

Bob Atkinson Will Defend Southern Oregon Mantle

Rogue Valley Country club officials reported today that Bob Atkinson, Portland, definitely will defend his Southern Oregon Golf tournament championship.

The tourney is scheduled here September 3 through 7. Atkinson, Columbia-Edgewater club ace, won the Southern Oregon tour both in 1951 and 1952, defeating Eddie Simmons, Medford, six-time champion.

Word concerning Atkinson's entry was brought by George Harrington, who nosed out Atkinson by one stroke last week end in the Oregon Golf association medal play tourney at Oswego. Harrington said that Dick Hansen, Coos Bay, four times southern Oregon titlist, will also compete here this year. He has not participated for several years.

Other entries include Bennie Hughes, Portland, finalist in the national public links tourney a few years ago; Sid Milligan, leading Eugene golfer, and George Beechler, Ontario, Salem high school star of many years ago. He is a member of the local club.

The Southern Oregon championships are being held for the 25th time this year.

Qualifying play for local high handicappers got underway here today. For Rogue Valley men not aiming for the championship flight qualification play will last through next Wednesday. Local women with handicaps of 13 or more will make their 18-hole rounds through next Tuesday. Rogue Valley ladies with handicaps of 12 or more will qualify next Wednesday morning.
