

Riders To Make Week End Trip To Prospect Area

Medford Trail Riders have planned an overnight ride Saturday and Sunday, August 29-30, at Hamaker's meadows, 10 miles above Union Creek.

Those wishing to make the ride are asked to be at the meadows by 12 noon Saturday and then ride into the camp from there. The meadows are one and one-half miles off the Diamond Lake highway and the road is good, those in charge of the ride state. The sign indicating the meadows is on the left side of the highway and can be plainly seen, it is stated.

Supper will be served at 7 p.m. Saturday, and breakfast will be served Sunday morning. A sack lunch will be provided for Sunday noon. Each rider is asked to take hay for his horse. Further information may be obtained at Gibson's saddlery on Holly street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell and Mrs. Clyde Bunker, Eagle Point, make up the committee on arrangements.

Iowan is Guest At Wilson Home

Mrs. Clara Barclay of Sioux City, Ia., is spending a few weeks in Medford as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, and with Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Gail, Gold Hill.

While here Mrs. Barclay will also spend some time with Mrs. Orville Elliott, formerly of the Klamath agency and now in a nursing home in Medford. The two women are long-time friends.

Mrs. Barclay and the Wilsons attended the annual Jackson County 4-H fair last week.

Group Attends Play in Ashland

Miss Grace Margaret Webster, San Francisco, was a guest last week end of Miss Helen Webster, 413 South Oakdale avenue. Miss Webster motored up with a group of friends to attend the production of "Coriolanus" Saturday by the Oregon Shakespearean festival company in Ashland.

The visitors returned south Sunday.
