent Sessions

Mrs. E. S. Etrother, Shady Cove, recently entertained Circle 2 of Medford Methodist woman's Society of Christian Service at her summer home on Rogue River. A brief business session was held and a covered dish dinner was served.

Announcement was made of two study groups to be held in the Medford Methodist church. Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, Pacific university, Forest Grove, will conduct the first, September 8 to 12 and another in October which Mrs. Hardwick W. Harshman will lead. Subject of Dr. Crane's study will be "Jeremiah the Prophet," and Mrs. Harshman will lead the subject, "Latin Speaking Americans in the United States. The book used in this study will be "Within Our Borders."

Mrs. Harshman was a guest at the meeting.

Mrs. E. G. Paschke will be chairman for the circle bazaar and Mrs. Floyd Lewis is chairman of the sunshine and visitation committee.

A dessert luncheon was served to 16 members of WSCS Circle 4 and a visitor at the home of Mrs. W. G. Werner on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. R. Woodford prepared the devotions from the book, "The Golden Key," and a quiz program was conducted from "The Methodist Woman," led by Mrs. Bryan Pierce.

Numerous ideas and plans were discussed for a bazaar. Next regular meeting of the circle will include a work time before lunch, each member to take a sack lunch. Mrs. Walter Garner, hostess for that meeting, will furnish dessert and coffee.

A newspaper survey covering 1,724 physicians revealed that 1,700 of them believe women should not wear shoes without stockings. Much of the increase in serious foot trouble among women, the doctors said, is due to the practice of going without stockings in summer.

Barbers Return From Trip Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barber, 716 McAndrews road, have returned home after spending seven weeks traveling to England and Scotland where they visited relatives and friends. This was the first trip Mrs. Barber had made to England since she left that country in 1922. Mr. Barber visited there in 1937.

The Barbers were accompanied by their oldest daughter, Mrs. Leon Henderson, Portland.

Records at the archives and western history department of the University of Wyoming show Ella Watson, alias "Cattle Kate," was the first woman hanged in the territory of Wyoming.

The Lewis and Clark expedition from the Mississippi River to the Pacific Coast and back again lasted from May, 1804, to September, 1806, and 31 men were in the official party. The entire trip was made on a budget of $2,500, according to the National Geographic Society.

Many cross-country U. S. highways closely follow the trails of early explorers. Motorists now skim over Route 50 near the spot where, 126 years ago, Jedediah Smith nearly stumbled to his death, the first white man to cross the high Sierras and the Nevada-Utah desert.
