Dinner and Meeting Held by Auxiliary; Projects Discussed

Crater Lions' auxiliary recently held a "come-as-you-are" potluck dinner and meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Ingram, 914 Queen Ann avenue. Mrs. Tom Besonette and Mrs. Floyd Eastwood were co-hostesses.

The informal attire of the members helped make the evening a gay one. Mrs. Dalton Gressett won a prize.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be held August 29 in Merrick's building, 112 North Riverside avenue. Mrs. Lowell Edwards is chairman.

Mrs. Besonette reported the net proceeds of the concession stand at the soft-ball games and also thanked each member for her co-operation and help on this large and profitable project.

The money raised from these projects is used to further the welfare work of the auxiliary and also to help the state school for the blind to which a substantial amount is donated each year.

Mrs. Charles Hoey, Phoenix auxiliary, and Mrs. Warren Brenner were guests at the meeting.

The next regular meeting will be a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. David Irving, 2103 Hillcrest road, September 10. Mrs. Del Chapman and Mrs. Robert Morris will assist.

Dance Jamboree Planned Saturday By Association

Final plans have been made for a square dance jamboree to be sponsored by the Southern Oregon Square Dance Association Saturday, August 29. If the weather is fair the jamboree will be held on the tennis courts, Central Point, and in case of rain dancing will be held at Kershaw's Square and Camp Corral, according to Frank Glenn, Central Point, chairman.

No charge will be made for the jamboree, and all dancers are invited. Dancing will begin at 8:30 p.m. and callers from Roseburg, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and Medford will be on hand.

Dave Clavner, Los Angeles, well known square dance expert, will act as master of ceremonies.

Miss Joan Wosky Recent Graduate

Miss Joan Wosky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wosky, 1728 Queen Ann avenue, Medford, was graduated from Saint Francis Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in San Francisco Friday, August 21, during ceremonies held at the War Memorial auditorium of that city. Miss Wosky was awarded her nursing school pin by Miss Dorothy E. Deeth, director of nurses.

Speaker at the ceremonies was Robert R. Gros, internationally known commentator and publicist, who said, in part, "in terms of professional standing and community esteem, a nurse treads a path apart from others. As she walks proudly through life in her starched white uniform and distinctive cap, she is quietly honored by everyone for her dedication to a life of public service."

Upon completion of her state board examinations, Miss Wosky will be affiliated with the San Francisco City and County surgical nursing staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Wosky were in San Francisco for the ceremonies.

John H. Carkin, Once Lawyer Here, Plans To Retire

Salem — John H. Carkin, former Medford city attorney and Jackson county representative, now head of the rail transportation office for the Oregon Public Utilities Commissioner, will retire at the end of this year, it was announced this week.

Carkin, 69, is a native of Maine. He came to Oregon near the turn of the century, and was admitted to the Oregon bar in 1909, and practiced law for 21 years. He was Medford city attorney from 1921 to 1929, and was a representative in the legislature from Jackson county in 1913, 1923, 1925, 1927 and 1929, serving as speaker of the house of representatives in 1927-28.

In 1929 he was named a member of the state tax commission and served for 10 years. He has made his home in Salem for a number of years.

Commissioner Charles H. Helzel, in accepting Carkin's resignation, said his service has been invaluable, and that the state is indebted to Carkin for the years "which you have served it with honor and ability."

Man Who Likes To Ride In Ambulances Arrested

Albuquerque, N.M.—(U.P.)—Police arrested Gus Massey, 32, Foss, Okla., after he walked into three places of business in the last 72 hours, announced he was dying and was rushed to the nearest hospital.

Massey, hospitals reported, was "in perfect shape." He explained he likes to ride in ambulances.
